

Chapter: 2364

At the same time, in Killing Tianzong.

For Chu Fei, she had been very tortured all this time, because it had been a full month.

Since she was brought back by Tian Jue, she hasn't left the room for a half-step. There is no mobile phone, no computer, no TV, no tools for recreation, and no channels for getting information from the outside world. She hadn't even seen a second person except for a maid who delivered meals regularly every day.

Chu Fei felt as if she was isolated from the whole world when she was here.

This is something she has never experienced after living so long.

She felt lonely, the loneliness deep in her bones!

In fact, she is not a person who can't stay, if she has enough faith, she can stay alone for a long, long time.

However, that is based on conviction.

And she doesn't have any convictions now, she lives every day like years.

She even wondered, is it the end of the world outside?

Has the martial world begin to attack the secular?

How is Hua Guo?

How is her adoptive father and mother, her brothers and sisters, her relatives and friends, and the people she cares about, and the people who care about her?

There is no answer to everything, she feels that she is now isolated from the whole world, deaf and blind.

Finally, on this day, she finally couldn't help it, and rushed out suddenly, she was going to leave this ghost place!

Never want to stay here again!

However, when she just rushed to the door, the maid who appeared regularly every day appeared, still with the poker face, looking at Chu Fei lightly, and stopped her, and said, "Miss, please stay."

Chu Fei said coldly: "Get out of the way."

The maid didn't make any concessions nor answered, but she looked at Chu Fei indifferently, as if she was just a puppet with no soul.

Chu Fei didn't speak either, she directly moved her hands, using violent means to rush out of this damn ghost place!

She is going back to China to meet her family, her friends, and her husband.

That place belongs to her, not the ghost place now!

Chu Fei is now a master of the innate realm, and is no longer the weak woman who used to have no power to bind the chicken. She is confident and capable, and can defeat this maid.

However, she still overestimated herself.

Facing her attack, the maid just stretched out her hand faintly, suppressed all her tricks, and pushed her back, still showing no fluctuations, “Miss, please go back.”

Chu Fei gritted her teeth, and she continued to take action.

However, the gap between her and the maid was too big, and the other party didn't have any effort to push her back easily, every time.

Even if Chu Fei changed his strategy and started rushing towards the window, the result was still the same. That damn maid would always appear in front of her on time, then stop her, push her back gently, and be able to stop her. He would not hurt her.

Chu Fei finally knew that the maid in front of her was stronger than her by more than one level. No matter what she did, it was all in vain!
