

Chapter: 1832

When she said these words, it was a bit of annoyance for Prince William. While Prince William was taken aback, his heart immediately became annoyed!

Alice, a bitch, dare not give him face in front of outsiders, damn it!

Moreover, he is still a poor Chinese, which makes him even more unhappy.

“Alice, I didn’t mean that.” Prince William shook his head, and then said: “It’s getting late, let’s go back first!”

With that said, he was about to reach out to hold Alice, and directly lead Alice away.

Alice escaped his hand in time, looked at Lin Ziming again with expectant eyes, and said, “Lin, we have a car here. Why don’t we take you to your destination.”

Lin Ziming originally wanted to refuse Alice’s enthusiasm. He was not blind. Naturally, he could see that the relationship between Alice and Prince William was not simple, and Prince William had obvious hostility towards him.

It wasn’t that he was scared, but that he came to the Eagle Dog Country, there was business, but he didn’t want to be delayed by these mundane things.

But soon, his brow raised slightly, and he felt a murderous intent passed from afar!

Immediately, his eyes were on Prince William and Alice.

The murderous intent just now did not come at him, but at Prince William and Alice.

Lin Ziming still has a good impression of Alice, she is a woman with good personality and three views, and has no hostility towards China.

After a brief thought, Lin Ziming decided to protect Alice. For him, it won’t take much time, it’s just a trivial matter.

“Okay.” After thinking briefly, Lin Ziming agreed, “Miss Alice, I will trouble you.”

Alice was originally a little nervous, afraid that Lin Ziming would refuse, but now that Lin Ziming agreed, she immediately relaxed, with a joyful smile on her face.

For Prince William, his expression was another expression. His expression quickly became gloomy, and the corners of his mouth twitched twice.

Alice’s behavior is just hitting him in the face!

Alice is his fiancée, but now she is actively making friends with a Chinese, so where did she put him!

If he had always vented his usual character, he would have beaten up this damn Oriental.

However, Alice’s family is not simple, and Alice does not marry him completely, so he still dare not tear his face in front of Alice.

He took a deep breath, tried hard to press his anger into his stomach, and then squeezed out a grudging smile, and said, “Alice, you finally came back. The family is waiting for you to go back. You pick it up midway. It’s not appropriate for a Chinese to go back, right?”

Alice didn’t know what Prince William meant. She knew that Prince William was a stingy person. She said, “There’s nothing wrong with it. I’ve been away for two months, and it’s not too late for these two hours. .”

When Prince William heard her words, the corners of his mouth twitched twice. He stared at Lin Ziming deeply and threatened Lin Ziming. As long as Lin Ziming was not a fool, he would be interesting if he winked a little.
