

Chapter: 2157

The method can be said to be rather clumsy. It looked like a trap. At the beginning, the Luo Tian faction was actually not convinced. After all, the Luo Tian faction was not stupid. Lin Ziming had absolutely no motive to betray the Luo Tian faction!

Besides, Lin Ziming is a Chinese and a man of the world, so how can he hook up with Tianzong.

However, later, more and more details were exposed, and Lin Ziming was a traitor.

The most important thing is that Lin Ziming hasn't appeared in person during this period, and he hasn't appeared when the sect always needs him, but he has been hiding.

This is nothing. One day, Dongpai had a video conversation with him Lin Ziming, and he was seen by the Luo Tianpai and heard it. The person in the video was Lin Ziming!

From that moment on, all the people of the Luo Tian faction thought that Lin Ziming had betrayed the Luo Tian faction!

"This is impossible!"

After Lin Ziming listened to his mother's explanation, he shouted out the first reaction, and immediately retorted, "I have never been in contact with the Eastern faction! How can I get along with them? Besides, I have absolutely no motive to betray the sect. Ah! Mom, you should believe me!"

The mother sighed and said, "Ziming, my son, you are my son. Mom has watched you grow up since you were a child. Who else can you trust if Mom doesn't believe you? It's a pity that this matter is true to you. It's too unfavorable. Dongpai has made up his mind and wants to pour dirty water on you!"

Lin Ziming felt a little more comfortable when he heard his mother believe him, but he felt extremely disgusted and angry with the Dongpai's approach! He has never seen anyone from the Eastern faction, and he has never provoke the Eastern faction. They actually slander him in this way. How can this not make him angry?

Suddenly, he thought of something, and continued to ask: "Mom, what about the holy king? He is a super power in the realm of the gods. With him in the Luotian faction, he can definitely resist the attack of the Eastern faction?"

The mother sighed again and said: "The Holy King is too old. This time the Eastern faction attacked the Luotian faction and launched many masters. The Holy King was outnumbered..."

With a chuckle, Lin Ziming said quickly: "This is the Holy King, has fallen?!"

If even the Saint King is dead, then Luo Tianpai is really over!

It can be said that the reason why the entire Luotian faction is so threatening in the world is because of the existence of the holy king. If the holy king dies, then the Luotian faction will go far.

The mother said: "That's not true. The Holy King has entered the third stage of the God-Through the God Realm. His strength is at the peak of the world. Unless the Sect Master and the Supreme Elder of Killing Heaven Sect himself go out, he will not be able to kill the Holy King."

"That's good..." Lin Ziming breathed a sigh of relief. As long as the Saint King is dead, then Luo Tianpai still has a chance to reshape its glory.

But on the mother's side, he immediately said: "Although the holy king is dead, he is also seriously injured and is now lurking. In other words, the current Luotian faction is a paper tiger that has always had minions, alas... .."

As a daughter, Qin Huayue was born in the Luotian School, and she still has deep feelings for the Luotian School. Now seeing the ending of the Luotian School has fallen to today, she still feels sad and very disappointed.

Lin Ziming felt her emotions, and felt somewhat uncomfortable in her heart. He doesn't have much sense of belonging to the Luo Tian faction, but he is still very grateful and very fond of the mysterious holy king.

If it hadn't been for the opening of Shengwang.com, now his grave would have been ten feet tall.
