

Chapter: 2255

His regulation of the body has reached its peak.

Especially after he came to the secret realm, his physique has been greatly improved after he has been trained in the secret realm.

To put it bluntly, even though he hasn't really broken through to the god-passing realm in his current realm, his physical strength is not much better than that of many strong people in the god-shaking realm on earth.

This is a terrible thing.

The native powerhouse who was first defeated by Lin Ziming, he was very angry when he saw that all four of his companions could not hold Lin Ziming. He thought that the four of his companions were using all their strength, and he immediately scolded: "You don't want to play with him anymore. , Quickly take down this hateful intruder! I perceive that there are a lot of fruits in him!"

These four indigenous strong men only felt bitter smiles and helplessness when they heard the leader's words. It was not that they were playing with Lin Ziming, but that they couldn't take Lin Ziming together.

But in this case, it is not easy for them to speak out, because it is too embarrassing.

They glanced at each other quickly, then gritted their teeth to stimulate their potential, and changed their combat method, even if they struggled to get themselves injured, they had to wound Lin Ziming!

Otherwise, if the four of them can't take Lin Ziming's words together, it would be too embarrassing, and their noble status will also be greatly harmed. This is something they don't allow!

I have to say that when they were desperate, the power that burst out was still huge, and it also caused even greater pressure on Lin Ziming.

Originally, Lin Ziming had gradually gained the upper hand, but now the desperate efforts of the four of them have caused Lin Ziming to fall into the lower wind again, and the pressure has doubled.

However, this is a better thing for Lin Ziming, and he likes to challenge.

Gradually, he slowly forgot everything and entered a wonderful state.

Now, his pupils are slowly becoming pale, losing focus, and his expression has also become frozen, without any slight changes in his expression. At the same time, his movements are sharper and his moves are even more intense. The ground is exquisite, and the whole person has become a ruthless machine.

It is comparable to a super intelligent ai.

Soon, in his state, he slowly gained the upper hand again.

And, soon, he found the flaws of these four indigenous powerhouses.

With a bang, he punched out, from an extremely tricky, even weird angle.

He directly hit the chin of an indigenous strong man who sneaked up beside him. Without any accident, he knocked the indigenous strong man upside down and flew out, and accompanied by a loud noise, the chin was not dislocated. It should be said that it was directly broken.

Moreover, this punch also knocked out the native strongman who sneaked on, and he passed out on the spot.

This change happened so quickly that the other three indigenous powerhouses were stunned.
