

Chapter: 2155

After saying this, he just turned around to leave.

The other strong men also looked at Lin Ziming with extreme hatred and contempt, and finally left together.

But when Lin Ziming heard these words, he was stunned. What's the situation? He is so good, how did he become a traitor?

He hasn't done anything during this period of time!

His first reaction was that Jian Rushuang was wronging him and splashed dirty water on him, but quickly, combined with Jian Rushuang's reaction just now, it was not like acting. Jian Rushuang and several other strong men dealt with him. The hatred and contempt are not the result of performance.

In this way, the misunderstanding can be big.

Although Lin Ziming does not have any sense of belonging to the Luo Tian faction, he still bears the identity of the Southern Territory Heavenly King on his body. He is grateful to His Royal Highness, and naturally he will not be wronged in vain. In the first two steps, he said: "Sword Rushuang, you can tell me clearly why I betrayed the sect? During this period of time, I have not had any..."

However, his words were not finished yet, Jian Rushuang and the others had disappeared in the light curtain and disappeared directly.

Lin Ziming is the only one left in the forest.

This made Lin Ziming frowned deeply. He went forward and wanted to follow Jian Rushuang and their trajectory to enter the Luotian School. However, he found that he couldn't find the way at all. No matter how he explored, he was blank. It seems that the entire Luo Tian organization has never existed here.

Lin Ziming knew that this was the blindfold of Luo Tian organization, a high-tech method, and it would be difficult for him to get in if he didn't find the right way.

Unless, he uses violence to destroy this place directly.

If this is the case, then he really has become a sinner of the Luo Tian faction. To be honest, before he came, he hadn't thought of this situation at all. Originally, he thought that he would come back to the Luotian faction this time, even if they did not warmly welcome them, at least he would be happy. After all, his strength has increased greatly now, which is a good thing for Luo Tianpai.

As a result, such a thing happened.

Moreover, the most weird thing is that when such a big event happened, he didn't hear anything about it!

Neither the neon clothes nor the mother told him about this, it must be a ghost.

Suddenly, when he thought about it, he immediately raised his heart, and quickly called his mother.

Lin Ziming was always nervous when he heard the ringtone on the phone, praying in his heart that he must answer the phone, he must answer the phone...
