

Chapter: 2322

The mother-in-law Liu Suhong's reaction is very big now, and finally she can't hold her back, tears flowed down, and she firmly grasped Lin Ziming's hand, full of helplessness and pleading.

Lin Ziming was already very worried, but now he saw his mother-in-law look like this, his heart sank even more.

In this way, Chu Fei must have something wrong!

And something big happened, otherwise the mother-in-law and father-in-law would not behave like this!

You know, now Chu Fei is also a master of the innate realm, and her strength is already extraordinary in ordinary society. Even a general warrior has no way to pose a threat to Chu Fei.

Moreover, in addition, he also arranged for a master to protect Chu Fei. However, in this case, Chu Fei still had an accident. That shows that the person who shot must be more powerful. Extraordinary!

Who on earth is it?

In that instant, Lin Ziming's mind flashed a lot of things, was it Adam's person, or Shura King's person, or those other enemies?

Or, in other words, those masters in the martial art world?

In any case, Lin Ziming's current mood is still difficult to calm down. It can be said that Chu Fei is the absolute negative scale in his heart. He can accept all failures, all setbacks, and all trials.

However, it was the only one who couldn't accept it. Chu Fei had an accident. What's wrong with it!

He clenched his fists now, and his body exploded with incomparably powerful aura.

Taking a deep breath, he forced himself to calm down and said, "Mom, tell me who took Feifei away."

The mother-in-law just wanted to speak. At this time, the father-in-law had already walked down and coughed twice and said, "Ziming, don't listen to your mother, what's wrong with Feifei, she just went abroad."

When Lin Ziming heard these words, he immediately became angry, and his father-in-law had to hide him at this time! This is too much!

Before Lin Ziming could speak, her mother-in-law yelled excitedly, "Chu Huaxiong! You still have no humanity. Feifei has already had an accident. Do you still want to hide from Ziming? Now our house is apart from Ziming. , Who has the ability to save Feifei!"

After the father-in-law heard his mother-in-law's roar, some sadness and pain flashed in his eyes, but he quickly became firm, shook his head, and said to Lin Ziming: "Ziming, you don't have to worry, there is nothing wrong. =Everything is okay."

The performance of the father-in-law, the worse for Lin Ziming, he is not stupid, and I still don't understand why the father-in-law said this, the most likely thing is to save him.

And this situation is definitely because the person who robbed Chu Fei was very powerful, so powerful that even his father-in-law feared that he could not save him, so he would do such a thing.

But the more this happened, the more disturbed Lin Ziming's heart became, and the more regretful he was. He had known that something would happen to Chu Fei, and he might not have gone to the secret realm!

For him, breaking through to the realm of the gods is not as important as Chu Fei to him, far less important!

However, he still needs to be calm now, absolutely calm, so he took a deep breath again and said, "Dad, if I guessed right, someone told you not to tell me."

The father-in-law did not speak, but his expression had already told Lin Ziming the answer, which was indeed the case.

Lin Ziming went on to say: "Dad, let me guess, is it Tao Sanniang, neon clothes, my mother, or Feifei?"

I have to say that Lin Ziming is still very clever, he guessed it all at once.
