

Chapter: 471

Now she couldn't stop her tears, she burst into tears, she said with great anger and grievance: "Yes! I divorced Lin Ziming, and now Lin Ziming is rich, in your opinion, I am indeed embarrassed. But, it's your turn to mock me and watch me joke! Are you my enemy or my family?!"

"I have been obedient in the family since I was young. Before marrying Lin Ziming, I have never lost face to the family! Besides, marrying Lin Ziming, isn't it the one you let me marry? In the end, you guys. Instead, blame me? Are you still human!"

Someone whispered: "It's been a long time, but is it interesting to come out and say it?"

Chu Fei heard what he said, and immediately looked over, and said, "I don't want to talk about the previous things, I will just talk about the most recent things! The family has encountered difficulties twice, but which time did I turn the tide and save it? The first time if not I borrowed 20 million from Chairman Ziqiong, and the Chu family had already lost it! Okay, I borrowed 20 million to help the Chu family tide over the difficulties, but Chu Hao gambled the money in. Now, the family is in crisis again. It's me who moved 100 million from Ziqiong Media to save the Chu family from fire and water! To be honest, if it's not me, Chu Fei, all of you will eat Northwest Wind. Now, there are still days like today, with dividends every month?"

"But you, instead of grateful to me, but ridiculed me with gratitude and revenge, watching me joke, this is how you behave? Are you my relatives or my enemies?!"

Chu Fei said so many words in one breath, completely in a roaring way, hysterical, tears were already on her face.

She has never been so excited since she was a child. Even when she married Lin Ziming and suffered a lot of grievances, she still resisted the grievances and behaved very plainly.

But now, she really couldn't help it, the Chu family was too much! If others mock her like this, she can still accept it, but these are all her relatives, not her elders, or her brothers and sisters, and now they mock her like an enemy. Why! Isn't she surnamed Chu? Isn't she a human?

At this moment, everyone was stunned. They all looked at Chu Fei dementedly, very surprised. They didn't expect that Chu Fei's reaction would be so intense, which they had never seen before in Chu Fei.

After a while, a voice rang, "Just kidding, are you so excited?"

It was Chu Xuan, who complained in a low voice, with no guilt or regret on her face, but instead seemed indifferent and disapproving.

Not only her, but many Chu family members also think so. They have no idea of sympathy for Chu Fei at all.

When Chu Fei saw this scene, she fell silent, and she felt extremely cold in her heart, as cold as never before. At this moment, she finally saw clearly that the cold-blooded blood of her so-called relatives was not worth her contribution at all!

She walked to Chu Xuan and stared at Chu Xuan, “Just kidding?”

Chu Xuan raised her head, “Just kidding, you are so...”

With a snap, she didn't even finish her words, Chu Fei slapped it on the face and slapped it on Chu Xuan's face, very crisp and sweet.

Chu Xuan was taken aback for a moment, and then she became extremely annoyed and cursed like a shrew: “Chu Fei! Are you fucking sick?!!!”

Chu Fei smiled and said, “Are you so excited? I was just joking with you.”

Chu Xuan suddenly felt uncomfortable eating shit. She never thought that Chu Fei, who had always been so gentle, would actually beat her. When she wanted to fight back, she heard Chu Fei threaten, “If you dare to fight back, I promise you from now on. Less than a cent will be allocated in the future!”

Upon hearing this, Chu Xuan persuaded.

Yes, now Chu Fei is the chairman of Shengke Lighting and has all the power. If Chu Fei really wants to target her, she really won't get the money. So she had to admit it.

Chu Fei solved her, then turned around and gave the others a cold look. She didn't dare to ridicule and ridicule when there were people. She snorted heavily and left with strides.
