

Chapter: 677

When they reacted, they were all very excited. They made two billion in vain. Even if they exclude others who bought Gu Xuan, they can make more than one billion. This is really cool, hahaha!

As for Gu Xuan will lose?

Sorry, they never thought that this kind of thing would happen, because it's impossible.

Lin Ziming looked at the uncontrollable smiles of the three dealers, and sneered in his heart. After tomorrow, some of them would cry!

“Dong Lin, this is our contract. If you lose to Gu Xuan tomorrow, the money will be lost to us. If you win Gu Xuan, we will immediately compensate you with 14.6 billion. You sign here. .”

Lin Ziming waved his hand and said, “The contract is no longer necessary. It has no meaning. If I win tomorrow, I believe you will not dare not lose my 14.6 billion, right?”

The three dealers laughed, “Haha, of course. Since Lin Dong is so bold, then we really have no need to sign a contract.”

Lin Ziming smiled intriguingly and left the cabin.

After he left, the three dealers all jumped up excitedly and made a fortune.

Someone reminded them that if Lin Ziming wins, they will lose a lot.

This was met with unanimous disdain from the three of them. Even if the sun rose from the west, Lin Ziming would not have won.

After Lin Ziming left the cabin, he continued to stroll outside for a while, and then began to return to his room, ready to rest.

He is still very wonderful now, and he can pick up 14.6 billion in a random turn. As for the three bookmakers who will not compensate by then? He wasn't worried at all. As long as he killed Gu Xuan, his reputation would rise. He gave the three dealers a hundred courage, and he didn't dare to hack his money.

Just kidding, as an extraordinary master of the Innate Realm, does any ordinary person dare to offend or fear death?

The richer the person, the more afraid of death.

So Lin Ziming is not worried at all.

It's still early, Lin Ziming didn't fall asleep right away, but began to meditate and enter meditation to make his spiritual platform clear.

After he reached the innate realm now, his strength was improving every day.

When he was at the peak of the day after tomorrow, he still needed punching and physical exercise in his practice. But now, he doesn't need to practice so superficially at all. He only needs to enter meditation, control his brain, and secrete various hormones to achieve the effect of practice.

So this is also the reason why the Innate Realm, also called the Transcendent Realm, as long as Lin Ziming does not die, he will continue to make endless progress.

After meditating for an hour, Lin Ziming had already tempered his battle with Gu Xuan no less than a hundred times in his mind. Now his brain, which is equivalent to artificial intelligence, runs very fast, and whether IQ, EQ, or sixth sense, it will improve tremendously.

Suddenly, he opened his eyes and heard a footstep coming from the corridor, walking towards his room.

Soon, he reached the door of his room and stopped.
