

Chapter: 1863

Hearing his voice, everyone in the conference room immediately breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, it was not an enemy.

But then, they were also shocked. Since it was support, why could he escape the alarm and come in silently? This is unscientific.

Moreover, what made them feel even more speechless was that the third Xuanyuan office really only sent one person to support it, which also shows that the third Xuanyuan office really gave up the mission!

“How did you get in?”

Immediately there was an agent, frowning and asked, he was not particularly relaxed about Lin Ziming. After all, for an excellent agent, he cannot relax his vigilance until he is 100% sure!

The other agents are the same. They are not relaxed and vigilant. Although their guns are not pointed at Lin Ziming, their nerves are still not relaxed. They focus on Lin Ziming, as long as Lin Ziming makes any rash actions. , They will shoot immediately and kill Lin Ziming!

They couldn't help but not be so vigilant, but during this period of time, they were made nervous by the holy religion, for fear that the holy religion would come here at any time and deal a fatal blow to them!

Lin Ziming saw through their reaction at a glance, and also realized that their mission must have been very unsuccessful, and that they had been ruined by their opponents.

He walked slowly, even in the face of the hostility of these people, he did not have any tension, kidding, he is a half-step master of the gods, in the gods, he is absolutely invincible super power, just this How could a dozen agents pose a threat to him?

Not to mention just a dozen special agents, even if it is an army of tens of thousands, he is fearless without nuclear weapons.

These agents saw Lin Ziming's performance so relaxed, they couldn't help being more vigilant towards him, and they didn't know whether Lin Ziming was an enemy or a friend.

After Lin Ziming came over, he sat down and said faintly: “I just have something to come to Eagle Country, and I will help you complete this task by the way. Tell me about the specific process of this task and where is the location? ?”

After hearing Lin Ziming's voice, they involuntarily looked at each other and started to make eye contact to judge whether Lin Ziming was genuine or not?

At this time, the middle-aged person in charge of the general manager asked in a deep voice, “You said your name is Lin Ziming. We haven't heard of you before. How can you prove your identity?”

Hearing this, Lin Ziming was surprised. In the three places of Xuanyuan, there are still people who don't know him?

Moreover, his reputation is not limited to the Xuanyuan three places, but is famous all over the world. These dozen agents are all masters of the innate realm. Isn't it possible to watch the live broadcast of the Kung Fu Cup?

So Lin Ziming asked weirdly, "Don't you know me?"

His expression is really weird.

When other people heard his words, they were slightly stunned. A female agent smiled and asked, "Are you famous?"

The others also laughed faintly, thinking that Lin Ziming was the kind of newcomer who had just joined in, young and arrogant, and thought that he had a great reputation. They have seen a lot of newcomers like this, thinking that their talent is the best in the world, and everyone in the world should know him.

Seeing their reaction, Lin Ziming waved his hand and didn't bother to continue talking. He didn't care about fame as much. Since these people don't know him, he should follow the formal process.
