

Chapter: 2366

After hearing these words, Chu Fei must be uncomfortable, no matter who the other party is.

And looking at the other person's expression, it was obvious that she was very hostile and repellent.

"Am I offending you?" Chu Fei said with a frown.

The other party walked in front of her, because she was actually shorter than her, so she had to look up at her, but even so, the aura that radiated from her was far surpassed Chu Fei.

"You provoke me, you still have the face to ask this question?" She expressed disdain, and at the same time she was very disdainful of Chu Fei. In her eyes, Chu Fei seemed to be an ant, not good enough for her. Such people stand together.

"You really have a worldly smell!" She sneered and said, "Nangong Wuxia, you are really a shame to my Nangong family!"

After changing who it is, suddenly being insulted by someone like this will definitely make her heart angry, and Chu Fei is very angry now.

"You better keep your mouth clean! First of all, my name is Chu Fei, not Nangong Wuxia, and secondly, I am your sister, you are not qualified to say that to me!"

I have to say that Chu Fei still looks very aura now. Since she practiced martial arts with Lin Ziming, her self-confidence has been greatly improved, especially since she manages the huge Lin group, which has been in the high position for a long time. Next, she gradually cultivated the aura of a superior, so for a while, even if she faced the woman in front of her, she would still fall a bit inferior.

But soon, her aura was wiped out by the other party.

I saw the other party directly shot, slapped Chu Fei hard on the face, and cursed: "Shut up! You bastard! You are not qualified to be named Nangong. You have defiled my Nangong family. reputation!"

Chu Fei suffered this slap in the face, and immediately her face swelled, and she was also beaten with blood, making her aching pain.

She became extremely angry all at once and shot directly.

It's a pity that her martial arts, in front of the other party, still seemed too inadequate, and was not of the same level at all.

She just got in front of the opponent, she was slapped again and slapped heavily on the ground, she didn't have the ability to fight back at all.

Moreover, this woman, as her younger sister, walked in front of her and stomped her chest directly, making her unable to get up. She slammed on the ground, condescendingly, and said with great disdain: "Trash is trash!" As a shame to the Nangong family, I really don't know what my father kept you for! I heard that you are still married in the world, and gave your chastity to a man in the world...Bah!"

She spit on Chu Fei's face, and said with contempt: "Even if I kill you, I will dirty my hands!"

After saying these words, she let go of Chu Fei and said to the maid on the side: "Anu, watch her closely, if she dares to coax to leave, break her legs!"

Anu said embarrassedly, "Miss San, but the lord of the suzerain..."

Miss San said: "My father, with me, just let go and do it. The sky is falling, and I will protect you. What are you afraid of?"

After Anu heard these words, the expression on his face immediately loosened. The eyes that looked at the third lady were full of worship, and he nodded quickly and said: "Anuding remembers the third lady's instructions!"

She didn't even look at Chu Fei again until she finally walked out of the room, as if to her, Chu Fei was just a fly, no longer worthy of her attention.

Chu Fei did not say a word, she stood up from the ground silently and returned to her seat.

With her head down, no one knew what she was thinking.
