

Chapter: 919

Lin Ziming frowned even more. He was a dignified master of the third stage of the Innate Realm, but he was said to be stealing a master by an ordinary martial artist in the realm of master, which really made him uncomfortable.

“Then what do you want?” Lin Ziming’s tone was obviously colder.

The middle-aged man saw him like this, thinking that he had already started to persuade him, and was scared. He was overjoyed and couldn’t help but raised his mouth and said, “What do I want? It’s very simple. Everything is done in accordance with the rules of martial arts! There are two kinds of endings. First, you worship me as a teacher three times and nine times. Second, if you defeat me by your ability, then I am not as good as others, so I am convinced, but from now on, you are also the life and death enemy of my line!”

Lin Ziming showed a strange expression on his face after listening. He really didn’t think about it. He would get into such trouble just looking at it just now.

In fact, it is not a trouble for him, mainly encountering this kind of things, for his identity, it is too shameful.

If the opponent is also a master of the innate realm, it’s okay, but the opponent is just a martial artist in the realm of masters, so weak that he doesn’t even have a hands-on force.

Seeing Lin Ziming’s silence, the middle-aged man was very proud. He thought that Lin Ziming had been scared by him, and the smile on the corner of his mouth became stronger and stronger.

He is indeed a boxer. These young people are his newly-acquired apprentices. Two of them are also because they were in the park and looked at him a few more times. Then he was caught by him and used this set directly. , Forcing each other to apprentice.

Of course, these two apprentices were both unwilling to apprentice at the beginning and chose to fight with him. The result was obvious, how could ordinary people be his opponents, and they were defeated in three or two. In this way, the other party saw his true skills, and the apprentice was willing to do so.

And apprenticeship means paying tuition fees. The tuition fees for his apprenticeship are not low, starting at 100,000 yuan a year, and that’s not counting other expenses.

So he mainly relies on this to make money.

It’s a pity that he met Lin Ziming today, someone he can’t afford to provoke.

“How are you thinking about it? Let me tell you that your act of stealing the teacher just now was very serious. If you change the ancient times, this is the enemy of killing your father. You would have been killed by me!” the middle-aged man said fiercely.

Lin Ziming said, "Master, let me just tell you this. It is impossible for me to worship you as a teacher. I am not interested in your martial arts."

The middle-aged man's face changed immediately, his eyes widened like brass bells, and he said fiercely: "According to that, you are going to fight me? Okay! Then come! But I will tell you in advance, I have no eyes on my fists and my hands are very heavy, and you will be crippled by me when you are beaten. Don't regret it!!"

After speaking, he walked over, picked up a brick on the ground, and then smashed it forcefully, directly splitting the brick, and he also split the remaining half, which was also split into two by him.

Ordinary people have long been scared to see this scene.

Over the years, with this skill, the middle-aged people don't know how many ordinary people have been conquered, and they want to worship him.

Now he is very confident, Lin Ziming will definitely be scared by him.

However, when he looked up, he found that Lin Ziming was completely indifferent, and he immediately became ashamed, thinking that Lin Ziming was too ignorant and did not give him face!

Lin Ziming said: "Since this is the case, then you can do it."

Taking advantage of the fact that there are not many people in the park now, Lin Ziming made a quick decision.
