

Chapter: 859

However, the cultivation base of the neon clothes is not bad, he is not sure that he can take the neon clothes, so he can't force it.

He put his gaze on Province G, believing that Nishang frequently visits Province G, there must be hidden secrets!

On Lin Ziming's side, he was in the Aegis Security Group and took time to train a group of newly recruited bodyguards.

These new bodyguards are not small, they are all well-known masters. They have not heard of Lin Ziming's reputation, and at first they were not convinced by Lin Ziming. However, soon, they were seeing what Lin Ziming showed. After the horror, immediately let go of the mentality of contempt, one after another became in awe, and began to study seriously.

Lin Ziming is accustomed to such things.

However, as the chairman of Aegis Security, he is often still responsible for training new bodyguards. He plans to train a chief instructor to take over his job.

At this moment, two people came quickly from outside, with some panic on their faces, strode towards Lin Ziming.

Lin Ziming noticed it immediately, his ears moved slightly, and before the two men could speak, he stopped and signaled the new bodyguard to practice freely, and then he walked outside the door.

"Chairman..."

"Well, I already know."

The two men were stunned, they didn't report, the chairman already knew? This is too amazing.

Lin Ziming's ear power was beyond ordinary people's imagination. He just calmed down and listened. He immediately heard two strong breathing sounds outside and felt their strong breath.

Obviously, these are the two masters I met last time.

Sure enough, after Lin Ziming went out, he saw two people in dark gray uniforms standing in the hall, a man and a woman.

When Lin Ziming saw them, their eyes were also on Lin Ziming, and their eyes collided with each other.

In fact, Lin Ziming knew just now that these two people were the two people who followed him when he went to Smith and Connery to kill him some time ago. And these two people, ten of them are from the official.

"I don't know if the two are..."

Lin Ziming didn't even finish what he said, so he was interrupted by the man among them, staring at him with majesty, "Lin Ziming, you are suspected of a serious murder, please come with us right away!"

Speaking of this, everyone in the hall was frightened, and the chairman was suspected of murder! ?

You know, in the country, the most serious crime is murder, and once caught, it is sentenced to death!

If it were an ordinary person, he would have been so scared, but Lin Ziming's face did not show the slightest panic, and even the smile on his face had not changed. He said, "Don't worry, the two of you will come. Why not sit down and drink hot tea, I have a good Hangcheng Longjing."

With such a calm look, he couldn't find a trace of fear or panic. He smiled and looked at the two people, not knowing, thinking he was greeting a friend.
