

Chapter: 2308

On Lin Ziming's side, he didn't know these things that happened on the earth, and he didn't even know that he had already been targeted by a so-called princess.

Now he already had some distracting thoughts in his mind.

In his eyes, there are only these fruits in front of him.

Now, he already had ten fruits in his hand, as long as he swallowed it, after he had survived the impact of the medicine, he would be able to smoothly break through to the God-passing Realm.

And it's still a very high level God-passing realm.

However, I don't know why, when he looked at the remaining fruits, he had an idea in his heart. If the concept of Huangpu Dao is wrong, the upper limit is not ten fruits, but more. , What will it be like? ?

What would happen if he swallowed more fruit?

Once this idea appeared, it continued to erode his mind.

He couldn't tell whether it was the original voice in his mind, or the fruit that was bewitching him.

But what he can confirm is that he himself really wants to try it!

With great difficulty, he has already reached this point. If he can't take a step forward, he is really unwilling.

But the same, he also has concerns in his heart. If Huangpudao is right, the upper limit of the Half-Step Divine Realm is indeed ten, and he swallowed more than ten, causing bad things, then what should be done What?

He stood there, staying for a long time, never making a decision.

Time passed by, and he was standing there. It had been almost three hours, but he still didn't make a decision.

Because for him, this kind of thing is too difficult to choose!

In fact, deep down, he wanted to fight for it, so he let go of his guts and eats with confidence, as he can eat as much as he can.

After all, it is time for the martial world to attack the world on a large scale.

If he is not strong enough at this time, there is no way to protect his relatives.

But he was also afraid that he would fail.

He feels that what is now before him is just like the previous jokes on the Internet. If you are given two choices, one is 100% to get one million, and the other is 50%. There is a chance of getting two million, and a 50% chance of not getting a penny. How would you choose?

I believe most people will choose the first one.

Lin Ziming originally wanted to choose the first one.

But now, after thinking more, he is more inclined to choose the second one!

Suddenly, he discovered that the fruits in front of him seemed to start moving, and they were about to fly to other places.

This kind of change made him stunned at once. He realized that there was not much time for him to hesitate. If he didn't make a choice, the fruits would fly away!

Gritting his teeth, suddenly, he made an extremely bold, even crazy move!

I saw that he was not indifferent anymore, but started to walk forward in strides, and began to collect more fruits!

Moreover, after he collected it, he threw it directly into his mouth and swallowed it directly. His speed was very fast, and he even seemed a little crazy!

One, two, three...

Ten, eleven, ten thirty, fifteen...

Twenty, twenty-five, thirty!

Forty, fifty, sixty...
