

Chapter: 1829

Alice quickly grabbed her head. She was surprised. What happened to her, she felt so nervous and ashamed to face a strange man? This is not her style. You know, she was born in a big family, plus her national beauty, from small to large, there are countless excellent men lingering next to her, no matter what kind of man she faces, she has never been like this. To panic too. It is really rare for her to be so flustered and shy when she is only facing a strange Oriental.

She didn't think that she was in love at first sight with the oriental man next to her. She thought more that she had been hiding from the family bodyguard for this period of time, making her mind a little tired, that's why this happened.

Yes, it must be so.

Although she thought so, she couldn't help but glanced at Lin Ziming secretly. She always felt that Lin Ziming had an unspeakable temperament, which always made people want to get close. This feeling was her In other men, I have never encountered it.

This is really a magical Oriental.

Although Lin Ziming was reading the newspaper, he certainly knew that Alice's attention was on himself.

In fact, after he broke through to the half-step through the god realm, his vitality was much stronger, he did discover his own charm, and for the opposite sex, a qualitative change took place.

Now his body is not only very strong, but also very pure and clean, especially his vitality is very strong, full of upgrades, so that women will be attracted involuntarily.

Regarding this, he is actually quite distressed.

If he is a wanderer, that's fine, he can hunt many beautiful women. The key point is that he is not such a person, this peach blossom luck has become a peach blossom robbery.

He can only laugh bitterly about this, and there is no way to change anything. Can't he disguise himself as an old man?

Fortunately, the mixed-race beauty next to her is very well-trained, and she doesn't continue to talk to him, except for occasionally watching him secretly.

It took a long time to fly from Hua Country to Eagle Dog Country, and it took almost a day to arrive.

In the middle of the journey, the beautiful mixed-race woman next to him chatted with him on some topics, and Lin Ziming just happened to be idle and bored, so she didn't refuse her chat.

After this chat, Alice's impression of Lin Ziming improved, because she found that Lin Ziming not only smelled good on her body, but also very friendly, mainly because Lin Ziming's knowledge was too broad and all kinds of knowledgeable. Many talents, no matter what topic she throws up, Lin Ziming can pick up and talk freely.

She was able to express a point of view that she had never thought of before, which made her shine and empower her.

It was so interesting to chat with such a man, so when the plane landed, she was still very reluctant to give up.

Actually he was reluctant to be separated from this strange Eastern man.

After getting off the plane, Lin Ziming never asked her contact information, which made her quite disappointed. You know, when encountering this kind of things in the past, the other party always asked her contact information. But now Lin Ziming has little interest, which makes her more or less popular with everyone.

In the end, she couldn't help it, and said, "Lin, can I keep your contact information?"

After she finished speaking, she looked at Lin Ziming with expectation.

Who is Lin Ziming, why can't she guess what she thinks, she just smiled and said, "I don't have the number of the Eagle Dog Country. If we are destined, we will meet again, goodbye."

After saying these words, Lin Ziming left unhurriedly.

His refusal made Alice dumbfounded for a while. I didn't hear it wrong. The first time I asked a man for contact information, he was actually rejected?
