

Chapter: 922

Yes, just now Lin Ziming was walking on the lake surface, speeding very fast, leaving like an arrow, walking on the ground like an arrow.

This scene was too shocking for Liao Fan. It completely subverted his cognition. At that moment, he even thought that he had hallucinations, but, soon, he pinched his thigh hard. It hurt, and he also heard the apprentice's exclamation behind him, and realized that this is not an illusion, Lin Ziming is really a reed crossing the river!

In fact, he was wrong. Lin Ziming was not crossing the river with a reed. He was not so godly. He didn't step on a reed and crossed the lake. He walked on the water, similar to the martial arts movie. It is light work, but it is not that there is weight, but his stepping on the water is very fast, spreading the resistance to the surface of the water, and at the same time using skillful strength to reduce the pressure of the feet, so as to achieve the effect of stepping away.

Originally, he didn't want to show it in front of ordinary people, but he can't take care of that much now, because he found the neon clothes in an instant, just across from him.

Liao Fan paled with fright, his legs were swinging, his mouth was trembling, "This is, first, first, innate, peerless master!"

Then he slapped himself heavily, full of fear and regret, and wailed: "What the hell did I do? I actually said that the strong in the innate realm stole the teacher, and also shot the strong in the innate realm. ...."

The apprentices were also stunned one by one. The scene just now was extremely shocking and even subversive to them.

"Master, Master, was the person just now a human or a ghost?"

An apprentice asked tremblingly, his eyes full of fear, and a wave of admiration and excitement that even he himself was not aware of.

Immediately other apprentices also asked: "Yes, Master, he shouldn't be a monster, he can step on the water and pass."

"Cut, there are any ghosts and gods in this world, monsters, I think you are stunned, according to my opinion, there must be something wrong with this lake, he has done tricks, I will know if I go to try!"

An apprentice turned his head back. He was a firm materialist. He didn't believe that Lin Ziming was really such a god, so he also tried to dive into the water...

The result was cruel. He couldn't step off the water like Lin Ziming, and fell directly into the water. The cold water stimulated him to scream, scream, and be very embarrassed.

In the end, Liao Fan had to go into the water and rescue him. Now, he finally understood that Lin Ziming was not pretending to be a fool, but was really capable. For a while, everyone admired and awed Lin Ziming.

Just at this moment, three people came over. They obviously knew Liao Fan. Seeing them so embarrassed, they asked in surprise: “Brother Liao, why are you covered in water and fell into the water?”

Seeing these three people, Liao Fan greeted him. It was his junior and junior younger sister. They saw him look so embarrassed, so embarrassed that he simply said what had just happened.

“What? Innate realm powerhouse?!”

“His...walking on the water, the trousers are not wet, this is not something that ordinary innate realms can do! At least it has reached the third stage!”

Another beautiful woman with a graceful figure and a nice face opened her eyes wide, and said excitedly: “Brother, is the master of the congenital realm you mentioned is very young, looks like an ordinary white-collar worker with skin Very fair, about 1.83 meters tall, and very gentle and elegant in conversation?!”

Liao Fan was taken aback, he looked at the excited little junior sister in front of him, and asked curiously: “Little junior sister, do you know this senior?”

The little Junior Sister clapped her palms suddenly, and said more excitedly: “That’s him, Lin Ziming, the number one master of G province, the master of the innate realm under 30 years old, my idol!!”

Wrong, this little junior girl is no one, it is Yang Guiying. She came here for morning exercises with the two seniors early this morning, but she didn’t think that she actually met Lin Ziming, her idol again.

For a moment, she was so excited that she even had the urge to cry.
