

Chapter: 2306

After Chu Fei heard these words, deep worries flashed in her eyes, but she didn't dare to say more.

At this moment, she was worried. In fact, she didn't even think that there would be such a coincidence. Lin Ziming killed two of Tian Jue's disciples in the secret realm, and forged a deep hatred.

For Lin Ziming, he was still in the secret realm at the moment, and he felt that the breath of Xiaoyao King had disappeared. He took a heavy breath. Now that he relaxes, he only feels that there is a place in his body. painful.

The battle just now had really overdrawn his physical strength, and in the course of the battle between him and Xiaoyao King, he received too many blows. Now not only was his physical strength exhausted, he was also completely wounded.

When he let go, he only felt that he had no strength to move his fingers.

However, he still took a deep breath, knowing that he had defeated King Xiaoyao and the matter was not over yet, he had to swallow ten fruits and break through to the realm of the gods, that was his biggest purpose in coming to the secret realm! ,

His current body is really too weak. Although he had killed King Xiaoyao just now, the damage that King Xiaoyao brought to him was not just for fun. He is now killing the enemy eight hundred and hurting himself. one thousand.

Even more!

In his current situation, let alone a half-step master of the gods, even an ordinary warrior, can easily defeat him.

Fortunately, there are no traces of people within a hundred miles now. He is the only one, and even all the insects, birds and beasts have disappeared.

He took out the eight fruits on his body and found that they were still intact, and he couldn't help feeling that the fruits in this secret realm were really amazing. In the fierce battle just now, none of these eight fruits had been destroyed.

Relying on the mutual induction between the fruits, he raised his feet with difficulty and walked step by step toward the position of the remaining fruits. In fact, the distance is not too far, only two kilometers.

If he changed his usual peak state, the distance of two kilometers would be no different from ordinary people walking two meters.

But his body is too weak now, and it took him almost half a day before he walked over with difficulty.

When he walked over, he was almost dying!

Too tired, too tired, he has never been so tired when he grows up!

This is completely out of power, supported by his will.

Fortunately, even though it was so difficult, he still came over.

Soon, he saw the remaining fruits.

Even if he had prepared in advance, when he saw the large piece of floating fruit in front of him, he was still deeply shocked!

It's too much.

Lin Ziming probably counted it, there were hundreds of fruits!

If this were all swallowed in, once it successfully broke through to the God-passing Realm, what a powerful existence would be! Lin Ziming couldn't even imagine what kind of picture it was.

At that moment, a stronger anger arose in his heart, that is, to collect all these fruits and become his own private property.

However, this crazy idea was still pressed by him.

Because he knows that once he does this, he will be violent.
