

Chapter: 584

Wang Shougui came to Lin Ziming's office. He thought about it carefully, and knocked on the door. After a while, Lin Ziming's voice came: "Come in."

Lin Ziming saw Wang Shougui walk in dignifiedly, and said with a smile: "Why, do you even have to question my decision?"

Wang Shougui was very honest, and said with a wry smile: "I can't talk about doubts. It's just that the subordinates are dull and can't understand the basis of Lin Ziming's two decisions."

Lin Ziming put down his actions, looked at Wang Shougui and said, "You know the truth is that prosperity must decline. Now Zi Qiong is developing very well. On the surface, Zi Qiong has no threats and should be expanded. But everything has a degree, and once that degree is exceeded, something will happen. Michelle has ran too fast this year, and the scale is undeniably much larger. Correspondingly, there are many omissions. It is not a piece of iron, but a thousand miles away. The embankment was destroyed in an ant colony. On the surface, it looks strong, but in fact it is weak inside. As long as competitors use a little trick, they can easily defeat Zi Qiong."

Wang Shougui was shocked when he heard it, and felt reasonable, but when he thought about it, he didn't realize that Zi Qiong had any omissions that would be crushed by competitors.

"Chairman, I still don't want to understand, please advise the chairman."

Wang Shougui asked humbly.

Lin Ziming smiled and patiently explained Wang Shougui's confusion. Specifically, he pointed out the company's current omissions and imagined how competitors would do it, which would cause great harm to Zi Qiong. By then, it would be too late for Zi Qiong to stop.

Wang Shougui is a wise man. He has been immersed in this industry for so long, and naturally he will get through. After listening, he was in a cold sweat, looked at Lin Ziming in amazement, and said, "The chairman is great! What if! In the next week, if we don't stop expanding and sell stocks, then Michelle will really have something big!"

After speaking, Wang Shougui looked at Lin Ziming's eyes with more admiration and awe.

Fortunately, he thought that Lin Ziming was swollen just now, and he insisted on going his own way. Lin Ziming had seen through his feelings, but he didn't bother to explain it to them.

Lin Ziming smiled, using his current innate ability to run a company is not a matter of hand.

Then Wang Shougui talked about some details in depth, and thoroughly understood the problems that Zi Qiong was facing now, and sweated more.

At the same time, he admired Lin Ziming more and was deeply grateful. It is conceivable that if it weren't for Lin Ziming's meeting today, Ziqiong Media would really have an accident!

Even if he doesn't go bankrupt, his vitality will be greatly injured, and he will also lose a lot of money.

"Chairman, there is one more thing I don't understand." Wang Shougui said again.

Lin Ziming was not surprised, and said, "You said I want to set up a security company."

"Not bad." Wang Shougui nodded and said, "The security company's business is too deep. Even if there is capital injection, there is no investment of ten or eight years, it is difficult to do it. Unless it is just a small security company, Specially trained doormen. But I believe that since the chairman wants to establish a security company, the structure will certainly not be that small."

Indeed, security companies are a difficult industry, and ordinary companies dare not touch them easily. First, the water is deep and the cost is high. Second, the competition is fierce. Third, if you don't have a professional team, then It's hard to do it. The team mentioned here is not the clerical staff such as the management, but the coaches and bodyguards with professional skills.

As far as Lin Ziming's current conditions are concerned, he is a layman who has nothing but money.

A truly powerful security company, its senior bodyguards are responsible for the safety of the wealthy and celebrities in the upper class. Over time, they will gradually come into contact with the core of the protector, and they will get very important information.

To put it another way, the bodyguard is an upright spy.
