

Chapter: 2384

“Devil, this is the devil, definitely the devil...”

Someone couldn't bear this kind of fear. He kept seeing Lin Ziming killing people, killing one with one palm, as simple as killing a chicken.

Not long after this, the person who died in Lin Ziming's hands was already halfway through.

Moreover, these are not unknown people, but in the martial world, they are all very famous.

But now, in front of Lin Ziming, there is no ability to resist, and he can't sustain even a single move.

The rest of the people used all their abilities to run, and they could count one by one.

They only hope that Goddess of Luck will take care of them and not be chased by Lin Ziming.

Lin Ziming's speed is very fast and his strength is also very strong, but he is only one person after all.

As for the rest of these people, they ran separately, and even if Lin Ziming had three heads and six arms, he couldn't catch up with them all.

However, when Lin Ziming first came, he had no hope of killing them all. He only needed to kill the batch with the most powerful words, and that was enough.

After a minute passed, he stopped, with a satisfied smile on his face.

He didn't come in vain tonight, and he killed three masters of the gods, fifteen half-step masters of the gods, and more than 30 innate realms.

It can be said that his beheading operation tonight was very successful.

And after doing these things, he actually didn't consume too much energy, and it was just a little panting.

But he returned to normal in just a few breaths.

Then, he strode out of here.

I believe that after this night, he will become famous again.

And it is expected that his masterpiece tonight will definitely become a thorn in the eye of the martial world, a thorn in the flesh, I believe that it will not take long for a top expert to assassinate him.

He had thought about these a long time ago, and he was also ready.

He is fearless.

By the time he returned to China, it was already the next day.

“How is it, did you succeed?”

As soon as Lin Ziming came back, Shangguan Wei An greeted him, and asked nervously.

Behind him, there are many Chinese masters who are now looking at him expectantly.

From their eyes, Lin Ziming saw the suspicion. After all, the probability of success in this beheading operation did not seem to be high, and some people even thought that Lin Ziming might not be able to come back.

“Let’s live up to the expectations.” Lin Ziming smiled faintly: “I killed half of them, and the remaining half can’t catch up.”

Hearing what he said, everyone’s eyes widened, “What, are you really successful?!”

One of the senior officials couldn’t help but yelled out.

He knew that it was difficult for Lin Ziming to behead this time, but Lin Ziming actually succeeded?

Lin Ziming nodded, indicating that he did not lie.

Then someone said: “Oh my God, instructor Lin, is your strength already at this level?”

Lin Ziming smiled without explaining too much. In fact, it won’t take long for this matter to spread to the world.

However, under Shangguan Wei’an’s questioning, Lin Ziming simply told what happened last night. After everyone heard it, they still felt unbelievable, and the look in Lin Ziming’s eyes became even more different. Up.
