

Chapter: 2404

Isn't it? Lin Ziming's cultivation is obviously not as high as his, and he has to be beaten back several times, but Lin Ziming is like a Xiaoqiang who can't beat him.

In particular, Lin Ziming's physique is simply unbelievably powerful! He had never seen anyone with such a physique before, and Qing Yuntian even wondered if Lin Ziming in front of him was a robot.

However, even if it was really a robot, it was broken up by Qingyuntian. Could it be said that Lin Ziming was in the secret realm and had an opportunity that no one knew about it?

He has been to the secret realm, and he also knows how wonderful it is in the secret realm. If he gets some unexpected opportunities, it is also possible. Lin Ziming was indeed at a disadvantage at the beginning, although his physique was much stronger than Qing Yuntian, but in terms of realm, he was still a lot worse than Qing Yuntian, and he seemed a bit clumsy.

If it weren't for his strong physique, I'm afraid he would have already lost. However, this did not make Lin Ziming feel jealous or sad, on the contrary, he was even more brazen! To be able to fight against such a top powerhouse can help him.

Moreover, he progressed very quickly. From the beginning, he was a little hurried, and after falling into the wind, he soon began to master the rhythm and slowly stabilized. And, through the fight with Qingyuntian, he began to learn slowly, and then improved his martial arts.

His brain is spinning fast, and now he is like a high-performance processor, processing all the information that Qing Yuntian feeds back, and then begins to analyze and digest what becomes his own.

The Qingyuntian was more and more in his mood. From his point of view, Lin Ziming was completely an unkillable Xiaoqiang. After several times, after he had severely suppressed Lin Ziming, Lin Ziming was able to break free and even started to attack him Counterattack!

What a terrible thing this is.

You know, he is not an ordinary master of the God-passing realm, but has lived for 80 years, fought hundreds of times in his life, and has rich combat experience to a level that ordinary people can't understand, all moves, all routines. , There is nothing to hide in his eyes, and he will instantly see through.

But Lin Ziming's progress was beyond his expectations.

If this continues, if he can't kill Lin Ziming with a single blow, then it is very likely that he will be the one who loses!

Although he is still at the peak of his combat power, in any case, he is already eighty years old, and in terms of physical strength, he is always inferior to that of a thirty-year-old youth.

Fortunately, he was still in the upper hand, suppressing Lin Ziming firmly, otherwise, he would have the idea of running away now.

It was the work of electric sparks, and he finally caught Lin Ziming's flaw that flashed by. Without any hesitation, he immediately started to shoot!

Directly with a powerful suppression, Lin Ziming will be severely injured and suppressed!

Otherwise, if he continues to fight like this, he is really afraid of long nights and dreams.

“Thief, die!”

He shouted, a powerful air current brewed from his stomach, quickly swept through his throat, and then burst out through his throat, forming a huge sound wave, entraining huge energy, Able to overthrow a wall in front of him.

Under such a huge sound wave, Lin Ziming's eardrums would definitely burst!

And once the eardrum was broken, then it was when Lin Ziming was defeated.
