

Chapter: 2087

Adam was too late to gain the upper hand, which shocked him incomparably. You know, he is a master of the God-passing realm, and he has reached the pinnacle of the first-rank realm. Even a real master of the God-passing realm can't hold it in his hands for too long, let alone lose the wind.

But the Lin Ziming in front of him really exceeded his expectations.

In his fight, Lin Ziming's fists and feet were very heavy, his physical strength was extremely abundant, and his moves were extremely delicate. Some moves could actually threaten him!

This has never happened before.

He didn't believe it was true at all, his eyes widened, and he was extremely angry in his heart.

Damn, damn! Why is this damned Chinese so powerful! He had already used 90% of his strength, and he couldn't even win Lin Ziming, and he couldn't even seize the upper hand.

Lin Ziming's mood is exactly the opposite of his, and now he is heartily and extremely happy!

It has been a long time since he has had such an enjoyment. Adam's strength is really much stronger than Ashura, and he can be called the strongest opponent he has ever encountered.

And his strength has improved a lot compared to when he was in Nuwazong, otherwise, he really is not Adam's opponent.

He is the type who gets more and more brave in battle. The stronger Adam is, the more he can arouse his fighting spirit.

He is certain that after his battle with Adam, his strength will definitely rise to a new level again.

For all those who were watching the battle, they were dumbfounded to see that Lin Ziming actually had the strength to fight Adam and was still equal.

The shock of this scene is unprecedented and powerful for them!

What they fought in this battle can be said to be earth-shattering, and the resulting movement is like a constant nuclear bomb explosion, destroying this small island to constant earthquakes.

All kinds of flying rocks are flying everywhere. All objects on the island, whether it is a rock or a tree, will collapse as long as they are touched by them, and will be blown up. They will directly become shattered and shot out toward the surroundings.

Some people who did not react so quickly were hit by a few high-speed ejection stones, directly injured, and even lost their lives.

Lin Ziming became more and more excited, his body temperature continued to rise, and his original white face was slowly reddening. On the top of his head, even white mist began to appear, which was instantly evaporated.

Adam is another reaction, Adam's body temperature is getting lower and lower!

At the same time, his eyes gradually changed from black and white to golden.

His speed is also accelerating continuously, which is far beyond the speed of sound.

With a bang, he kicked heavily towards Lin Ziming. That power was really comparable to a hydrogen bomb. The huge energy produced by nuclear fusion would be like a building in front of him. The tofu kicks up like it.

But Lin Ziming didn't dodge, he didn't even have any expressions on his face. He didn't even think about it. It was entirely a fighting consciousness.

Lifting his leg was kicking Adam and hitting Adam's whip leg hard.

“boom!!!”

An unprecedented loud noise erupted from their center, generating a huge sound wave that swept in all directions.

This sound was so loud that it swept across the lake directly, causing a two-meter-high wave on the lake to cover the surroundings.
