

Chapter: 2256

But isn't it? In their opinion, Lin Ziming is already at a disadvantage. As long as Lin Ziming is attacked by this companion, Lin Ziming will definitely be injured, and as long as Lin Ziming is injured, then the one waiting for Lin Ziming is Boil the frog in warm water, and Lin Ziming will be killed directly after a short while!

However, what they had never expected was that Lin Ziming had not been attacked by a sneak attack, but had caught this flashing flaw and directly broke the game.

After Lin Ziming knocked down one of the indigenous strong men with one punch, the pressure he faced was reduced by more than half. At the same time, his movements were quicker, and he directly counterattacked. It was obvious that he was just a person. , But it seemed like the whole army was ten thousand horses, facing the other three indigenous powerhouses, rushed over.

As a result, the three indigenous powerhouses immediately felt tremendous pressure.

Moreover, the pressure is so great that they only feel that their scalp is numb. The thought of retreating suddenly appeared in my heart, thinking that Lin Ziming was too strong and could not beat it at all.

And once their thoughts came into being, it accelerated their defeat even more, causing their spirits and spirits to tear open a hole and quickly unload it.

In fact, they were just a momentary thing, their combat experience was extremely rich, and they adjusted quickly.

However, in front of such super masters as Lin Ziming, this flash of flaw has become their fatal flaw.

Lin Ziming caught it immediately, and it took less than a second at all. He struck out again with one move, and the whole person seemed to suddenly turn into a fierce tiger, biting at the aboriginal powerhouse in front of him.

At that moment, this indigenous strong man really felt that Lin Ziming in front of him had changed from a human form to a fierce tiger form, and he opened his blood basin and wanted to swallow him in one bite.

This feeling of danger was too strong, causing him to reflexively retreat, and the blood on his face suddenly faded.

It's just that when he retires in this way, more flaws are exposed.

After that, he was caught by Lin Ziming and directly pinched his neck, and then squeezed, squeaked, such a powerful native half-step master of the gods, he was directly squeezed by Lin Ziming's neck. .

Although he didn't die right away, his body had lost all its strength, and the whole person fell weakly, his mouth made a sound of 'ho ho ho', his eyes widened, full of panic and regret. , And looked at Lin Ziming desperately.

Then he breathed out slowly.

This scene was too shocking for everyone present.

The pupils of the remaining two aboriginal powerhouses suddenly shrank and their scalp numb!

They looked at Lin Ziming, their eyes were protruding, and at the same time, they had no courage to fight at all. They were really scared. In their opinion, Lin Ziming was no longer something they could contend with, but Super devil.

They only have one idea now, and that is to run, run with great effort, and run as far as possible!

The most shocking thing was Tuoba Liang, now he was completely dumbfounded, his whole body petrified expression.

But isn't it? For him, all of Lin Ziming's doing is so subversive and shocking, he even suspected that he had hallucinations in his eyes. Otherwise, how could Lin Ziming be so powerful!
