

Chapter: 897

Lin Ziming smiled bitterly again, this Sun Liang exaggerated too much. However, he has now agreed, and he is also relieved. Now that he has decided, then he will do it well.

Next, Sun Liang took Lin Ziming and chatted for a while, mainly introducing the three places of Xuanyuan, and Lin Ziming's main duties when he joined the three places of Xuanyuan.

To Lin Ziming's surprise, Sun Liang asked him to join Xuanyuan's three places, actually asking him to be an instructor.

"Well, Chief Sun, I'm an instructor, I'm afraid it's not this piece of material." Lin Ziming said embarrassedly.

Sun Liang confidently said: "You are definitely this material! I have investigated your Aegis security group. Those newcomers have made rapid progress in a short period of time under your training. You are not this material, who else is it this material? Okay, it's so decided. The day after tomorrow I will let Qiuya come to pick you up in person. Then you will report to Xuanyuan 3 and I will walk you through the program. From then on, you will be Xuanyuan 3 People at the office."

After a pause, Sun Liang said meaningfully, "Don't look at who we currently have in Xuanyuan 3rd place, but our status in China is still relatively detached. As long as you are the instructor of Xuanyuan 3rd place, Do not make mistakes of principle, it will be much more convenient to act in the country."

Lin Ziming is a wise man, so he quickly understood what he meant, that is, as long as Lin Ziming doesn't treason, he can almost walk sideways in the country.

Lin Ziming didn't doubt this, after all, the third place of Xuanyuan itself was a transcendent organization.

Of course, everything has two sides. Lin Ziming gets these conveniences based on danger, and he also needs to do his own duties, otherwise everything is empty talk.

Seeing the figures of Sun Liang and three of them going away, Lin Ziming shook his head, confusedly, and joined the three places of Xuanyuan.

In the next two days, he accompanied Chu Fei. The two went to the surrounding cities to play for a day, ate some famous local snacks, and went to the amusement park to play a circle. Both of them were in a much better mood.

Speaking of it, the two of them have been married for so long, and they haven't been to play like this before. This experience is indeed very wonderful.

On the second day, Lin Ziming got up early, got into Tan Qiuya's car, and went straight to the base of Xuanyuan's third place.

On the way there, Tan Qiuya told him a lot about the three places of Xuanyuan, and Lin Ziming slowly realized that the instructors at the third place of Xuanyuan were not so easy to do, and there were so many thorns inside.

At the same time, in the three bases of Xuanyuan, in a square, hundreds of people gathered, their figures are particularly strong, their eyes are piercing, full of explosive power, and their bodies are full of fierceness and evil spirits. Just look at it and you know it's not easy to mess with.

In particular, more than a dozen of them have very strong auras, strong physiques, exuding iron and blood, and they are fighting with each other, and their fists and feet are particularly fierce. Ordinary people can't bear it, and even lose their lives on the spot!

"Hey, I heard that Sun is in the folks, and he has found a new instructor, saying that he will come to replace instructor Liu."

"Well, I also heard that there is such a thing."

"Mainly, this new instructor, I heard that he is the president of an entertainment company, he is less than thirty years old."

"No! A businessman is here to be our instructor? Isn't that kidding! Sun Chu is definitely not so confused, right?"

"It's true. I have already inquired about it from Tian Mingjie, and it is said that this new instructor's skill is very good, and we are not opponents together."

"Ho ho, bragging is terrible! A businessman, less than 30 years old, is a little boy, is he qualified to be our instructor! What to teach us, do you do business? What a big joke! Wait for this guy to come. Yes, I'm the first to give him a prestige!"

"Hey, Lao Niu, don't abuse the new instructor when you wait. If you cry someone later, how can they end up?"

"Hahahaha..."

A bunch of people in the square sneered.

At this moment, someone shouted, "Look, Chief Sun is here with someone!"
