

Chapter: 2165

He already had a direction in his heart for what was in the secret realm.

The so-called secret realm is an underground world, which is full of dangers and opportunities.

However, no one knows how this underground world came into being, and there is currently no accurate statement.

The world only knows that this secret realm will only be opened once in a while. Moreover, the strong of the gods are not allowed to enter. At the entrance of the secret realm, there is a peculiar and undetectable power that will block the strong of the gods from entering.

The passage of the secret realm is not large, and there are not many people that can be accommodated each time. It can only accommodate twenty people at one time, so this is why the number of secret realms is so scarce.

Lin Ziming also won the Kung Fu Cup to be eligible for entry.

As for other people, they are qualified in various other ways.

In fact, not everyone is willing to enter the secret realm.

Although the secret realm is full of opportunities, even after the strong in the innate realm enters, there is a certain probability that they can break through to the god-passing realm.

But often huge benefits are accompanied by huge risks. There are dangers in it, and every time the secret is opened, countless strong people die in it.

Basically, every time among the twenty strong people who go in, half of them will come out.

Therefore, anyone who dared to enter the secret realm was the pride of heaven with great strength and great courage.

Lin Ziming slept with Chu Fei tonight. Speaking of it, it has been a long time since their husband and wife had a close relationship, so this evening, they had a good time.

Lin Ziming woke up when the first ray of sunlight shone through the curtains on Lin Ziming's face. He looked down at the Yi Ren in his arms and smiled happily.

No matter how many difficulties and obstacles are ahead, as long as Chu Fei is by his side, he will feel great strength and satisfaction.

Thinking of the madness of last night, Lin Ziming's heart was also hot, but he didn't continue to toss Chu Fei, because last night, Chu Fei had been tossed enough by him.

Today is the time for the secret realm to open. He didn't have much time to delay. After waking up gently, he didn't wake up Chu Fei, got up gently, put on his clothes, and finally touched the sleeping Chu Fei's lips. With a light kiss, he started to go out.

However, what he didn't know was that after he left the room and closed the door, Chu Fei, who was asleep, swung her eyelashes lightly, then opened her eyes, looking at the direction Lin Ziming left, staring in a trance, and slowly The earth shed tears...

After Lin Ziming simply ate breakfast, he set off directly.

Go straight to the coordinates of the secret realm.

The place where the secret realm opened this time was not in China, but in a small country, a desolate place.

When Lin Ziming arrived, he had discovered several powerful auras, and without exception, they were all super powerhouses at the Dzogchen Realm of Innate Realm.

Moreover, they were all foreigners, who had never been seen by Lin Ziming before.

However, Lin Ziming didn't care, his strength was the strongest among these strong men, and he had the capital to stand out from the crowd.

Therefore, when he appeared at the entrance of the secret realm, he immediately attracted everyone's attention.
