

Chapter: 2269

Moreover, it is still appearing on the Internet all over the world, and it is madly collecting money. This is definitely not a natural phenomenon. It is certain that this must be an organization that no one knows, and it is manipulated behind it!

But, what exactly is this organization and which force does it belong to?

No one knows, this is the most frightening!

At the same time, on the earth, a very mysterious place, a place that even satellites, radars, and all the scientific and technological means on the earth cannot detect, there is a conversation going on.

“These people on Earth are really interesting.”

“Yes, they have sent professional scientific and technical personnel to track us in various countries, but unfortunately, their technology is too backward.”

“No matter, the people on Earth are very fragile right now.”

“Princess, why did you suddenly make such a move?”

“Because I am a little interested in this earthling named Lin Ziming...”

The picture returned to the secret realm.

Lin Ziming, who now carries eight fruits on his body, didn't know that his every move was turned into a live broadcast for many powerful people on the earth to see.

Fortunately, he didn't make any indecent actions, otherwise, then he would really be 'famous'.

Now that he has eight fruits on his body, his perception of the remaining fruits is even stronger. He can even know exactly where the remaining fruits are!

He only has two fruits left, and he can collect ten fruits!

As long as he gathers ten fruits and swallows them all together, he will be able to break through to the theoretical supreme realm of power!

At that time, he will really become stronger. In the next world war, he will have enough strength to protect the people around him!

In fact, he also knows now that there are not many people left in the secret realm, because, some time ago, he could feel that people are constantly swallowing the fruit, stepping into the realm of the gods, and then being teleported back to the earth. on.

Even Tuoba Liang next to him had swallowed three fruits a few days ago, and then disappeared directly in front of him.

He knew that if he swallowed these eight fruits, he would also be able to break through to the God-Communication Realm smoothly and be smoothly transmitted back to Earth.

But he did not do this, because his goal is more than that.

Walking and walking for another day, he stopped, because he could already feel that the remaining fruit was not far in front of him.

Moreover, in addition to the remaining static and undeveloped fruits, there is another pile of fruits approaching that place.

If he guessed wrong, he would be the King of Xiaoyao!

Facing Xiaoyao King, he knew that he would have a battle with the opponent sooner or later, he was looking forward to it, but he had never feared.

He stopped now, to recuperate, adjust his state to the best, and then make a decisive battle with Xiaoyao King.

In fact, he also felt that Xiaoyao King had the same plan as him.
