

Chapter: 1799

Lin Ziming is so smart, he should have reacted immediately after hearing Peng Zhuo's words.

Indeed, his thinking is still in a misunderstanding. Why do you think that the form of the state must be better than the martial art?

Besides, there are various people in this world. Why should everyone think that the form of the country is better than the sect?

Or, people of sects simply look down on this form of the state.

However, in any case, he knew that there was a sect in this world, so that his understanding of the world became clearer.

From this point of view, the world in which I am now is actually not as boring as it seems on the surface, and it is still very exciting.

Moreover, he has a very strong hunch, believing that this world is in an era full of changes, and it is still unclear what the future will be like.

In the end, I talked a lot with Peng Zhuo, and Peng Zhuo knew nothing about it, which made his understanding of the martial art more clear.

“Director Peng, what do you mean is that in China, besides the military god and his old man, there are other powerhouses in the spirit realm?” Lin Ziming asked this crucial question.

Peng Zhuo was also surprised. He nodded and said, “Yes, there are more masters in the god-passing realm, in fact, there are more masters than many people think. The sect masters of the four main sects are all strong in the realm of God-passing. In fact, Luo Tian organized It also belongs to one of the four sects. It belongs to the Southern School, also known as the Luotian School.”

Hearing this message, Lin Ziming was no longer surprised, because he had already thought about it just now. After all, the Luo Tian organization is still very powerful. Among them, the Luo Tian Sage King is extremely powerful. If you say, the Luo Tian organization is very powerful. It's not one of the four main sects, so how strong are the four sects?

Soon, Lin Ziming asked another curious question, “What is the strength of the Luo Tian faction among the four major sects?”

Lin Ziming had been to the Luotian faction. In fact, he himself and a member of the Luotian faction, or the heavenly king of the Southern Territory, took the place of Thunder.

However, he was relatively free during this period, and his heart was not placed in Luo Tian organization at all.

Peng Zhuo said: “It's the countdown. In fact, the Luo Tian school is about to fall out of the four major sects. Otherwise, the Luo Tian school will not integrate into the country so frequently in these years.”

Lin Ziming was very surprised now. Even the Luo Tian faction is the last of the four major factions? This is too scary!

He has been to the Luotian faction personally. He knows the horror of the Luotian faction. Except for the holy king who sees the dragon without seeing the end, everyone else is very powerful. Take Jian Rushuang for example, his strength is extraordinary. , Even in the whole of China, there are only a handful of people who can win the sword.

Apart from him, there is only one little Valkyrie, who is Jian Rushuang's opponent, right?

And now, Peng Zhuo actually told him that even the Luo Tian school was in the bottom of the four major sects, and his age would fall out of the ranks of the four major sects. This was incredible.

In this way, the other three factions are extremely powerful!

Originally, Lin Ziming thought that he had reached such a realm at his own age, and he was already standing at the pinnacle of mankind. Although he did not show it on the surface, he was quite proud in his mind.

But now it seems that it belongs to him to sit in the well and watch the sky. As the saying goes, there are still many geniuses in this world!
