

Chapter: 2395

And now, on the side of the martial art world, there is actually a third-level power god realm master sent to trouble him?

For an instant, Lin Ziming narrowed his eyes, murderous.

Lin Ziming said in a deep voice, his only worry now is whether something has happened to his father-in-law and his mother-in-law!

If the two elders have three longs and two shorts, then even if he chases to the ends of the world, he will have to smash each other into pieces!

“You moved murderously, it seems that these two old things are very important to you.” On the phone, there was a joking voice, which seemed to be a cat playing with a mouse, torturing Lin Ziming for fun.

But after Lin Ziming heard these words, his murderous aura became even stronger, and a fire was burning in his heart!

“Those two old men are ordinary people, you are a dignified third-rank god-level powerhouse, and threatening me with two ordinary people, don’t you think it is a shame!” Lin Ziming said in a deep voice.

However, the other party seemed to have heard a huge joke and burst into laughter, “Hahaha! Lin Ziming, I don’t think you are so naive as a master of the realm of spirits. At this level of waiting for me, by any means. It’s all a matter of course, so how can I say that it’s shameful? Besides, even if I really threaten you with ordinary people, so what?”

Lin Ziming heard that the other party is a lawless person, without the slightest morale of a strong person, as long as he can achieve his goal, he can do whatever it takes.

When he heard this, his heart sank. The murderous intent in his heart was almost condensed into ice, coming from an overflow in his chest!

However, he did not lose his mind because of this.

When he reached his level, he had gone through so many storms and waves, he had already passed the stage of being inspiring.

He said directly: “If I can’t hear the voices of the two old people, I won’t go there, you will never find me.”

Lin Ziming is retreating to advance.

He knew very well that since the other party had found the door of his house, he explained that he had investigated his situation clearly, and he was confident enough to kill him.

For this, he was not surprised at all, he had already anticipated this scene from the time he decided to conduct the beheading operation.

It’s just that he didn’t expect that the strong man in the martial world would be so shameless and unscrupulous!

The other party was silent for a while, and then said: “It is said that you Lin Ziming is the chosen son of this era. Even the characters like Xiaoyao King died in your hands. I was interested in you at first, but now it seems that you are not good enough. So timid as a mouse.”

Lin Ziming didn't have any nonsense, so he hung up the phone.

Qing Yuntian froze for a moment. He obviously had no idea that Lin Ziming would hang up the phone directly. Could it be that his plan failed? Lin Ziming didn't care about his father-in-law and mother-in-law?

Qing Yuntian looked at the trembling two old men, frowning involuntarily.

After he learned about Lin Ziming's information, he rushed over as soon as possible. Originally, based on his character, he wanted to directly trouble Lin Ziming.

However, he had just experienced the pain of bereavement, and wanted Lin Ziming to try this taste. He didn't realize that Lin Ziming would ignore him?
