

Chapter: 609

In addition to the male bodyguards, Lin Ziming also asked Wang Shougui to find a group of well-qualified female bodyguards who would be responsible for Chu Fei's safety.

This summer vacation soon passed, and Chu Fei's younger brother Chu Tian also ushered in the beginning of school.

"Brother-in-law, can you send me to school?"

Lin Ziming was reading the newspaper in the living room, and Chu Tian walked over and asked expectantly.

"I have to go to the company later, so I won't send you there." Lin Ziming said. He finally had two days to rest, so how could it be wasted on Chu Tian. Chu Tian's face collapsed immediately, moved his butt over, and said pitifully, "Brother-in-law, I beg you, let me go there. I will introduce you two beautiful female classmates when I turn back."

Lin Ziming was almost choked by what he said, and Liu Suhong, who was next to him, immediately gave him a violent shudder, cursing: "Boy rabbit, what are you talking about? You are looking for death!"

Chu Tian was in pain, touched his head, and quickly said, "Mom, it hurts to hit someone, I'm just kidding. But brother-in-law, send me to school today, brother-in-law, please."

As soon as he finished speaking, Liu Suhong pinched his ears and cursed: "Your brother-in-law has several companies to manage. Where is there such spare time to send you to school? You are such a big person and you won't go there. Don't bother your brother-in-law here, be careful I smoke you!"

Since knowing Lin Ziming's identity, Liu Suhong's attitude towards Lin Ziming has changed 180 degrees.

Chu Tian looked aggrieved, with fear and panic in his eyes. Lin Ziming noticed him and said, "Did you get into any trouble, so you dare not go to school alone?"

Chu Tian nodded first, then shook his head vigorously, and said, "There is no such thing, I just want my brother-in-law to send me to school."

Lin Ziming couldn't tell how he looked like this. It was clearly causing trouble, and he didn't dare to go alone for fear of being beaten.

After thinking about it, Lin Ziming said, "Okay, I will accompany you."

Chu Tian immediately became happy, "Thank you brother-in-law! I will definitely introduce a beautiful female classmate... Ouch! Mom, why are you hitting me again! It hurts!"

"If you dare to introduce a female classmate to your brother-in-law, I will not only kill you, but also kill you." Liu Suhong scolded angrily.

Lin Ziming rolled his eyes helplessly, went upstairs to change his clothes, and then sent Chutian to school.

"Let's talk about it, what did you cause?" Lin Ziming said angrily after getting in the car.

Chu Tian said: "It's not that Qianfeng yet. He doesn't know where he has worshipped a master, and learned a bit of three-legged cat kung fu. It is very arrogant. Last time I went out to sing k with my friends and met them. Lesson learned. Now school starts, and they will definitely block me at the school gate."

"So you let me send you to school?" Lin Ziming asked rhetorically.

"Yes, brother-in-law, you are now the big boss of the group. You are so awesome. Calling a few bodyguards over will definitely scare them to death. They won't dare to bully me anymore." Chu Tian flattered wildly and asked: "By the way, brother-in-law, where's your bodyguard? Why don't you see anyone?"

Lin Ziming said, "I don't have a bodyguard."

"Ah?!" Chu Tian panicked immediately and said hurriedly: "That's not good, brother-in-law! Qian Feng and I have agreed that we will fight on the day of school. Now he must have invited a lot of masters over. If we two go there, they will definitely have to be repaired badly! Brother-in-law, I don't mean anything, but you are different. If you are a big boss, if you get beaten, it will be bad for your reputation. . So let's call some awesome bodyguards over, and directly beat Qian Feng and the others to the ground!"

Lin Ziming shook his head and said, "I never bring bodyguards."

Chu Tian was even more dumbfounded when he heard it, and said quickly: "Then I won't go to school, just leave school, and then I will work in my sister's company!"

With that said, Chu Tian was about to get off the car and was scolded by Lin Ziming: "Come back."

"Brother-in-law...If the two of us go, we will really kill him." Chu Tian said with a sad face.
