

Chapter: 1932

But isn't it? At the normal speed of martial arts cultivation, no matter how talented you are, you still have to be more than 40 years old, or even 50 years old, to reach Lin Ziming's current state.

As for Lin Ziming, he just turned 30 this year, and he has already reached this point and is on the list of immortals.

It can be said that Lin Ziming is the youngest person on the list of immortals. Next, Her Royal Highness briefly introduced Lin Ziming to the Sealing Immortal Ranking, and finally she said, "Anyone who can be on the Sealing Immortal Ranking will almost be able to enter the Immortal Realm 100% as long as he does not die halfway. The future is bright."

After Lin Ziming listened, he was not too surprised. At this point, he understood the truth of the world. This is not just a world dominated by science and technology, but a world dominated by force.

Just like in the secular world, there will be a wealth list, who is the richest man in the world.

In the world of warriors, it is quite normal to have this immortal ranking list. It's just that he was a little surprised that with his current strength, he could only rank tenth.

In other words, there are nine people ahead of him, who are stronger than him?

This made him feel quite interesting, a thought that finally was no longer so lonely.

Indeed, after his seal was lifted, his cultivation was like riding a rocket, making rapid progress all the way, leaving his peers far behind, causing him to unconsciously produce a kind of loneliness like snow.

But now, because of the appearance of this immortal ranking list, he felt that he was not alone, and there were geniuses in this world.

This is a good thing.

Soon, Her Royal Highness discovered his joyful mood and could not help but said in surprise: "Lin, you found that there are nine people above you. Shouldn't you feel lost? Why do I look at you, it seems Very happy?"

Indeed, this is something that Her Royal Highness can't understand. In her opinion, Lin Ziming was originally a great rider, leaving his competitors far behind, it should be relatively lost. But Lin Ziming's reaction was exactly the opposite, which was indeed a bit strange.

Lin Ziming smiled and shook his head, and said, "What's so disappointing? I discovered that there are other geniuses who are better than me. It should be a happy thing. Only this kind of life is interesting, and he constantly challenges online. One, loneliness is like snow, and it's too powerful."

He said this sentence from the bottom of his heart. If it is truly invincible, it would be meaningless to his character.

Maybe when he will be number one in the world, that's when he retires.

Her Royal Highness was silent for a few seconds, and then let out a sigh, and said: “Lin, I now finally know why you can cultivate so fast. It is your temperament that surpasses most martial artists. Perhaps, this It is the characteristic that a genius should have.”

Lin Ziming smiled faintly, and didn't want to explain.

Next, after Lin Ziming stayed for another two days, his strength was completely restored to its peak, and in these two days, he also discussed with Her Royal Highness several times, so that he had a deeper understanding of the God Realm. understanding.

When the time came, he planned to rush to the beautiful country directly to challenge Adam! !
