

Chapter: 2276

However, Lin Ziming in the secret realm also felt a huge crisis at this moment.

The current King of Xiaoyao brought him an unprecedented sense of crisis, causing him to have fearful thoughts in his heart in an instant!

Moreover, there is also an urge to run away because he is not an opponent.

This is a very rare thing. Because of so many years of hard work, Lin Ziming has tempered his mentality to an extremely tough level. There is almost nothing that can shake his mind, let alone anyone who can scare him.

But the current Xiaoyao King gave him this feeling.

In general, his intuition is very sensitive when he reaches this state, so in other words, this is not his illusion, but the Xiaoyao King is really powerful, even surpassing himself!

However, even so, he didn't take a step back. On the contrary, he quickly stabilized himself, but his breathing was disturbed for a while, he immediately returned to nature, and his eyes became clearer.

He looked at King Xiaoyao quietly, and the fighting spirit in his heart was constantly rising. He knew that King Xiaoyao was going to come true with him, so he directly used a big move. He could feel that now. Wang's aura is constantly improving, that is to say, this is not the strongest state of Xiaoyao King, and after a while, Xiaoyao King will enter the final powerful state!

It stands to reason that he will take action now, and it is the best time to stop Xiaoyao King's momentum from rising.

But he didn't do this, but he also started to enter his own combat mode!

Unlike Xiaoyao King, his eyes did not go into blood red, but became paler, as if even his eyeballs had changed from black to white.

There were no eyeballs in his eyes, which turned into a piece of white snow, and it was very scary to look at.

At the same time, his body began to emit white gas one after another, which was just the opposite of King Xiaoyao. When the white gas emitted from his body spread to the plants on the ground, these plants did not wither directly like King Xiaoyao. Rather, it seems to have been beaten with chicken blood, and it has become more and more vigorous. The grass and trees on the ground are actually beginning to grow at a speed visible to the naked eye!

If Xiaoyao Wang's performance just now was scary enough, then what is happening on Lin Ziming's side is subversion, which makes people confused and unclear.

Why does this happen?

These plants are not mimosas or fast-growing plants. Why are they constantly growing vigorously at a speed visible to the naked eye? This is totally unscientific?

Moreover, although both of them were not moving, they stood still tens of meters away from each other, only looking at each other separately.

However, the gas emanating from them seemed to be guided, and did not spread in a circular manner towards the surroundings, but swept toward each other in the same direction, when the two gases collided. At that time, a scene of constantly devouring each other happened.

In addition, different forms have also appeared.

Lin Ziming's white gas turned into a dragon-shaped form, opened his big mouth, and swallowed the black-red gas of Xiaoyao King, and even made a sound like a dragon's chant, which looked extremely shocking.
