

Chapter: 2164

But the Saint King did not answer his doubts, but said: “This seat is tired, you can withdraw.”

Lin Ziming always felt that the Saint King was very strange. There was something concealing him, but he couldn't think of something like the existence of the Saint King that could conceal him.

In the end, he had to hold this doubt in his heart, and after holding a fist with the holy king, he left the palace.

After he came out of the palace, he heard the voice of the holy king from the sky, facing the entire Luotian faction: “Southern Heavenly King Lin Ziming, not a traitor to the Luotian faction, the previous behavior was framed by the Eastern faction. , You must not be hostile to the Southern Territory King.”

After these words fell, Lin Ziming could clearly feel that many people in the Luo Tian faction looked at him, and their eyes became much more friendly, unlike the strong hostility and hatred towards him at the beginning.

Jian Rushuang also snorted, although his attitude is still very bad, but at least he has any doubts about Lin Ziming. In his opinion, the words of the holy king are the imperial decree. Get rid of the suspicion, then Lin Ziming is really not a traitor.

Lin Ziming still admires the Saint King's enormous influence in the Luo Tian Sect. Luo Tian Sect is the Luo Tian Sect of the Saint King alone. This is not a joke.

This situation has advantages and disadvantages. As long as the Holy King is there, then the entire Luo Tian faction will condense into an iron bucket, with one heart and one mind. However, once the Holy King had some shortcomings, or if he drove to the west, then the Luo Tian faction would definitely collapse on its own and collapse from within.

Next, Lin Ziming stayed in the Luotian faction for a day, and he also learned more about the grievances between the Eastern faction and the Luotian faction.

It turns out that the Eastern School lost a baby girl more than 20 years ago, who was the daughter of the Eastern School's suzerain. Recently, the Eastern School investigated that the incident of the lost girl was related to the Luotian School, so they went to the door to start the teacher. Asking the guilt, asking Luo Tianpai to hand over the baby girl...No, it shouldn't be called a baby girl. After more than 20 years, the baby girl of that year has become a slim woman.

However, Luo Tianpai insisted that this matter had nothing to do with Luo Tianpai.

The two sides couldn't agree, so naturally they started fighting.

However, the Eastern faction was also very firm this time, and instead of coaxing it to play, it sent out many strong men in one go, aggressively attacking the Luo Tian faction!

That's why the next thing happened.

Luo Tian faction used to be very strong, but over the years, the talents have faded so badly. Only the Saint King Luo Tian is the master of the gods.

If Luo Tian's strength is strong enough to stop a few of the Eastern Sect's strong gods, then the Luo Tian Sect is now gone.

But even so, the damage caused by the Eastern faction to the Luo Tian faction was extremely huge, and many disciples died in the hands of the Eastern faction.

Now, the entire Luo Tian faction is filled with a breath of sadness and anger.

Lin Ziming, who was in it, could clearly feel this breath, and at the same time, his impression of the Eastern School had also dropped to a low point.

Originally, he had no good impressions of these lunatics in the martial world, but now he is even more hostile.

After staying for a day, he relied on his own behavior to visit the Luotian School and gained a lot of good impressions.

Waited and waited, and finally waited until the day when the secret realm opened.

Just tomorrow!

Lin Ziming left the Luo Tian faction one day earlier and returned to Qingcheng to meet with his family.

Now, he adjusted his state to the best.
