

Chapter: 660

The hunting contest is indeed about to take place.

Tao Sanniang once again sent an invitation to Lin Ziming, asking him to go there to participate, and then he will recognize a lot of great people, he can expand his contacts, and make his way in the future easier.

Lin Ziming didn't really want to participate at the beginning. He was not very interested in hunting. At this point, it would be better to stay with Chu Fei more.

But then a word from the ugly master made him change his mind.

"Master, I think you can participate in this hunting contest."

Lin Ziming asked: "How to say?"

Chou Ye said: "Because of this hunting competition, there will be many experts from all over the country coming to participate, and those who get the leader will receive a generous reward. The most important thing is that killing people in the hunting competition is tacitly approved. of!"

Hearing this, Lin Ziming became a little interested, "Is there such a thing? Can you kill people in this hunting competition? Does Yuntian Pavilion have such a large amount of energy?"

Chou Ye shook his head and said: "The Yuntian Pavilion is not the organizer of this hunting contest. The real organizer is another force."

"What force?" Lin Ziming asked.

Facing Lin Ziming's question, Ugly Lord did not have a positive answer. Lin Ziming was not stupid. He immediately understood who this force was. Lin Ziming laughed and said, "According to this, I really want to I'm going to participate. I believe Gu Xuan will not let this opportunity pass, right?"

"It should be, so Young Master, you still have to be careful." Ugly Master said solemnly.

When the Aegis security company opened before, Tao Sanniang invited him to participate in this so-called hunting contest. At that time, he was not too concerned.

It now appears that it is indeed necessary for him to participate and get to know the tycoons of all parties.

Time flies quickly, and a week later, the day of the hunting contest finally arrived.

In a week, Lin Ziming mainly focused on the newly established Aegis security company. As for the two companies, Ziqiong Media and Tengyue Advertising, he can leave it to Wang Shougui to take care of them.

After so long of his special training, the strength of Xu Hua and others has improved a lot, and they are more and more in awe and admiration for him. It is no exaggeration to say that Lin Ziming said that they are heading east, and they will never dare to go west. Even if Lin Ziming let them eat shit, they would eat it without hesitation.

Now Lin Ziming has arranged five bodyguards to protect Chu Fei, two female bodyguards are personal bodyguards, and three male bodyguards are remote tracking bodyguards. As long as there are any special circumstances, call Lin Ziming to report as soon as possible.

Only with such security intensity, Lin Ziming would be relatively relieved.

A week later, Tao Sanniang called Lin Ziming on time, “Hey, Lin Dong, tomorrow is the day when the hunting contest is held, can’t you come?”

Lin Ziming said, “Since it only starts tomorrow, what am I doing now?”

Tao Sanniang pretended to be bitter and said: “Come here to stay with the Nujia. Since this time, the Nujia doesn’t know how much you miss you. You are too. You are too cruel. Not even making a single call to the Nujia is too sad. Oh, oh oh oh.”

As she spoke, she made a few weeping sounds, causing Lin Ziming to hear the goose bumps all over her body.

Among so many Peach Blossom Tribulation, the one that Lin Ziming can’t stand the most is Tao Sanniang. This is really a fairy. A single word can provoke a man’s deep love. Lin Ziming has suspected that she is the reincarnation of a fox for many times. !

“Then you continue to be sad, I’ll hang up.” Lin Ziming said coldly.

“Hey hey! Wait a minute...”

Before she finished speaking, Lin Ziming hung up the phone. Soon Tao Sanniang called back. Lin Ziming pressed down and called back immediately, accompanied by a text message with the word ‘business.’
