

Chapter: 594

As Yan Chuang's words fell, the surrounding air suddenly became stiff, and the atmosphere became tense.

Wang Shougui's cold sweat came out from his forehead, and now he even began to regret it. From the beginning, he should try his best to dissuade Lin Ziming from going into the security industry, so that there would be no offending and aggressive situation. .

To be honest, compared to Lin Ziming, Wang Shougui was even more jealous and strict! After all, Yan Chuang was a high-level member of the Beitianhui, and he was in charge of one branch. The most important thing is that Bei Tian will be difficult to provoke. They are all martial arts uniforms, and they may slap him in the face if they are unhappy.

Seeing Lin Ziming being insulted, Xu Hua just wanted to laugh. He was very proud and gloated. Aren't you arrogant as the big boss of Ziqiong Media? Why are you so persuaded in front of others.

Immediately other people from the Northern Sky Club followed one step forward, surrounded Lin Ziming and the others, staring at them.

In an instant, Xu Hua's face changed, everyone felt the tremendous pressure, his muscles tightened, and his breathing became quicker.

At this moment, Lin Ziming laughed, Yan Chuang's arrogance was in his expectation, and he would not be angry at all. Today, he said he came to worship the dock, rather than he came to declare war. He actually came to declare war. How could he be angry?

It's just that he was a little surprised. Looking at Yan Chuang's reaction, he didn't seem to know that he and Gu Hanxing had an antagonism?

It seems that Gu Hanxing felt that this matter was ashamed. Didn't he tell the others in the North Sky Club?

It doesn't matter, anyway, he will have a fight with Gu Hanxing someday.

Seeing Lin Ziming's smile in the face of his coercion, Yan Chuang was a little surprised, and at the same time he was even more annoyed. His face turned black and coldly said, "Do you think it's funny?"

The smile on Lin Ziming's face remained unchanged, and said, "Mr. Yan, I am not here to worship you at the dock. This is the rule that you will make in Beitian. Why did you ask me in turn. Could it be your meaning? , Do you want me to ask you on the phone?"

When Wang Shougui heard this, the cold sweat on his forehead became more severe, almost his legs were trembling, and his heart was wailing, Chairman, my father, I beg you to say a few words, Yan Chuang is a ruthless person. It's so annoying!

Mr. Yan got up from his chair and stared at Lin Ziming badly. Then he laughed loudly and said loudly: "What a good chairman Ziqiong, young people are so courageous, an entertainment company, unexpectedly I also want to intervene in security! Okay, you brought so many people here, and you must have understood the rules of my Northern Sky Club. Okay, since you want to join this industry, then come up with something!”

Lin Ziming kept a smile and said, “Okay, then follow the rules of your Northern Sky Conference. If my people beat yours, even if they pass the level, how about it.”

“There is no problem.” Yan Chuang grinned, revealing a brilliant but sullen smile, which made people creepy.

Then he sat down again, pointed at someone casually, and said, “Big bear, come on, show this mob to see how good our Northern Sky Club is, and tell them with his fist that not all stinky fish and shrimps can be used for security. Intervene!”

“Yes, Mr. Yan!”

A burly man with a height of over 1.9 meters walked out, with strong muscles all over his body, he belonged to that kind of heavyweight player.

He was like an iron tower, standing there, looking at Xu Hua and others with contempt, and said: “Which one of you will go first.”

Many people felt his aura and their expressions changed, knowing that this is a tough stubborn situation, and it is not so easy to deal with. Now they understand why Lin Ziming was so generous yesterday, and it is not easy for them to visit the dock today.

“Why, don’t you dare to come? Even you mobs, dare to intervene in the security field? What a joke!” The tower man was full of disdain, and gave them a thumbs-down taunt.

This action directly irritated many people. They are all bloody martial arts practitioners, and their tempers are relatively irritable. Where can they bear this kind of grievance, there is a fierce-tempered practitioner who strode out loudly. He said: “You are arrogant, I will meet you!”
