

Chapter: 566

“Master Nishang, don’t we really need to go in and look at the young master?”

Not far away, there were two people standing on a towering tree that was more than ten meters tall. It was no one but the ugly man and the neon clothes. They stood firmly on the branches without any tools. Fortunately, this area is a remote mountainous area. It is now at night and no one is passing by. Otherwise, if you see this scene, you will definitely think that you have met a god!

Nishang is still wearing a red dress, her clothes fluttering, like a fairy on the nine heavens, not eating the fireworks in the world.

Chou Ye is known as the underground emperor of Hwaseong City. He has many horses, but he is respectful like a dog in front of the neon clothes. He always bows his head and bends over. He doesn’t dare to look at the neon clothes. At a glance, it was a blasphemy against neon clothes.

“No, Brother Ziming should be able to survive by himself.” Nishang said lightly.

The ugly master thought for a while and said, “What if the young master cannot survive on his own, what happens?”

Nishang looked deeply at the dimly lit small room in the distance, and said: “If he can’t even survive this difficulty, how can he rescue his aunt from Luo Tian organization?”

The ugly master nodded, intellectually felt that Nishang was right, but deep down, he was still worried about Lin Ziming, because he knew how effective the Xisui Pill was. Although he had not personally experienced it, he still I’ve heard that many people at the pinnacle of the day after tomorrow can’t survive after taking Xisui Pill, and eventually explode and die, or they fall short of success and become crazy.

But anyway, Master Nishang was right. If Lin Ziming can’t survive this difficulty, don’t talk about taking Qin Yuehua away from Luo Tian organization.

On Lin Ziming’s side, he has already started taking Xisui Pill. Even though he had been mentally prepared in advance, knowing that the process would be very difficult, when this ferocious medicinal power turned into a surging beast, when it was born in his body to collide, Lin Ziming was still shocked. Suddenly, he almost came close. No hold on.

Fortunately, his willpower was firm enough to hold it quickly.

Gu Xuan’s words were wrong, the best-quality Xisui Pill was purer in quality, more powerful in its efficacy, and had greater side effects, which was simply beyond the reach of humans.

If someone is here, they will definitely be shocked by Lin Ziming’s appearance, because Lin Ziming’s whole body is red, and there are rats in his muscles, which looks particularly scary.

Lin Ziming roared in his throat, and the stainless steel handrails of the stairs were twisted into twists by him, which shows his strength!

This kind of pain lasted for forty minutes before it started to stop!

Lin Ziming was not only sweating profusely, but there was also some dirt on his body, which was an impurity forced out of his body.

He returned to normal within a short time of his breathing, and he could feel the surging strength by making fists at will, and his physique increased a lot!

Next, he took a rest for one night, and the next day, he began to swallow a part of the marrow pill again, and the tide-like pain swept through again, drowning his whole person. And this painful thing lasted longer, from forty minutes the first time to an hour.

However, after the severe pain, the improvement brought about is tremendous, and now he can fight two selves who have not taken Xisui Pill before. So he finally understood why Xisui Pill was so precious and the asking price was so high.

On the third day, the pain became more intense, and it was as late as being bullied. If he hadn't been firm enough and had a strong belief in his heart, he couldn't hold on now!

By the fourth day, he had the idea of shrinking, and then thinking of his mother and the opponent he would face in the future, he still gritted his teeth and persisted.

He survived until the eighth day!

Now his body is stronger and thinner, a full circle thinner, but his strength, the energy in his body, compared to eight days ago, has changed drastically! And he is getting closer and closer to the innate realm.

I slowly began to understand the meaning of the innate realm.

On this day, he looked at the few top-grade marrow pill that was left in front of him, and had a long ideological struggle in his heart. Finally, he gritted his teeth, picked up one, and swallowed it violently.

This time, he had a full pain for three hours, it was hellish torture!

After three hours, the effect he brought was extremely obvious, and his strength ushered in a breakthrough improvement.
