

Chapter: 2052

Scott smiled playfully, his expression extremely teased, looking at Zhong Fan like a clown.

When Zhong Fan heard these words, he was dumbfounded.

Under what circumstances did Scott ask him to kneel and lick the soles of his shoes?

How does this sound like humiliating him?

He stayed where he was for a while and didn't know what to do.

When Scott saw that Zhong Fan did not move, he quickly squinted his eyes, revealing bursts of cold light, a powerful aura emanating from his body, and his eyes stared at Zhong Fan firmly. , "Why, you don't want to?!"

When Zhong Fan touched his gaze, he shivered fiercely. He only felt that his whole body was numb, and the goose bumps all over his body were also erected. "No, no, no, I didn't mean that, but... .."

He hesitated, especially panicked, cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

The dudes behind him frowned when they heard that they were about to kneel and lick the soles of their shoes. This was different from what they thought.

Scott continued: "My patience is not good, I count to three, you still don't kneel, hum!"

He didn't finish what he said, but his eyes were extremely cold, revealing great majesty and oppression, even murderous intent, oppressing Zhong Fan's body, leaving his brain blank, which can be said to be extremely frightening!

In particular, the hundreds of subordinates in the Zhuo court moved forward at the same time, tightly surrounding him, staring at him, making him tremble constantly, swinging his legs, and sweating on his forehead.

Where did he ever see such a scene? Looking at Scott's eyes, he had a strong hunch that if he dared not kneel, then Scott would definitely not let him go! !

Especially since there are so many thugs here, it is not impossible to sink him into the sea to feed the sharks.

For a while, he was particularly frightened and regretful. Under such tremendous pressure, he didn't know where his dignity went. As long as he could survive, dignity didn't matter.

So he was totally subconsciously going to kneel down and lick the soles of Scott's shoes.

However, just when he was about to kneel, a hand suddenly appeared behind his back, and it firmly grasped his shoulder, and accompanied by a cold voice, "If you dare to kneel, I Break your leg."

Hearing this sound, he shuddered even more severely, his knees that he was about to kneel down, and he stood straight.

Don't dare to kneel anymore.

At that moment, the threat posed to him by this voice was much greater than Scott.

When he looked back subconsciously, he immediately saw Lin Ziming's face without waves from the ancient well, which looked like an ancient well, which made people unable to see through.

He was stunned for a moment, then reacted, angrily cursed, "Lin Ziming, what the hell are you holding me for, let me go!"
