

Chapter: 501

They all discussed excitedly, looking forward to the future.

The smile at the corner of Han Jinlong's mouth can't be concealed, he deliberately sullen his face, pretending to be serious, and said: "The chairman is aloft, and the people who want to follow him are like the crucian carp in the river. There are countless people who are still in the wheel.?"

As soon as these words came out, their high emotions suddenly lost a lot, and they fell from the clouds to the bottom.

Han Jinlong coughed again and said, "Of course, as long as you follow me, I will not treat you badly in the future. Whoever performs well, I will recommend it to the chairman. As long as you can get into the eyes of the chairman, then You don't have to worry in your whole life."

These words of Han Jinlong made their feelings of loss suddenly rise.

At this moment, when they saw Chou Ye and Lin Ziming come out of the room, they immediately stopped talking and quickly made a respectful gesture to welcome Chou Ye and Lin Ziming.

Lin Ziming originally wanted to say hello to Han Jinlong, but as soon as he walked over, the phone rang. He took it out to see that it was Chu Fei calling, so he had to answer the phone, "Hey, Feifei, what's the matter? Something?"

When everyone saw him on the phone, they closed their mouths wittily, and did not dare to make a sound, for fear that they would disturb him.

Chu Fei's voice came through the phone, "Ziming, where are you? Is it convenient to come and pick me up?"

"Okay, where are you? I will pick you up now." Lin Ziming asked.

Chu Fei said an address, not far from Lin Ziming. In the past, it only took about ten minutes.

However, I heard Chu Fei's environment on the phone is noisy, it seems that there are quite a lot of people, especially the voice of a man who speaks next to him, which is relatively clear.

Mainly, Chu Fei's tone was a little strange, she seemed to be entangled, and it was difficult to get out.

Lin Ziming said again: "Feifei, what happened to you, is it okay?"

Chu Fei said, "There is nothing too big, you just have to come over."

"Okay, I'll go over."

Just as Lin Ziming was about to hang up, he heard Chu Fei's voice again, "Well, if it's convenient for you, can you drive a car over?"

"Oh, okay, I'll rush over." Lin Ziming nodded, agreed, and then asked the ugly master, "Joker, I'm going to pick someone up, and I'll leave it to you first."

The ugly master nodded and said, "Okay."

“Lend your car to me to drive.” Lin Ziming said.

Chou Ye gave his subordinate a look. The subordinate immediately bent over and walked over and handed a bunch of Bentley keys to Lin Ziming. He respectfully said: “Chairman, this is the latest Bentley. Do I need to drive you?”

Lin Ziming took the key and said lightly: “No need.”

Han Jinlong and others have been stretching their necks, waiting for Lin Ziming to say hello to them. As a result, Lin Ziming didn't even look at them, which made them extremely disappointed, but he didn't dare to complain and regretted himself. There was no good performance tonight, and I missed the opportunity to cheat Lin Ziming!

On the way Lin Ziming drove Bentley to the place Chu Fei said, Chu Fei is now facing some trouble...
