

Chapter: 2204

Kunlun asked again: “Tian Jue, have you found your daughter?”

He stared at Tian Jue tightly, as if he didn't care, and continued to lay down, but his eyes were betraying him, “Tian Jue, I heard that your daughter is a physique that has not been born in a thousand years, and is born with aura. , Can help the masters of the God-passing Realm to really take that step and reach the realm of Gods. Tianjue, I am afraid that in this world, there are not a few people who want to beat your daughter.”

He said this sentence in a very flat tone, but the content of what he said was extremely explosive. If it was spread out, then the impact would be sensational!

The God-passing realm is already the most invincible realm in this world. How many warriors spend a lifetime of hard cultivation, not just to break through to the God-passing realm. Once you break through to the God-passing realm, then it means that you can be invincible in the world and be able to Really has a place in this world.

Moreover, once you break through to the God-Communication Realm, your lifespan will usher in a major breakthrough. As long as you don't die or die, you can live two hundred years old, the problem is not big. In this way, life expectancy will be twice as long as that of ordinary people!

I don't know how many people think that the realm of the gods is the limit that human beings can reach.

How many people spend their entire lives, in fact, at most they have reached the realm of the gods.

However, now suddenly someone said that there is a realm outside of the Tongshen realm, that is the real gods and immortal realm, what does this mean?

Sure enough, after Tian Jue heard these words, his face immediately changed, and his eyes suddenly became sharp, staring at Kunlun closely, unceremoniously, even full of dissatisfaction and coldness. Said, “Kunlun, what are you talking about?!”

However, when Kunlun faced Tian Jue, he didn't have any timidity. Instead, he laughed and said: “Tian Jue, we have been old friends for a hundred years. Do you think you can hide this secret from me? Don't worry. , I've never told this secret before, even my relatives don't know it.”

After hearing Kunlun's words, Tian Jue's expression was not relaxed, but instead said coldly: “I don't know what you are talking about.”

Kunlun smiled ho ho, and said, “Is that right, then take me wrong. However, now your daughter is outside, if Ling Yun has been taken away, Tian Jue, then your loss can be huge. That's it.”

Tian Jue fell silent. Since Kunlun had already reached this point, it would be interesting for him to conceal it. So he put down the chess piece, stared at Kunlun directly, and said, “Where did you hear it?”

Kunlun smiled and said, "Have you finally admitted?"

Tian Jue did not speak, but just looked at Kunlun, as if Kunlun could not give him a satisfactory explanation, then he would scrupulously deal with Kunlun's friendship for a hundred years!

Kunlun felt Tian Jue's determination, and he was also a little lingering in his heart. Obviously, he still underestimated Tian Jue's aura of caring.

After thinking for a while, he said: "I only found out this a while ago. This is a piece of ancient misin. I didn't expect to make you Tianjue complete. However, you have played off. Many years ago, people You have stolen your daughter away."

After finishing talking, he shook his head, amused at Tian Jue's original behavior.

Tian Jue's face was very cold. With a slight squeeze of his right hand, the chess pieces in his hand were immediately crushed to pieces by him, "That Luo Tian is bold, and I don't share the sky with him!"

Recently, the Eastern Party invaded the Southern School Luo Tianzong and injured the Holy King Luo Tian. This is an extremely huge thing in the entire martial art world. The truth now is that Luo Tian stole Tian Jue's daughter many years ago!
