

Chapter: 2326

“Live broadcast? What live broadcast?”

After Lin Ziming heard these words, he was completely stunned. He was in the secret realm, where is there any live broadcast.

Besides, when I entered the secret realm, there were only 20 people. He was one of them. In the end, there were no other people besides him and Xiaoyao King. Where did the live broadcast come from?

So Lin Ziming’s first reaction was that his mother was teasing him.

However, Qin Huayue’s mother said: “It’s wrong, it’s the live broadcast. Some time ago, suddenly a mysterious website appeared all over the world. It said that there was a live broadcast of you in the secret realm. I want to watch it. People who have to pay a high price to watch. At first, no one believed it, but later, after the first person paid the money, he really found out that he could see what you were inside. All of a sudden It caused a global sensation, and then more and more people started paying live broadcasts.”

Tao Sanniang and Nishang also nodded, indicating that what Qin Huayue said was true. This made Lin Ziming even more vague, he could be very sure that in the secret realm, he would never be followed, especially during his final battle with Xiaoyao King.

But what’s the situation that the mother is talking about now?

“Mother, are you sure you are not joking with me? I am in a secret realm, how could there be a live broadcast?” Lin Ziming expressed his doubts again.

But then, my mother directly asked Tao Sanniang to bring a tablet, opened a video, and showed it to Lin Ziming, and said, “This is your live broadcast in the secret world at that time. We recorded it specially.”

Lin Ziming looked at it immediately, and as expected, it was really his decisive battle with King Xiaoyao in the secret realm. All of a sudden, his pupils shrank!

I just feel a little tingling on my scalp!

There is actually a live broadcast, which is too counterintuitive.

He can be sure that the secret realm is another world, another dimension, and logically speaking, it is impossible for the signal inside to be transmitted to the earth.

Except for the only way to enter the secret realm, the planet in the secret realm is at least light-years away from the earth!

As a result, is there really a live broadcast?

In an instant, he thought a lot.

“Do you know who the owner behind this website is?” Lin Ziming asked this question in a deep voice.

Mother Qin Huayue shook her head and said: “I don’t know, I heard that the whole world is looking for it, but there is no information. The power behind this live broadcast website is very mysterious.”

After a pause, Qin Huayue said meaningfully: “Ziming, it is precisely because of this live broadcast that people all over the world now know that you killed King Xiaoyao. At the end, they also know that you stepped in. You have passed the Divine Realm, and you still swallowed eight fruits. You are now a celebrity in the world! Especially, in the martial world, I hate you even more.”
