

Chapter: 2344

He panted and said, "Report to Lord Martial God, the martial world, is starting to attack the world!"

After hearing this sentence, Huangpudao immediately opened his eyes, "What?!"

Lin Ziming was also taken aback, and then he calmed down quickly. He was not too surprised by this result. The original war between the martial world and the secular is already on the line and is happening at any time.

If it happens now, it only means that the martial world has accelerated its pace and advanced the war!

At this time, what they have to do is to stabilize the military spirit, and at the same time, do a good job against the battle at the fastest speed to minimize casualties.

Immediately, Huangpu Road said again: "You can make it clear, where did they attack?!"

The martial world begins to attack the secular and direct. This is not a trivial matter, and it is impossible for a small war to break out. If it is not handled well, it will kill many, many people, and even the whole world will usher in a huge change!

The other party said: "They attacked several countries at once, they were..." The officer spoke about eight countries in a row, mainly some Western countries, and a few two of them were neighbors of China, but they did not attack China.

After Lin Ziming heard this sentence, although he was a bit surprised, he immediately thought that compared with these eight countries, China is the strongest, and he, Huangpu Road, and Tuoba Liang, the three powers of the gods, are in charge. In the martial art world, it is a hard bone.

And these eight countries, there are no strong gods, relatively speaking, it is much easier to chew.

Suddenly, Lin Ziming understood the way of thinking of the martial world. This is to pick the soft persimmon first.

After listening to the officer's report, Huangpudao sighed and said, "The war has begun. I don't know how many people will die in this war."

Lin Ziming said, "This is something that there is no way. The sect world and the secular world have different concepts, and one day they will collide."

"This is also..."

Huangpu Road nodded, and then began to order, "Notify all parts of the country and start to enter a state of alert! Maybe it is time to tell the people the truth about this world."

After hearing this sentence, the officer said, "My Lord Military God, if you say this, will it cause social riots? For ordinary people, the truth of this world may not be so easy to accept. ."

This is indeed a problem.

For most people, they all think that there is no superhuman existence in this world, and the limit of human beings is those athletes in the Olympics.

Especially for people in China, the protection of China is so good that most people live in hotbeds.

But now, once told them, it will inevitably cause uneasiness, even restlessness, if this is really the case, it will also be a trouble.

Huangpudao said: "Rather than let them die in a hotbed, I would rather tell them the truth and let them become stronger first."

This sentence sounds like flirty, but the meaning contained in it is extremely heavy and cruel.

Next, on the Yandu high-level side, a meeting began immediately, and Lin Ziming also participated.
