

Chapter: 2085

Because he was really hit by Lin Ziming.

He is a stingy person in his bones, especially since he was on the throne of the strongest in the West, he was afraid that his position would be threatened, so he has been out of rejection for those young geniuses who have emerged over the years. Attitude.

If he finds a really amazing young man, he will even take action to end the other person's life.

However, he has always done these things very secretly. For so many years, no one has discovered it. How could he have been discovered by Lin Ziming now! ! !

His guilty conscience didn't escape Lin Ziming's eyes, making him startled for a while. Originally, he just said casually just now, and didn't really think like this, but now, looking at Adam's reaction, he really said it. It's hit.

For a moment he laughed dumbly, and the more he thought about it, the more funny he was, "Hahahaha, Adam, you are guilty of your heart, and you have been said by me. You are really a little-bellied person. You are afraid that your position is threatened. Young man, you will deal with it in secret! Trust your disciple Hannibal, so don't help you with this kind of dirty work!"

"Lin Ziming, you are looking for death!!!"

Adam became angry for the first time, and his face was full of pig liver color. He dignified the power of the gods, and actually taunted the ant-like little people in his eyes. This is an unforgivable thing.

He no longer kept it, and attacked Lin Ziming again.

This time, his offense was even more fierce and even more terrifying. At the moment he shot, the sky and the earth suddenly changed color, as if Heaven and Dao were starting to get angry.

This kind of change made everyone around their faces changed when they looked at them. Some people with such a strong heart even knelt down.

As the person involved, Lin Ziming was most affected.

At this moment, he really felt the terrifying aura on Adam, and he really felt the pressure from heaven. This is the real power of the masters of the God-passing Realm!

The reason why the masters of the God-passing realm are so much stronger than the masters of the innate realm is that in addition to the strong physical energy and blood, it is more of the coercion on the spiritual level.

In the realm of the gods, even the ability to communicate with the heavens and the earth has appeared, so the masters of the realm of gods can feel the power of the heavens and the earth. Over time, the will and aura from the heavens are brewed, and it is truly released. of.

In an instant, Lin Ziming was also affected.

Fortunately, it was not the first time that he had fought against a powerhouse of the God-passing Realm. He had fought against the Queen before in the Eagle Dog Country. .

Later, he also fought with Asura, which made him more calm when facing Adam.

The most important thing is that he is not an ordinary half-step master of the gods, he also embodies the luck of China!

So, he began to fight back.
