

Chapter: 1821

“you you you.....”

Li Qianyu pointed at Lin Ziming, her eyes widened like copper bells, with an expression that was totally incredible and unbelievable.

For her, Lin Ziming’s performance just now was really shocking.

She knew how good Du Wei was. Even the masters who opened the martial arts gym were not Du Wei’s opponents, otherwise Du Wei would not walk sideways in the university.

Especially just now Du Wei easily pulled out a piece of the wall on the pillar, which is different from the eagle claw in the movie.

However, facing such a powerful enemy, Lin Ziming actually defeated Du Wei so easily, and he still broke Du Wei’s fingers...

She didn’t know what to use to describe Lin Ziming.

At the beginning, she thought that Lin Ziming was just a student from a foreign school, an ordinary person, at best he was familiar with Professor Huangpu.

She just couldn’t help herself, so she chose to let Lin Ziming be a shield, but she never thought that Lin Ziming was really a super powerful person?

Her feeling was that she picked up a stone casually on the side of the road, and the result was as subversive and absurd as a super precious gem.

Lin Ziming saw her surprise, smiled, and said, “Why, you seem to be surprised?”

Li Qianyu finally recovered, but she was still shocked when she looked at Lin Ziming, and asked, “Who are you?”

Lin Ziming didn’t answer her question, he began to focus on Du Wei.

Du Wei’s right hand was abolished, and now he felt the pain in his heart. The shock and fear in his heart surpassed everyone!

Because only he himself knows how powerful he is. He is in the first stage of the Innate Realm, but in terms of his strength, he is comparable to the strong in the second stage of the Innate Realm in national society.

However, the strength that Lin Ziming showed just now was completely beyond the second stage of the Innate Realm.

Now he looked up and saw Lin Ziming with a meaningful smile on his face, walking towards him, he suddenly became a little hairy and a little scared.

“You, you, who are you?!” Du Wei also asked the same question as Li Qianyu.

At the same time, he quickly stood up, his eyes drifted away, and he found a chance to start to escape. Through the previous fight, he had determined that he was not Lin Ziming’s opponent.

Lin Ziming walked in front of him, and saw that he could be so calm, but he admired a bit.

“How long have you been lurking in the country and society?” Lin Ziming didn't talk nonsense with him, so he went straight to the point.

After Du Wei heard his words, his pupils suddenly enlarged and contracted, finally revealing more serious fear than before, and at the same time it was incredible.

The guy in front of him actually knows that he is from a sect? !

Doesn't it mean that most people in the country and society don't know the existence of sects!

At this moment, he felt the majesty and playfulness in Lin Ziming's eyes. He was really scared, and he was still scared.

Without any hesitation, he turned around and ran, and still ran towards the window.

This action of his shocked everyone present again. What's the situation of Du Wei? Do you want to jump off the building to escape? You know, this is on the fourth floor!

If this person jumped down, he would have to be disabled if he didn't die!
