

Chapter: 2141

However, he couldn't control this trend of the times.

The power of him now seemed too insignificant compared to the whole world, just a small splash in this torrent.

In any case, since he can't change, then he must do his best to protect the people around him.

This is his wish and his responsibility.

After flying for two hours, he finally landed in Yandu and returned to the capital. Lin Ziming's mood was different from before.

After arriving in Yandu, he clearly felt that the temperature in Yandu was indeed a lot colder than that of Huacheng in the south. It is winter and the temperature has reached below zero.

Of course, for him, this low temperature is negligible to him. His body is like a stove, and he won't feel cold even if he wears a piece of clothing.

So when he appeared at the airport, it still attracted some people's attention. Compared with all the people around who were wearing down jackets and overcoats, he was just wearing a short-sleeved dress, which seemed too strange.

When he came out of the airport, he was about to take a taxi to Shangguan Wei'an's compound. At this moment, he heard a scream of exclamation. He immediately looked over and saw a little girl appearing on the road. In front of the little girl, a black car rushed over at a relatively fast speed, and was about to hit the little girl.

At such a fast speed, once you hit the car, then the little girl will definitely die!

However, when Lin Ziming was about to take his steps, suddenly, he stopped, because he felt a strong breath, appeared behind the little girl, and then rushed to the back of the little girl at a very fast speed, and Hugged the little girl.

But this person didn't leave immediately, but stayed where he was, staring flatly at the black car rushing over at high speed.

It seems to be scared silly.

This scene made others nervous again, thinking that he must also be hit.

Sure enough, with a loud bang, this black car slammed into this person!

However, what happened shortly afterwards made everyone present stunned and unbelievable.

Because this man hadn't been knocked into the air, he still stood there, unmoving, like an iron pillar stuck to the ground, but the black car was hit and the front of the car rotted.

what's going on?

Question marks popped up in everyone's minds, and they were all dumbfounded.

Moreover, they can see clearly that this man is actually wearing ancient clothes with long hair on his head. The most outrageous thing is that there is a very generous sword hanging on his back. The whole person looks like, It is the knight in the martial arts movie, not the modern man.

In fact, there are a lot of people in this kind of cosplay, but combined with the performance of this young man just now, everyone suddenly wondered if he was really a master who has traveled from ancient times!

And Lin Ziming was also surprised, “Half-step master of the gods? The strength is not bad, when has there been such a powerful young man in the country?”

Yes, Lin Ziming saw right away that this young man was a half-step master of the gods, and he was still a very strong one. The aura he showed just now was not much worse than him!

This is a super strong who can compete with masters of the God-passing realm.
