

Chapter: 740

“Mr. Lin, I’m sorry, please accept my apology!”

Smith gritted his teeth and said this with great difficulty.

Several other foreigners, seeing Smith apologize, they also felt very aggrieved and went crazy.

Lin Ziming is enough. He has achieved his goal. He disgusts these foreigners, so he will not continue to embarrass them. Later, it seems that he is unreasonable and unpleasant, which is annoying.

“Okay, since your attitude is so sincere, then I will reluctantly forgive you.”

Lin Ziming’s remarks were spoken in English, and they were fluent, with no accent at all.

After making Smith heard it, he became so angry that he almost lifted the table. Feelings, this guy speaks English, just embarrassed him deliberately, it was too cheap!

Connor’s eyes became even colder.

What Lin Ziming wants is this kind of effect. This group of foreigners dominate the country in China. I certainly don’t know how many Chinese people have been bullied. Now, how can he give them a good look? Lin Ziming is bloody in his bones. people!

Ning Yuning and Yu Qing are not fools, they can’t tell where they are at this point, Lin Ziming is deliberately embarrassing Smith and the others. However, in any case, it is still a very happy thing to be able to see Smith deflated. In the past few days, Smith has shown little expression to them, too arrogant and pretending to be too arrogant.

They were also a little worried. Will Lin Ziming embarrass Smith in this way arouse their anger? Especially the foreigner named Connor, it’s not easy to look at, his fists are full of calluses, and his neck is too thick, which is particularly scary.

Lin Ziming just glanced at Connor indifferently, but he didn’t even take it seriously. In fact, Lin Ziming knew what Smith was making. He was determined to teach these foreigners a severe lesson and let them know about Hua. The country Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon is not something that foreign devils like them can offend!

After sitting down again, the atmosphere was a little stiff. Yu Qing saw this situation and quickly stood up and started to talk about the topic to break the silence.

Slowly, the waiter began to serve dishes, Smith found the opportunity, and he continued: “Mr. Lin, at the airport that day, you injured us, did you use Chinese Kungfu?”

Lin Ziming knew that the other party was on the subject, nodded and said, “Yes, how about it, right?”

Smith and Connor looked at each other and said with a smile: “I don’t see that Mr. Lin is a businessman and knows how to fight. None of my bodyguards are your opponents. They are very powerful.”

With that said, Smith gave Lin Ziming a thumbs up, admiring him, but he was actually sneer in his heart.

Lin Ziming smiled and lowered his head to pick up the food, but there was no response.

Then, Smith said directly: “Mr. Lin, I happen to have a friend who has practiced some boxing and wants to compete with you. I don’t know if you are interested in this?”

Finally, Smith said the purpose of the meal, opened his eyes wide, and looked at Lin Ziming expectantly, hoping that Lin Ziming could agree.

However, Lin Ziming shook his head and said, “Let’s forget the contest, I don’t have this interest.”

Smith frowned immediately, sneered and said, “Mr. Lin, are you afraid?”

Connor raised his head and began to speak, “I heard that your Chinese Kungfu is very good, and I came here to learn and teach. Don’t be afraid, I will show mercy and will not hurt you.”

Connor said with a joking smile on his face.