

Chapter: 380

It is late autumn, and winter is about to usher in. The temperature in Hwaseong City is already very low. At night, it is only about ten degrees Celsius. Normal people have to wear a coat to keep out the cold.

However, Lin Ziming still wore a short sleeve, and he was not cold at all. He walked on the street alone and attracted the attention of many people. Most people thought he was acting as if it was such a cold weather. But wear so little.

He taught Tang Chenghong a lesson today. It was an accident. He didn't expect to meet Tang Chenghong there. It is conceivable that Tang Chenghong must have gone to Lin Zihao to file a complaint now.

Regarding this point, he felt a little turmoil in his heart. Originally, he and Lin Zihao were already in force, and there was no possibility of reconciliation. Even if there was no such thing as Tang Chenghong, there would be a battle between him and Lin Zihao sooner or later. And it was very likely to happen at this clan meeting, so he didn't care about Tang Chenghong at all.

Taking a deep breath, he exhaled a long breath, expelling all the depression in his heart, and then took a deep breath back, suddenly refreshed.

At the same time, in the Lin family compound, a group of Lin family members are plotting.

"Patriarch, do we really want to invite Lin Ziming back to the family? He is afraid that he hates us to death now."

"Yes, Patriarch, in the incident four years ago, we expelled Lin Ziming's chaotic club from the Lin family. He would definitely not forgive us."

"Furthermore, Lin Ziming is now the son-in-law of the Chu family. If Lin Ziming is taken back to the Lin family, the reputation of our Lin family will be unpleasant in the future."

The clan meeting will be held tomorrow. All the important Lin family members will gather to discuss matters. The subject is still about whether to bring Lin Ziming back to the Lin family. Most of them were opposed, and a small group of people said that Lin Ziming should be accepted back to Lin's house.

"I think it is still necessary to bring Lin Ziming back to the Lin family. In any case, Lin Ziming inherited the father's 50 billion inheritance and seized 70% of our Lin family's assets. It hurt our Lin family's vitality!"

"Yeah, as long as Lin Ziming is brought back to the Lin family to restore his status as the second young master, Xiaozhi is moved by emotion and reasoned. I believe Lin Ziming is still willing to spit out more than 50 billion. In any case, he is in his bones. All are the blood of the Lin family."

"As long as Lin Ziming comes back to the Lin Family with more than 50 billion yuan, will we not kick Lin Ziming if we want to kick Lin Ziming?"

“Just kidding, you don’t know about Lin Ziming’s ability. Ever since childhood, even Zihao has not been an opponent of this son. If we take him back, I am afraid it will be easier to ask God to give him away.”

“Haha, then you’re just worrying about the world. No matter how great Lin Ziming is, so what? It’s always just one person. We are the whole Lin family. Is it possible that we can still be afraid of him? Besides, we were able to treat him like a dog four years ago. We will be able to expel the Lin family in four years!”

They had a violent discussion, and the conservatives thought that Lin Ziming could not be taken back so easily, because it was to lead the wolf into the room, and Lin Ziming might be the mainstay at that time. There are also quite a few radicals who feel that they can take Lin Ziming back. The little one is not afraid of Lin Ziming. When the time comes, Lin Ziming’s 50-billion-odd inheritance will be “deceived” and kick him again. Open, there are no problems at all.

The same thing is that none of them regard Lin Ziming as their own, full of hostility and rejection.

At this moment, a voice rang, “Why can’t you take Lin Ziming back properly? After all, he is also from the Lin family, and the child Lin Ziming has a pure personality. As long as we apologize to him, I believe he will not I hate us.”

Huh, everyone looked at the elder in the corner.
