

Chapter: 790

Lin Ziming didn't respond to Wu Meizi. From everyone's point of view, Lin Ziming was already at the end of the battle and would be beaten to death by Wu Meizi at any time.

However, they were still surprised that Lin Ziming was able to hold on under Wu Meizi's hand for so long. Originally, they thought that Lin Ziming was purely looking for death and was vulnerable and would soon be defeated.

As the two masters of the Innate Realm, the damage brought about by the two of them is extremely huge!

You know, before Lin Ziming and Gu Xuan were in the big forest, they caused such a big movement, and now in the steel city, the damage caused is even more appalling. Anything they touched will explode and fly directly around.

Fortunately, this is in the gym, and there are no residents nearby, otherwise it will cause big news. But even so, the people around the stadium attracted their attention one after another, thinking that demolition had taken place inside.

There were so many people at the scene, densely packed, and many of them were accidentally injured, making them tremble and terrified.

"My god, is this really a human? It's too scary!"

"This is a humanoid tyrannosaurus?!"

"No wonder it is said that the Innate Realm is an extraordinary master, similar to the superhero in the movie, now it seems that it is like this!"

"The two of them are afraid that they can carry bullets, perverted, really perverted."

Everyone drew far away, for fear that Chi Yu would be harmed. Just kidding, the damage caused by Lin Ziming and Wu Meizi was far beyond their ability to bear.

Lin Ziming has now entered a wonderful stage. He has blocked his senses, smelling, hearing, sight, and touch can't be felt.

At this moment, between heaven and earth, it seemed that he was the only one left. More than 3,000 people on the scene disappeared. Everyone's voice and all the pictures disappeared. Even Wu Meizi's figure was blurred in his vision.

It was as if he had entered his own meditation, completely relying on his own consciousness to manipulate his body, in this way, he could conceal the spiritual influence Wu Meizi had on him.

Immediately Wu Meizi felt his state, her face changed for the first time, "This son..."

Now Wu Meizi's heart is particularly horrified, because she has never seen such a technique before, and can actually seal off her senses, relying on her own fighting instinct to fight her. Now she felt that Lin Ziming was dead, without a soul, but a robot.

She has never seen such a technique at such an age! It completely exceeded her understanding of the innate realm. At a certain moment, she even doubted that Lin Ziming was already dead.

The key point is that Lin Ziming has closed off his senses and has become a 'body'. Not only has his fighting ability been weakened, but on the contrary, it has become even more powerful! Wu Meizi's pressure suddenly increased a lot, and she couldn't even suppress Lin Ziming.

You must know that the reason why she can stabilize Lin Ziming is mainly because her spiritual cultivation is much stronger than Lin Ziming, and she keeps invading Lin Ziming's spiritual world. In the end, Lin Ziming is restrained and unable to exert her peak strength. Lost to her.

But now, Lin Ziming is actually not affected by her spirit. In this way, her advantage over Lin Ziming disappears, so what else can she use to stabilize Lin Ziming?

Fortunately, her realm was there. Lin Ziming would not be her opponent just by relying on his fists.

In this case, Wu Meizi put away her spiritual majesty towards Lin Ziming, concentrated her energy on her fists and feet, and launched a stormy attack on Lin Ziming.
