

Chapter: 2434

But it's normal to think about it. He is now the public enemy of Tianzong, and even the public enemy of the entire martial world. It is normal for him to be famous.

After entering the Heavenly Killing Sect, he truly stepped into the land of the Heavenly Killing Sect, and immediately felt that the kind of luck and prosperity in the Heavenly Killing Sect was different from any other country in the world. It all feels different.

Even Luo Tianpai feels different from here.

Here, Lin Ziming deeply felt what is called outstanding people and spirits. Here, the aura of the strong is condensed almost everywhere.

He seemed to be particularly magnificent and full of vitality. He had a feeling that if he practiced here, he would come faster than anywhere else outside.

And the most important thing is that here, the four seasons are like spring, and it is obviously winter, but here you can't feel the slightest cold. You know, because of the geographical location of the Heavenly Killing Sect, it's not near the equator, but near the North Pole. .

It can be seen that the Slayer of Heaven is indeed a very magical place!

Lin Ziming has now disguised himself and changed his breath. As long as he is not particularly familiar with him, he will not feel his presence.

Along the way, he had to sigh that Killing Tianzong is a good place. No wonder there are so many strong people. Especially, the techniques of Killing Tianzong are very good. He has seen many disciples practicing here, and they have all basic skills. It's very good.

This is a holy place for martial arts.

"Hey, have you heard that there is no such thing? Sect Master, it seems that Miss Wu Xian is about to choose a son-in-law?"

"Ah? Is there such a thing? How come I have never heard of it?"

"Hmph, of course you have never heard of it, your level is not enough, this is internal information!"

"Since it's internal information, how did you know it?"

"You don't understand this, I heard it from the master..."

Choose a son-in-law?

When Lin Ziming passed by, he immediately stopped when he heard these words, and frowned.

He knew that Chu Fei's other name was Nangong Wuxia, who was Tian Jue's eldest daughter, so the two disciples must be talking about Chu Fei.

But what does this mean by choosing a son-in-law?

Only a few days ago, Tian Jue asked him to come over. Will he choose his son-in-law now?

This is playing him!

Unconsciously, Lin Ziming's heart also burst into anger. He was ready to fight Tian Juejue to the death, but he didn't allow it. Tian Jue used Chu Fei to make a fuss and even hurt Chu Fei!

However, he was also silent, listening to these two people quietly.

Soon a third person came over and heard their conversation and said, "What are you discussing? When did the lord say that he is going to elect his son-in-law?"

"Brother Changfeng."

After seeing this young man, the two disciples immediately held their fists respectfully to show respect. Lin Ziming also saw at a glance. This young man named Changfeng Brother is not simple. He has a realm of innate perfection. In this Age, it can be considered a more powerful role.

"Don't talk nonsense about this kind of thing, you know?" Senior Brother Changfeng said sternly.

The person just now said again, "Brother, I also heard from Master. This shouldn't be a fake? Besides, Master Wuxia is indeed at the age of marriage."

After Senior Brother Changfeng heard these words, he was silent for a while, and said, "You should wait for the Sect Master to announce this information before discussing it."
