

Chapter: 2427

Whampoa said it very seriously, not a joke at all.

To be honest, Lin Ziming felt a little heavy after listening.

However, a heavy heart does not mean that he is afraid.

He came along this way, through various obstacles, difficulties, and experiencing life and death. There was no fear in his dictionary for a long time.

Tian Jue is strong, but he will never have any fear of Tian Jue. What's more, he has determined that Chu Fei is in Tian Jue's hands. How can he be afraid of Tian Jue?

However, he didn't even tell Whampoa Road about this, so he smiled and said, "No, I just want to know him and prepare for the future war."

Huangpudao heard this, he nodded, and chose to believe Lin Ziming's words. Indeed, now that the martial world is in war with the secular world, Tian Jue, as the strongest man in the martial world, will naturally stand in China by then. On the opposite side, it is inevitable to fight against Tianjue at that time.

So he told Lin Ziming all he knew.

But after Lin Ziming listened, his heart was heavy, and he further realized Lin Ziming's extraordinary.

At the same time, it inspired the fighting spirit in his heart!

Next, the war continued in full swing, with more and more powerful players coming in from both sides, and more and more dead lives. This was a disaster, and it was also a purge. .

Many people have become numb, and their fear has reached the extreme. Human lives have become numbers in the eyes of some people, and Lin Ziming has finally realized that in troubled times, human lives are not as cruel as grass and mustard!

He has tried his best to save, but relying on his personal ability to do these things, it is still a drop in the bucket, and he can't worry about it. He deeply understands that there is only one to stop this war. may! !

That is to tell the winner!

Moreover, the victorious side must be on the side of the secular world, otherwise, it will be even more cruel.

He also felt more and more now that the martial world launching this war is not as simple as a simple conception dispute.

They must be taking advantage of this war and brewing something!

Under this kind of war, Lin Ziming became more and more silent, the less he talked, the more things he did. He put all his extra energy, without a trace of waste, on his cultivation.

He has a kind of directness. The final collision between him and Tian Jue is about to come. He must do his best to improve his cultivation level during this period of time.

He can't lose, if he loses, then everything is gone!

Fortunately, his efforts have not been in vain. During this period of time, his strength can be said to have advanced by leaps and bounds, and he has directly pushed his realm to the third-grade power god realm!

And, during this period of time, he also carried out beheading operations, to challenge the strong in the world, and kill the top strong in the martial world. Finally, on this day, he received an unfamiliar call. During the call, he heard a familiar voice!

This voice, he missed for a long, long time, is a voice familiar to his bones!

Chu Fei!
