

Chapter: 706

The audience was quiet for five seconds, and then a huge heated discussion broke out, which caused a heat wave!

Gu Xuan died and was beaten to death by Lin Ziming. This message was an explosive news for anyone.

But for Lin Ziming himself, he didn't care too much, because it was in his expectation, and Gu Xuan was just a small stepping stone on his way forward.

On the contrary, he is more concerned about the impact of Gu Xuan's death. What is before him is the reward for being the leader.

Old Fan came over at this time and said, "According to the rules of the hunting competition, Lin Ziming has obtained the most nameplates. He is the leader of this hunting competition. You can give out rewards."

Several organizers' staff looked at each other, and then said: "Wait a minute, we are going to ask the leader for instructions."

After a while, the staff member just came over and said to Lin Ziming, "Our leader wants to see you."

After finishing speaking, he didn't wait for Lin Ziming's promise, turned around and left, his attitude was very cold and arrogant.

Tao Sanniang was upset right now and frowned, "What does the organizer want to do this time, Ming Ziming is the leader of this hunting competition, and they have this attitude?"

Old Fan also frowned and said: "It is indeed a bit weird. According to the organizer's past attitude towards the leader, they are very enthusiastic. Why this time..."

Suddenly, he thought of some bad premonitions, and a worried look appeared on his face.

"Dong Lin, something is wrong, you have to be mentally prepared, and you are sure that the leader of the organizer this time is Gu Xuan's friend." Fan Lao approached Lin Ziming's ear and said softly.

In fact, Lin Ziming also thought about it. He also frowned slightly, thought about it, and said: "I came to participate in the hunting contest this time only to kill Gu Xuan. The leader is not the leader. I don't take it too seriously. ."

Tao Sanniang said: "That's not the case. You are obviously the leader this time, so you deserve the reward you deserve."

Lin Ziming smiled and said, "It's hard to tell now, maybe their leader simply wants to see me."

Tao Sanniang held Lin Ziming's hand and said worriedly: "Ziming, then you have to be careful."

Lin Ziming was holding her hand, still in front of so many people, always feeling embarrassed, so he laughed twice and said, "Don't worry, it's nothing."

Tao Sanniang now completely considers himself as his woman, which makes him a headache. The key point is that the relationship between herself and her is very innocent, and she has never acted beyond friendship.

If this spreads out, the scumbag's reputation will be solidified.

Lin Ziming shook his head and threw this distracting thought out of his mind first. He wanted to see if the organizer would give him a reward for the leader this time.

The staff walked in the other direction of the forest, and followed six men with guns to the left and right, sandwiching Lin Ziming, as if they were a prisoner.

I walked for about twenty minutes. It was open and cheerful. When I arrived, it was a place with a large area, surrounded by iron bars, and it was still electrified. It looked very tight.

Once this place is entered, it is not so easy to come out.

Lin Ziming stopped suddenly and said meaningfully, "Your leader and Gu Xuan are good friends?"
