

Chapter: 410

Lin Ziming couldn't help but chuckle when he saw the other person's eyes, wondering if he would be recognized, right?

Because this director is also one of Zi Qiong's directors, he had seen Lin Ziming from a distance before, and it would be possible to be recognized.

If he is really recognized, Qige knows his current identity, should he be too scared to speak?

To be honest, Lin Ziming was embarrassed. At the beginning, he and Qi brother were both door-to-door sons-in-law, both poor, and they were not treated in their natal family. At that time, Qi brother had always taken care of him because he was a few years older than him. In the end, he changed himself and became a super boss, and Qige was still the down-and-out son-in-law of the year. When Qige knew the truth, I was afraid it would be difficult to accept.

The most important thing is that when we met yesterday, Lin Ziming didn't tell Brother Qi that now that he is recognized, what would Brother Qi think? Would you think he was pretending to be forceful?

Suddenly, many thoughts flashed through Lin Ziming's mind.

Just when he was about to hint at the director not to say his identity, the director's stunned expression returned to normal, apparently he did not recognize Lin Ziming, and shook his head slightly, laughing at himself for being too ridiculous. How could this ordinary young man in front of him be the superior chairman Zi Qiong?

Especially this young man is still Yang Qi's friend.

What kind of person is Yang Qi, but he is a well-known dead dragon set in the circle. He has been unable to make an appearance in all the major studios. He is just a downcast middle-aged man. Since this is the case, how could Yang Qi realize it? Where's Chairman Michelle? Also brought Chairman Zi Qiong to his studio to apply for the role of the Dragon Set?

He had indeed seen Chairman Zi Qiong once before, but it was all a long distance away. He couldn't see Chairman Zi Qiong's face at a distance of 20 meters.

So he immediately had a judgment. The young man in front of him, at best, looked a little like Chairman Zi Qiong, and it was absolutely impossible for him to be Chairman Zi Qiong.

Lin Ziming saw the change in his expression, and he secretly breathed a sigh of relief in his heart.

Anyway, he has been relatively boring in the recent period, so he can simply "microservice private visit", just as an experience of life.

As for Qi Ge, he will use his identity as the chairman of Zi Qiong to say hello to the set, and then secretly give Qi Ge care and play a leading role or something.

He doesn't need to tell Qige about his identity, because he knows very well that once Qige knows his identity, then they won't be friends. Qi Ge would definitely be afraid of his head and feet in front of him, and would not dare to gag like before.

After looking at Lin Ziming briefly, the director nodded and said, "Okay, since you are the person introduced by Yang Qi, then I will give Yang Qi a face and allow you to play tricks on my set."

Yang Qi was overjoyed at once, and Lin Ziming quickly winked and asked Lin Ziming to thank him.

Lin Ziming had no choice but to say perfunctorily: "Thank you director."
