

Ancient ST 2061

Chapter 2061 - The Legend About The Jade Butterfly

They didn't dare to move around in the air. There was something formidable existed up there. That was the Poisonous Bee. The Poisonous Bee had the size of a fist. However, Its poison was deadly. The bee might not be much of a threat on its own, but usually, when it appeared, it would be in swarms. There could be a hundred, or millions of them. They would fill up the entire sky. The bees' poison had strong corrosive effects. The terrifying part about it was the stacked effect of the poison with each other. Once countless of them appeared, the victims would have no choice but to run. Otherwise, there was no way they would escape death.

This kind of poison took the form of a sticky liquid. Not only was it very corrosive, but it also had unbelievably high viscosity. It was capable of solidifying and permeating through a person's body. The poison of one bee might not be a threat to Qing Shui and Shen Huang, but as their number increased, even the current Qing Shui couldn't guarantee that he would be fine, let alone Shen Huang.

The Poisonous Bees Swarm was one of the most terrifying beings in the Flower Ocean. A lot of people would prefer to encounter strong spiritual beasts rather than running into the Poisonous Bees Swarm.

Yet another two days passed in a flash. Qing Shui and Shen Huang had spent the past two days together. Every four hours, Qing Shui would need to warm up Shen Huang's body. Thus, even when it was the time to rest, they would still need to stay together. After the awkward experience last time, Qing Shui would feel nervous every time he did it. So was Shen Huang, except she would only be more nervous than him.

However, Qing Shui was very "strong" and thus, he was unable to control the reaction of his body. On one of the times when Qing Shui's body reacted again, he attempted to seal the reaction with his Gold Needle but was stopped by Shen Huang, "I don't blame you for it. Doing so isn't good for your body."

Qing Shui didn't know what to say. Since then, every time when he needed to hug her for an hour, his body would remain in this state the entire time. Shen Huang also felt very unnatural being pushed by the hot thing from below.

It was a pain in the neck to Qing Shui. Shen Huang also knew that occasionally, Qing Shui would unintentionally come up with some dirty thoughts. When that happened, she would feel shy. However, she wouldn't get angry at him.

At night, Qing Shui didn't actually sleep together with Shen Huang. He still needed to enter the realm. But he would set his time well and come out in advance a few times in the middle of the night.

Just like that, another two days passed. The two were already deep inside the flower ocean.

When Qing Shui encountered the Poisonous Bees, he managed to run away from them. With the Nine Continents Steps, he would still be faster than the Poisonous Bees Swarm even if he was to move at regular speed. The Poisonous Bees Swarm was very persistent. It wouldn't give up chasing after its target the moment they fixed their sights on it.

"Qing Shui! Look! It's the Jade Butterfly!" Suddenly, Shen Huang pointed far away into the direction and shouted at Qing Shui.

Qing Shui followed Shen Huang's finger and spotted the so-called 'Jade Butterfly'. There were two of them. After spreading their wings, they had the size of an adult. Their entire body was colored in green. They also looked bright and shiny, so much so that faint, green light could be seen across their bodies. This caused them to look unusually beautiful.

They came in pairs. It shocked Qing Shui that even though this pair of butterflies might not be very formidable, they possessed a unique ability. They didn't have any enemies, nor would anything try to eat them. Their second ability made them capable of deflecting attacks in all shapes and forms. This was like the story from his previous incarnation about an ant which was not dying after falling from great heights. This ability could guarantee that the Jade Butterfly wouldn't be injured when it was hit by accident.

Usually, the Jade Butterfly was a rarely seen species. It could almost be considered as a legendary beast. Furthermore, it only appeared in pairs. There was also another legend about the Jade Butterfly across the continent. The male and female who encountered them would eventually end up as husbands and wives.

If two men or two women were to encounter the Jade Butterfly, they would also end up becoming best friends. Furthermore, it was said that in the future, each of them was bound to find a spouse who suited them perfectly. Then, their life as husband and wife would be filled with happiness.

All of these were only legends. Qing Shui didn't detect abilities like this from the Jade Butterfly. However, the people across the continents mostly believed in stories like these. This had caused Qing Shui to feel quite confused. Could this be the effect of peer pressures? Since everyone was talking about it, it would begin to influence one's mind without themselves noticing it.

Shen Huang was very happy when she saw the Jade Butterfly. But very soon, a question popped up in her mind. For a moment, her entire mind turned blank. Could it be that she would really end up as his wife in the future? Could she find happiness staying by his side? She didn't have long to live, could it be that the appearance of the Jade Butterfly was to tell her that she wouldn't have to die this time?

"Eldest Mistress, please don't overthink it. If it is real, at least it comes to show that this time, you have been panicked for nothing." Qing Shui tried to comfort her.

"Do you believe in legends?" Shen Huang came back to her senses and asked with a smile.

She can test Qing Shui's feelings for her from questions like this. If he said that he believed in it, it would mean that he liked her. But if his answer was the opposite, it would come to show that Qing Shui had no intention to marry her.

"If, I am saying if you ever end up as my woman in the future, I will make sure that it will be because I have affections for you and have decided to chase after you. It will definitely not because the Jade Butterflies have brought us together." Qing Shui smiled and said.

Shen Huang smiled. She liked his answer. She wasn't sure whether to believe in legends like this or not, but she had always found this kind of stuff mysterious. There was nothing that could prove that it was real. There might be many legends, but very few would come true in real life. It was because of this that when it happened, people would have the feeling that this was meant to be. They would then be affected without themselves realizing it, since no one was willing to defy God's will. After all, the chance of meeting the Jade Butterfly was already vivid in itself. A couple who ran into it would naturally be shocked. It would unconsciously begin to affect the feelings which the couple had for each other.

Men and women were supposed to attract each other to begin with. Women were born emotional, it was easy for them to be convinced by situations like this. Once a woman started to act more actively, things would follow along naturally. After all, when a woman went after a man, they were separated by only a piece of paper. One poke from a finger was all it took to break it.

The next move from the Jade Butterfly shocked both of them. A pair of Jade Butterflies surrounded Qing Shui and Shen Huang. They only left after flying around them for quite a long time. Seeing this, even Qing Shui who usually wasn't convinced by this kind of things had started to believe in it, let alone this world was filled with mysteries, to begin with. The fact that he was able to come here was in itself, already the biggest mystery of the century.

That was the legendary 'Immortal Destiny of the Jade Butterfly'.

Legend said that if a couple ran into the Jade Butterfly and the butterfly refused to leave but flew around them, this meant that the couple would end up as husband and wife. Furthermore, they would also be rich. It was said that their destiny would be intertwined for three wheels of reincarnation. They would be together in their next life and the next one after that.

No one knew if the Jade Butterfly's legend was real or not. But they could confirm that these two butterflies had fluttered around these two for quite a long time.

Shen Huang looked at Qing Shui in disbelief. She didn't know how she should feel at the moment. A lot of things had happened between the two of them, and each one of them was beyond her beliefs. It was impossible that she didn't feel anything in her heart. After all, this man was the closest man to her in her entire life by far. When she knew that she didn't have long to live, the first person who came to her mind was him. That in itself already reflected the feelings which she had for this man.

Shen Huang smiled. She remembered the time when her hand was being held by him, the time when she let him hugged her countless times and also the time when that part of his body was pushing against her body...

The fact that she allowed him to act so recklessly was, in itself, already a problem.

She wasn't an open woman. She was only avoiding him subconsciously. Now that he thought about it, sometimes, it would be better if he didn't overthink. Doing so would only increase the lists of the things he should worry about.

The Jade Butterfly left. Right at this moment, Qing Shui abruptly turned around only to see a fiery red demonic beast far away. Its body resembled that of magma. It was quiet and motionless, just a hundred meters away from him. This caused Qing Shui to be very shocked. The opponent's speed, as well as its ability to hide itself, was too formidable.

Shen Huang's expression also changed upon seeing it, "The Flower Demonic Beast!"

Qing Shui had done some research before coming here. This was a formidable beast. But the terrifying part about the Flower Demonic Beast was the Flower Demon which appeared alongside it. The Flower

Demon was half-demonic beast and half-human. It could be considered a fairy. Its innate talents and abilities were superior to humans and demonic beasts themselves.

Chapter 2062 - Flower Demon, The Flower of Desire, Area Dominance

The Flower Demonic Beast wasn't really huge, but it wasn't that small either. It was about a hundred meters in length and its entire body was fiery red like magma. Though it might be giving out a fragrant smell, the smell was actually its aroma of poison. It was psychedelic and was capable of quietly making a person feel dizzy and causing numbness in their neurons. Once a warrior's senses were numbed, the consequences would be hard to imagine.

The Flower Demonic Beast got its name from the Flower Demon. By now, Qing Shui could already see the woman that was riding on the back of the Flower Demonic Beast. It should be safe to consider her a woman. The first impression one would get upon seeing the woman would be that she was a flower. She was dressed entirely in flowers. Furthermore, they were all real flower images.

It was a long dress made of fresh flowers. It was tender and beautiful. Qing Shui then looked towards the Flower Demon's face. She had the face of a mature and attractive woman. The first thing that one would feel when they saw that face was a flower that bloomed. She was so beautiful, lovely and charming, and her mature look resembled a honey peach that seemed like water was going to drip down from it.

She had a pair of thin and slender eyes. Every time she blinked, she would look charming like water, giving out a fatally attractive charm. She had a stunningly seductive figure. Her kind of sexy wasn't emphasized on her size. In fact, the term 'sexy' didn't just stand for having a pair of huge boobs. The real definition of 'sexy' was one's body being in proportion to each other. Of course, if a person's boobs were too tiny, they wouldn't be qualified enough to be called sexy.

Her boobs were perky and upright, pushing forward the long dress of hers that were filled with flowers, forming a perfect curve on her body. She had a slender waist and her buttocks were so well-rounded that one would be shocked upon looking at it. It was a kind of extreme, a body figure that was sculpted so proportionally to its extreme, forming a true, sexy figure.

From Qing Shui's perspective, Shen Huang looked even more perfect than the Flower Demon. Shen Huang was an exceptional Goddess who was matchless in her generations. Meanwhile, the Flower Demon right in front of him was just an ordinary, beautiful fairy.

The red phoenix eyes of the Flower Demon was showing a faint, smiling intention. However, Qing Shui had no idea what was her purpose of smiling. She gave people the feeling that she was a magnanimous woman. There were women who were enchanting just like her, but compared to this Flower Demon, it was like she was the boss within a mafia organization and they were just some hooligans.

"Nice to meet you. We have no interest in making enemies with you. Can we part ways from here peacefully?" Qing Shui asked the Flower Demon that was on the Flower Demonic Beast.

"Hehe, it has been such a long time since I last saw a human. It feels like forever since I last tasted the blood of a human. This brings back so many memories!"

Her laugh sounded clear and lovely. Her charm was indescribable. She also gave people a feeling that she was an unrestrained woman. Despite that, she was undeniably elegant. However, Qing Shui was still aware that she was a monster. Furthermore, she viewed humans as preys and enjoyed sucking their blood.

This reminded Qing Shui of the gorgeous Vampiric Empress. She was the emperor of the Vampiric Tribes, and Qing Shui had even had a daughter with her. Throughout her entire lifetime, he was the only person whose blood she consumed. In Qing Shui's opinion, the Vampiric Empress was a pure and holy woman.

However, the Flower Demon currently in front of him was different. The gorgeous body of hers was slowly becoming less and less appealing to Qing Shui. He knitted his brows and said, "It seems you don't plan to let us go just like that."

"You think? Darling, since you have a handsome face, as long as you do as I say, I will let you have a taste of how heaven is like before you die. If you do well, for all you know, I may end up letting you stay beside me instead. Don't you think that it also sounds quite good for us to live together?" The charming voice was indescribably attractive.

It was a very gentle yet alluring voice, rendering people unable to muster up any strength across their body.

Qing Shui trembled while Shen Huang looked at him nervously. Even though she might not be affected by it, men should have fallen for her immediately as soon as they heard the voice and saw the Flower Demon's figure. There was a saying 'one night of romance with a gorgeous girl, a happy death you deserve'. It was likely that a lot of men would have chosen to die voluntarily even if they only got to spend one night with the Flower Demon. This was the power of a woman's charm.

Of course, Qing Shui didn't want things to turn out this way. He had seen way too many beautiful women. Among the women which he knew, the majority of them looked even prettier than the Flower Demon. The only thing about the Flower Demon was that she tended to remind people of beds whenever they saw her. This was one of the most ancient motivations one could ever feel. Thus, it was normal for him to feel uncomfortable.

"Why don't you go and play with her?" Shen Huang gave Qing Shui a confused look.

"Hey, eldest mistress, what do you mean by 'go and play with her'? Each of the beautiful women around me is at least a thousand times more beautiful than that demon in front of us." Qing Shui smiled and said.

Shen Huang blushed. She remained silent, but deep down, there was a kind of emotion which words couldn't describe. She was a woman and realized that she too, wanted someone to care about her, love her, spoil her and even compliment her.

She didn't know why she would start to behave like this all of a sudden. She had never once felt like that in the past.

"You unappreciative brat! Die!"

The Flower Demonic Beast carried up a whirlwind as it stormed its way towards them. By now, the entire sky was already filled with flowers. These flowers were spinning at high speed. Waves after waves of sweet flower aroma were spreading across the area.

“Don’t breathe!”

Qing Shui warned Shen Huang.

“It’s useless. The flower aroma could penetrate through every part of a person’s body. It would destroy your Spiritual Sense and slow down your reaction time, causing you to feel numbness across your entire body. Soon, you would start to hallucinate things and you will slowly be consumed by your own desire.” The Flower Demon’s charming voice came through. She then shot out a fresh flower in her hand.

桃花煞!Peach Flower Termination!

A Peach Flower appeared. The Pernicious Aura on top of it had materialized, forming a solid green smoke around the bright Peach Flower. It was thin like a cicada wing and also sparkling and translucent. With a sharp killing intent on it, it spun towards Qing Shui’s neck.

Area Dominance

Qing Shui was equipped with the Mystic Snake Turtle and the Area Dominance. The current Area Dominance was totally on a different level from the one before. Its most formidable ability blessed Qing Shui with the resistance against poisons and it could help to clear one’s mind and spirit. In addition to that, it was even able to remove negative status effects, such as a decrease in speed or one’s overall strength, on the user as well as the people on his side. It was also capable of dispelling the opponent’s status increase. However, for the time being, it was only able to dispel up to 50% of it.

Furthermore, it could also either raise the target’s speed and strength by 20% or decreased both of them by the same amount.

Qing Shui had never used the Area Dominance. The Mystic Snake Turtle had also been living inside the realm peacefully. Its presence was the sole reason why the realm was able to be expanded by more than two times. This was one of the abilities of the Mystic Snake Turtle.

The reason why he used it this time was because the flower poison of the Flower Demon was too deadly. Even though he was only feeling a bit of discomfort, Shen Huang was already at her limit. Her eyes were half-closed, and there were a few times when she almost kissed Qing Shui. Eventually, she bit her own tongue, causing her lips to be dyed red by her blood.

Qing Shui suddenly remembered the Area Dominance and quickly unleashed it. The effect was unusually great; a faint holy light appeared and purified the area fifty meters within it. By now, not even the slightest fragrance could be smelled in the air.

Shen Huang looked at Qing Shui in shock. Similarly, Qing Shui was also looking at Shen Huang. Under the light of Area Dominance, Shen Huang was like a Goddess under the nine heavens. She looked beautiful and very distant. Even though she was within arm’s reach and was holding his hand, Qing Shui felt that he was unable to grab her, but could only look at her from far away.

“What’s wrong?” asked Shen Huang when she saw Qing Shui’s distracted look.

Qing Shui shook his head. Shen Huang was right in front of her, but yet she still seemed so unpredictable. She then smiled and said, "It's fine. It has been a long time since I last used this technique. Who would have thought that it would still have some uses? Otherwise, I wouldn't have been able to imagine what could happen."

Shen Huang felt a bit unnatural, "You will be eaten up by her....."

"You aren't half bad. To think that you can actually withstand my Flowers of Desire." The Flower Demon seemed surprised.

Chapter 2063 - The Fearsome Golden Spiral Horn of the Dragon Slaying Beast

"You aren't half bad, to think that you are actually able to block my Flower of Desire." The Flower Demon seemed surprised.

Qing Shui felt uncomfortable when he heard the old and decrepit voice of the Flower Demon. He was trying his best to make the Flower Demon's appearance as ugly as possible from his perspective. This way, at least he wouldn't think twice to hit her when he attacked. After all, it was undeniable that the Flower Demon was beautiful. Good thing that he had Shen Huang by his side since she was able to completely suppress the Flower Demon with her beauty.

"Let me repeat this one more time. I am not looking for trouble, so it's better if we leave things as it is and forget everything. You will never get to eat me. In fact, you might die trying to do so." Qing Shui said after thinking for a while.

"You want to kill me? Haha, do you know what I am? I am no ordinary beast. I am the Spiritual Body of Heaven and Earth, a fairy born from the flowers! Only the unique flower of at least ten thousand years of age has the chance to breed out a Flower Immortal Fairy. And even then, the possibility of it is infinitesimal"

A Flower Immortal Fairy? Qing Shui was able to figure out what she had meant after thinking about it for a while. The Flower Immortal Fairy was precisely the Flower Demon which was currently in front of them. But Flower Fairy or Flower Spirit was the way she addressed herself.

"So? What are you getting on?" Qing Shui asked a bit confused.

"We are a kind of spirit body, and normal attacks won't work against us. Even if it was to really hit us, its damage would be greatly reduced," said the Flower Demon while smiling gently. She sounded very confident about herself.

After her explanations, Qing Shui finally understood what she was. Physiques like this were immune to physical attacks and spirit energy, but it could be hurt by attacks like for example from the Force of Soul. However, the Flower Demon was even able to reduce 50% of the damage caused by soul-based attacks.

The attacks of the Flower Demon involved spirit-poisons. The only thing which could counter the poisonous flowers were soul-based attacks. A lot of strong warriors were powerless in front of the Flower Demon. They would end up turning into dead souls.

However, Qing Shui didn't seem nervous as he didn't fear the soul-based attacks of the Flower Demon. His Nine Yang Dragon Soul was dominant and strong; thus, he wouldn't worry about it. If it had been someone else, they would have been very unlucky. After all, she could even reduce half the effect of Spirit Thunder Attack.

In Qing Shui's case, he should be fine due to his special attacks imbued with the Nine Yang Dragon Soul's power. Thus, he wouldn't have problems in that aspect. His only issue now was his own pure attack power; he wasn't sure if his attacks could cause any damage to the Flower Demon. After all, the current Flower Demon in front of him was formidable. Adding on the 50% mitigation of soul-based attack, he didn't know if he could hurt the Flower Demon.

One more thing which Qing Shui wasn't sure about was the capability of the Dragon Slaying Beast and Dragon Spider to execute this kind of attacks.

"Brat! It's about time for you to die!"

A Flower Sword appeared in the hands of the Flower Demon. A dazzling light was slashing towards Qing Shui and Shen Huang. From how it seemed, this attack was definitely more powerful than what Little Rin was capable of doing now. Since Qing Shui and the others had gotten half of their strength reduced, it might seem difficult for them to defend against it.

Beng!

Qing Shui and Shen Huang immediately got blown away along with Little Rin. She had struck them very hard, and Little Rin let out a furious roar. Even though Little Rin might be very powerful, it was currently still inferior to the Flower Demon. Since it had yet to fully mature, it was unable to hurt the Flower Demon. It would only be able to do so once it reached its adulthood.

Shen Huang felt a bit worried and looked at Qing Shui, "What shall we do?"

"Don't worry about it, let me give it a try. Just stay by Little Rin's side and don't move." Qing Shui must stay close to Shen Huang. Otherwise, once the effect of Area Dominance was gone, things might turn out to be really ugly.

Nine Yang Dragon Soul!

The Dragon Force within Qing Shui's body started scattering across his entire body. His body was fueled with astonishing power. After that, he stretched out his arms.

Dragon-capturing Hands!

The Dragon-capturing Hands with Nine Yang Dragon Soul mixed in it seemed even more terrifying. Qing Shui grabbed the Flower Demon right away and tossed her down from the Flower Demonic Beast.

She was unable to stop herself from temporarily feeling dizzy. The Dragon-capturing Hands might not be able to hurt the Flower Demon, but it could make her fall in disbelief. Not only was she unable to dodge Qing Shui's attack, but she was even paralyzed momentarily by it. Her entire person as well as her mind got wobbly for an instant and disrupted all of her actions.

The Flower Demon was in a great rage. It swiftly charged towards Qing Shui and unleashed a storm of flowers with the Flower Sword in her arm. Following on, she swung down the sword in her arm and immediately, the flower petals rained down towards Qing Shui. These flowers had thin and sharp thorns on it. They were charging towards Qing Shui with fearsome forces.

Once a person was struck by it, his skin would be stabbed by these small thorns. At the moment when the person started bleeding, the poisons on the flowers would intrude into the victim's body, and he would lose his ability to fight instantly.

She was the Flower Demon, a fairy that controlled flowers.

Nine Continents Mountain!

The Nine Continents Mountain appeared in front of Qing Shui and immediately clashed into these flower petals.

So long as it wasn't a soul-based attack, Qing Shui wouldn't fear her. Moreover, the Nine Continents Mountain was also able to block the soul-based attacks. Its only shortcoming was the lack of Soul Energy in its attack. Thus, for the time being, the Nine Continents Mountain wasn't able to hurt spirit bodies.

However, when it came to blocking the poisonous flowers in front of him, the Nine Continents Mountain alone would have been enough to handle the job.

The Flower Demon was furious. She immediately swung down the flower sword in her hand. A wave of fresh flowers turned into a huge snake and charged towards Qing Shui.

This was a soul-based attack. Furthermore, its offensive prowess was very tricky. Even though Qing Shui's Nine Continents Mountain might possess decent strength, it was still significantly weaker compared to the Flower Demon's attacks.

Beng-beng.....

A loud noise of collision came through. Despite being equipped with the formidable Shield Attack, the Nine Continents Mountain still got blown away. The difference in strength was simply too big. If the attack had only been two times stronger than before, the Nine Continents Mountain would still be able to withstand it. Sadly, it was around three times stronger this time. It had already done a decent job to be able to hold on after being repeatedly clashed against.

The Nine Continents Mountain had managed to deplete a significant amount of strength from the Flower Snake. Even though it might still be charging toward Qing Shui, the current Flower Snake was looking a lot weaker than before.

Nine Yang Dragon Soul Attack!

Qing Shui let out his arms and immediately, a fierce golden soul of a dragon appeared and bound the flower snake.

Hong-hong!

Qing Shui's Nine Yang Dragon Soul was able to suppress every single type of soul-based attacks. Of course, there was a limit to which it could suppress them. For example, the Nine Yang Dragon Soul was able to counter soul-based attacks up to a ratio of about 1:1.5 or even 1:2. This would depend on the realm of the Nine Yang Dragon Soul.

The Flower Snake vanished immediately. Not only did it disappear, but the Flower Demon's expression was also unsightly.

Qing Shui's current Nine Yang Dragon Soul was yet to achieve a ratio of 1:2 in countering against soul-based attacks. But it was already close to it. Even Qing Shui's current attack power was almost equal to this oppressing power against spirit bodies.

Hou-hou!

The Flower Demonic Beast suddenly attacked Qing Shui. In response to that, Qing Shui quickly summoned the Dragon Slaying Beast.

The Flower Demonic Beast wasn't a spirit body. Thus, the Dragon Slaying Beast was able to suppress its enemy without much effort. To the Flower Demon, the Flower Demonic Beast was only a means of transport or maybe even just a meat-shield. The Flower Demonic Beast might not have outstanding speed, but its defensive prowess and controlling ability was still formidable. The Flower Demonic Beast was able to reduce the speed and defensive prowess of its opponent while increasing the speed and offensive prowess of its owner and itself.

Unfortunately, it encountered Qing Shui. He was able to completely suppress his opponent's control skills with Area Dominance.

Meanwhile, Qing Shui effortlessly unleashed the Art of Pursuing and Emperors Qi. By combining them with the ability of the Area Dominance which boosted the allies strength while reducing the opponent's, the Dragon Slaying Beast was immediately able to outdo the Flower Demonic Beast. Thus, Qing Shui could leisurely continue to face the Flower Demon, as the victor had already been decided for the fight between the beasts. Just as he predicted, the Dragon Slaying Beast completely destroyed the Flower Demonic Beast. It continuously pierced through the beast's body with its horn. Holes of the size of elephants could be seen all over the enormous body. Upon hearing the miserable shrieking noises of the Flower Demonic Beast, the expression of the Flower Demon changed.

She had her sight fixed on the Dragon Slaying Beast. Her expression was as if she had seen a demon, a demon that specialized in plucking flowers.

Qing Shui didn't have the chance to try his Continuous Combo. He wasn't even sure if striking the acupoints would be effective against spirit bodies. But after seeing the eyes of the Flower Demon when staring at the Dragon Slaying Beast. He seemed to have understood something. His eyes immediately turned bright.

Chapter 2064 - Hundred Flowers Body Protection, Resonating Spiral Force

Qing Shui immediately communicated with the Dragon Slaying Beast. From talking to it, Qing Shui became greatly shocked. He asked the Dragon Slaying Beast if it was able to hurt spirit bodies, but because he was afraid that the Dragon Slaying Beast wouldn't know what he meant, he asked if it could hurt the Flower Demon instead.

The answer which he got was the golden spiral horn on its head was capable of hurting every single being. Once its sharp horn pierced through the enemy's body, a mysterious kind of energy would appear from it and engulf the entire Dragon Slaying Beast, by then, it would be as if its body were shrouded in a mysterious strength and that would enable it to hurt the Spirit Bodies.

Qing Shui was utterly shocked after hearing that. He had only thought of the sharp horn on its head as merely the sharpest part of the Dragon Slaying Beast. It was capable of piercing through everything and was even more fearsome than its teeth. But he never expected for the Golden Spiral Horn to have such a power. This was indeed incredible.

By now, Qing Shui had also understood why the Flower Demon feared the Dragon Slaying Beast so much.

Shen Huang was surprised by the violence shown by the Dragon Slaying Beast. She never expected that it would be this strong. To think that a demonic beast as small as itself would be so formidable. Speed might be a source of power, but its sharpness combined with its speed just made it all the more terrifying.

The main power of the Dragon Slaying Beast laid in its speed. As long as its speed was faster than its opponent, the enemy would be in danger. Once the enemy failed to dodge from its attack, it would be in danger of losing its life; this included beasts that were large. A good example would be the Flower Demonic Beast from before. The Dragon Slaying Beast could choose not to penetrate through its body, but instead, devastating the internal part of its body and only coming out once it crushed its brain and organs.

Hundred Flowers Body Protection!

Immediately, bright flowers could be seen floating within an area of ten meters around the Flower Demon. If one was to look carefully at the flowers, they would notice that the flower petals were rotating continuously. Its movement was so minimal that it was almost unnoticeable. Its moving speed was ten times slower than a snail. But by staying like that, these countless flowers generated their own rhythm.

“To think that you would have the Monster Beast...” The Flower Demon stared at Qing Shui and was still unable to recover from her shock.

The Monster Beast? Qing Shui was confused. It seemed that the Dragon Slaying Beast was very infamous. Regardless of what kind of demonic beasts it was, it would be fine as long as it was powerful. At the moment, Qing Shui was able to tell that the Flower Demon feared the Dragon Slaying Beast, or alternatively, the Monster Beast.

The Monster Beast was a fearsome existence in the eyes of Spirit Body animals. The infamy was due to its almost impregnable defense and formidable speed. It also specialized in sneak attacks and the moment the attack successfully landed, the victim wouldn't be able to escape death. Legend had it that external forces wouldn't be able to kill the Monster Beast; thus, it was a terrifying thing to ever be targeted by a Monster Beast.

However, the Monster Beasts were extremely rare. Basically, not one might be spotted in every one thousand years. Thus, even though all of them might fear the Monster Beast, it was still only a myth which existed in legends.

The Flower Demon was stunned, “Is the strength of a Monster Beast supposed to be that weak?”

The Flower Demon who was initially in great fear once again showed off herself. She had even begun dancing gracefully with her beautiful body. While looking at it, even Qing Shui felt that his mouth was getting dry. It seemed that it might not be so easy to break through the storm of flowers around the Flower Demon.

Qing Shui once again unleashed his Dragon-capturing Hand and immediately, a golden dragon charged towards the Flower Demon. The Dragon-capturing Hand, which had never broken its streak as an attack with 100% accuracy, had actually vanished without any noise like sinking into the vast ocean.

“Haha, don’t you think that the Flower Storm Strangling Formation was great? If you attempt to come in, you will be repelled by it, and even if you successfully make through it, it would still go on to strangle you.” The Flower Demon said in an arrogant tone.

“I can wait until you exhaust yourself. By then, that storm of flowers of yours will be gone. It’s still not too late to kill you by then.” Qing Shui looked at the storm of flowers all around him and said.

“Hahaha, I forgot to tell you one thing. Commanding these storms of flowers is like my second instinct. It’s just like my arms. I won’t be exhausted from using it. The sole reason I don’t keep it active constantly is due to the uncomfortable feeling after I have used this technique. After all, if I were to do that, everything around me would have been destroyed. But if we are engaged in a fight, I can keep it activated just fine.” The Flower Demon said it with a happy smile, showing indescribable arrogance.

Qing Shui also never expected things would turn out like this. It seemed that this Flower Demon was indeed a special being. If it was a fairy given birth by heaven and earth themselves, it would mean that this fairy was the most favored child of nature. Qing Shui was really envious of it. He had tried attacking her a few times, but he wasn’t able to destroy the Flower Storm Strangling Formation with his strength.

If he didn’t break it, the Dragon Slaying Beast wouldn’t be able to go in and pierce it with its horn. If it continued on like this, Qing Shui wouldn’t be able to do anything other than getting beaten up.

“Little darling, it’s about time I make my move. Hahaha!”

With the Flower Sword in her hand, the Flower Demon charged towards Qing Shui with her Flower Storm Strangling Formation in effect.

It was a mysterious assortment of flowers with unique power. Qing Shui had his eyes fixed on the flowers that were revolving ever so slowly. There was a kind of bizarre energy contained in each of them. Qing Shui had been looking at it for a long time. Though he might possess decent knowledge in formations, he was unable to see through any ways to destroy this particular formation.

Hong-hong!

With two slashes, the Flower Demon immediately blew Qing Shui and the Nine Continents Mountain away. However, she didn’t manage to hurt Qing Shui. At this moment, he activated the Heavenly Vision Technique.

In just a moment, the speed of the Flower Demon dropped. With that happening, Qing Shui was now able to dodge from the attacks with ease. It was a pity that he was still unable to cause any damage to the opponent’s body. But with the Heavenly Vision Technique in effect, Qing Shui suddenly was able to notice some things which he wasn’t able to see before.

All these flowers were shaking at terrifying speeds. Because they were shaking so fast, they seemed almost static. Even though one might not mean much, there were tens of thousands of them. It was precisely this kind of vibration that was unique. Furthermore, there was invisible energy that was connecting them together. By now, Qing Shui was already able to figure out what kind of energy this was. To think that these flowers would have such a terrifying function to protect the body.

It was the power of resonance! It was also a power in the shape of a spiral! The Resonating Spiral Force!
Resonating Spiral Force!

In his previous incarnation, when a few horses' stomps resonated with each other, their combined might was capable of breaking a bridge. But if they failed to resonate with each other, the bridge wouldn't break even if a thousand or even ten thousands of horses were to stomp through it. This was the power of resonance.

Each of the flowers contained mysterious powers. This power might be insignificant to people like Qing Shui individually, but there were thousands of them here.

They were still rotating slowly. Thus, not only did the Dragon Slaying Beast get repelled upon contact with it, but its total strength would also be greatly reduced by this spiraling forces. This would cause the attacks caused by the storm of flowers to be even more powerful.

No wonder it was so terrifying. If it wasn't for the Dragon Slaying Beast's formidable strength, even if he didn't die from being shot by it, he would at least suffer heavy injuries.

The Flower Demon also got very upset from the fight. How could this man possess such formidable defense? And his body motions... She was actually unable to hit him. If this kept going on, neither one of them would emerge victoriously. Thinking up to this point, she got very annoyed and angry. The moment her head became filled with anger, Qing Shui realized that the storm of flowers had actually started to become a bit unstable.

Under Qing Shui's Heavenly Vision Technique, he immediately unleashed the Nine Yang Dragon Soul.

Pa!

One particular flower had broken down into fragments.

Qing Shui's body once again got pushed back from being struck by it. But while he was getting pushed back, he tried to feel the power that was able to jolt his body. Qing Shui's eyes turned bright. His Spiritual Sense was already agile to begin with. With further assistance provided by the Heavenly Dao, he actually managed to detect the frequency of the storm of flowers.

However, he was only able to sense one of them, but this was enough.

While Qing Shui continuously tried to avoid the flowers, he would, from time to time, stomp on them. Every time he did so, a flower would break. The Flower Demon got really scared seeing that. As she became consumed by fear, the storm of flowers in the sky would start to get a bit disoriented, causing a part of them to become unstable.

Once they became unstable, the power of its frequency would drop. Qing Shui then took this opportunity to directly combat the roots of all problems. In a moment, he managed to destroy more than a hundred flowers.

The Flower Demon was slowly losing its cool. By now, she was already sunk in great fear. But right at this moment, Qing Shui's Dragon-capturing Hands penetrated through the storm of flowers in the sky and landed on the Flower Demon's face.

Pak!

Chapter 2065 - The Mutated Change of the 9th Lotus Manifestation Stage, Divine Flower Inheritance

Pa!

A loud and clear noise came through as Qing Shui slapped the Flower Demon. At this point, the Flower Demon went crazy. To think that she would get slapped by a man... The Flower Demon who originally intended to avoid him immediately charged towards him instead.

By now, the Flower Demon had already lost its calm completely from being slapped by Qing Shui. The Flower Storm Strangling Formation also followed along and became unstable. The strangling formation was initially not something which Qing Shui could break as it would require a lot of brute force. Only if he had enough strength, could he forcefully destroyed the formation.

Dragon-capturing Hands!

Qing Shui once again unleashed the Dragon-capturing Hands. Following on, he used his Gouging Strike on the Taiyang Acupoint of the Flower Demon who was temporarily stunned by him.

The Flower Demon trembled. At the moment when Qing Shui's Gouging Strike was about to hit her Taiyang Acupoint, she recovered and quickly moved her head backward. However, she still got hit in her shoulder and once again became paralyzed temporarily. At this moment, Qing Shui flicked his finger and a golden light quickly intruded the Flower Demon's body.

Tianshen Acupoint!

Tianshen Acupoint was a lethal point in the brain. As soon as it got penetrated by the Gold Needle, the Flower Demon once again lost her cool. This time, she truly went insane. Furthermore, the Gold Needle contained some of Qing Shui's Nine Yang Force. Very soon, she would experience brain death.

Qing Shui shook his head. He never liked killing a beautiful lass in such a brutal way, but the opponent wanted to kill him, let alone he also didn't really consider the Flower Demon as a human. She was just a monster that sucked on human's blood and had no regards to human's life. A beautiful monster as she was, should indeed be killed.

Not long after, the Flower Demon collapsed onto the ground. The storm of flower around her all started dropping down one by one. When Qing Shui saw that happening, he was stunned. After that, he began to think deeply when he remembered the Resonating Spiral Force between the storms of flowers as well as all the things which the Heavenly Vision Technique had seen.

Lotus flower!

Nine lotus flowers appeared around Qing Shui. There were nine of them and each of them was gold in color with the size of a washbowl. The thick and dignified golden lotus flowers were about one foot thick and seemed very heavy. At this moment, they were surrounding Qing Shui and revolving constantly. There were each three of them at the top and the bottom. Every three of them formed a triangle and surrounded Qing Shui.

Flowers were blown by the wind and ended up around Qing Shui. It settled down right beside one of the Golden Lotus Flower. The next thing that happened, they immediately turned into ashes.

Strangling force... The terrifying power generated from constant rotational force both clockwise and anti-clockwise of an object.

Moving on, Qing Shui began controlling the Lotus Flowers. They were able to fly and some of them were even spinning around the area. In the beginning, one flew out, then two, and finally, three. After that, no more lotuses flew out. By the time Qing Shui came back to his senses, he noticed Shen Huang sitting at the corner hugging her knees. She was shivering, so much that thin ice had begun forming across her body.

Qing Shui didn't have the time to celebrate his joyful moment of comprehending his newly acquired techniques. He ran to Shen Huang and embraced her. After that, he quickly activated the Nine Yang Force in his body, he said in anger, "Why didn't you call out to me? You foolish woman!"

Shen Huang bit her lips. By now, she wasn't even able to speak. She left her eyes half-opened as she laid in Qing Shui's arms. There was a faint smile on her face.

She fell asleep after a while. For a moment, Qing Shui didn't know what to do, seeing the woman sleeping soundly in his arms. Her expression looked relaxed. Her exquisite and fine face, long and thin eyelashes, they were black and curled just like a palm-leaf fan. Her beautiful face was pale and smooth like jade. Her tall nose, as well as her pastel pink lips, made her look very attractive.

She had both her arms gently put around Qing Shui; however, this was an unconscious act. After a while, Qing Shui cast his eyes down onto the woman who was still having her eyes closed. He knew that by now, she was already awake. Prior to this, she was exhausted from resisting against the coldness. At the same time, her body was also damaged from it, which was why she fell into a slumber.

Qing Shui stretched his arms out and carried her up.

"Ah!" Shen Huang cried out gently and opened her eyes. She felt very embarrassed as she never expected for herself to sleep in a man's arms. Furthermore, she was so at peace sleeping in it.

"You are awake. In the future, when you ever feel cold again, you must call out to me no matter what I am doing." Qing Shui said with a strict voice.

"Alright!" Shen Huang responded gently. She felt a sense of warmth in her heart.

The Flower Demon was dead, leaving behind an Interspatial Bracelet. It looked beautiful just like a flower. After burning the body of the Flower Demon, Qing Shui took up the beautiful Interspatial Bracelet and saw a lot of random things in it. However, there was a particular object inside the bracelet: a book that resembled a flower. It was shining brightly.

Qing Shui took it out. Usually, the things which shone brightly wouldn't be anything ordinary.

As soon as this thing was taken out, and before Qing Shui could say anything or observe it, it already flew out into Shen Huang's arms on its own.

Shen Huang was stunned. While she was still in shock, she was shrouded by a bright and dazzling light. Seeing that, Qing Shui finally understood what was going on. This was a kind of inheritance. Once the previous inheritor died, the thing would automatically become an object without an owner. So long as the time was right, it would recognize its next owner on its own.

This kind of legacy could only be passed onto a woman. Thus, Qing Shui wouldn't receive the inheritance even if he had held the Flower Book earlier. Furthermore, it automatically reached out to Shen Huang right away.

Usually, when a weapon recognized its owner on its own, for example, the phenomenon which was occurring right now, it would mean that the owner which it found was suited for the inheritance. If the compatibility wasn't high enough, it wouldn't do so unless the woman found some ways to make it recognize her as its owner.

The Flower Book recognized Shen Huang as its owner on its own. From here, it could be seen how much they were compatible with each other.

After quite a while, the Flower Book turned into an ordinary book. It looked very beautiful, but it lost the light from before. It was going to have to spend quite a while to recover its inheritance energy. But before its current owner died, it wouldn't recognize any other masters.

Shen Huang had also calmed down. Qing Shui stared blankly at the current Shen Huang. She looked even more beautiful than before. The snow-white Luan Phoenix Cloth was decorated with a few unusual and beautiful flowers on its sleeves. Unless one looked at it carefully, they wouldn't be able to notice its difference.

Like usual, she still looked so pure and holy. Only that now, she has also developed a flower-like temperament. She was radiating with more charm than ever, but at the same time, it also complemented with cold and extraordinary feeling.

Among the flowers, there were roses, Chinese Rose, Snow Lotus Flower, and even some poisonous flowers. The temperaments of each flower would also be absorbed by the inheritor. So long as they were flowers, they were bound to attract people to them even if they were flowers with thorns like the roses.

"How's it?" Seeing that Shen Huang was fine, Qing Shui smiled and asked.

"Now, I have also turned into a Flower Demon myself..."

"Nice joke, you only received an inheritance. Oh yeah, what kind of legacy is this?" Qing Shui asked, driven by curiosity.

"Divine Flower Inheritance!"

Qing Shui was stunned. He initially assumed it to be either the Flower Demon Inheritance or Flower Fairy Inheritance. He never expected for it to be the Divine Flower Inheritance. At this moment, Shen

Huang interrupted his thought, "This inheritance seems to be related to the person who inherited it. It can be known as the Flower Demon, Flower Fairy, Flower Spirit, Flower King, Flower Empress and so on."

"It seems the Divine Flower Inheritance is the best out of all of them." Qing Shui just took a wild guess.

Shen Huang was a bit embarrassed. "It's stated here that it's indeed the best."

"It looks even more dazzling than the most beautiful flower," said Qing Shui while looking at her fervently.

"Do you like it?" When Shen Huang heard what Qing Shui said, she actually spun one round on the ground and only after that did she ask Qing Shui the question.

Qing Shui's heart started racing, and he could feel his heart beating fast. Never had he ever thought that Shen Huang would act this way. The second she turned around, and the moment her delicate hair swayed around in the wind... Her perfect body figure, as well as her exquisite temperament and her profound eyes, it caused Qing Shui to feel as if his very soul had come out of his body.

He knew that he was being seduced, but yet he was unable to come back to his senses.

This was the ability of Divine Flower Inheritance. It was capable of attracting and seducing one's soul without having to show or reveal any of the user's charms. Merely a simple movement or even a casual glance would have caused the victim to lose his soul.

Chapter 2066 - Shen Huang's uncertainty

"Qing Shui!"

Looking at Qing Shui's face, Shen Huang was a bit speechless. She had no choice but to call out to him. Actually, Qing Shui wasn't really that obsessed with her. If she had been his enemy, he wouldn't be so distracted by her. It was because he knew that she was Shen Huang that he willingly made himself distracted by her beauty. He wanted to test how it felt to lose himself.

Besides, he also gained something from having this kind of feeling. It was greatly beneficial for his heart that it could experience this kind of changes. Furthermore, he had a strong self-control to begin with. The heart was also trying out new things as one meticulously enjoyed the irresistible charm. This was similar to the drug-resistance in his previous incarnation. It was like having a fever: certain people could recover by only taking two medications; some people couldn't recover with medications and would have to take injections; in the worst case scenario, some might not even recover from that but have to be hospitalized instead.

Qing Shui came back to his senses and said, "Congratulations!"

"There is nothing to congratulate me on. I can't even take it with me when I die," Shen Huang shook her head and said.

"I won't let you die. If we really fail to find the Blaze Moth, I will..."

"Stop! You bastard." Shen Huang quickly interrupted Qing Shui and even quickly let out her hand to cover his mouth.

A faint fragrance and a unique sensation went into Qing Shui's nose and mouth. He couldn't stop himself from landing a kiss on her soft palm. Upon feeling the ticklish sensation, Shen Huang got so shocked that she pulled her hand back like a frightened little rabbit. She shot a glare at Qing Shui. In her clear and pure eyes, there was a kind of charm that was never-before-seen. That was a kind of gracefulness which she attained automatically along with the inheritance, simple yet elegant.

"Alright, alright, I'll stop talking about it. Just remember that when the time comes and we are left with no other choice, I will..."

"You..."

Qing Shui chuckled and grabbed her hand as they rode on Little Rin once again, flying deeper into the Sea Ocean.

Qing Shui was grabbing Shen Huang's hand and by doing so, he could delay the time when the coldness broke out again. After so many days of holding her hand and hugging her, Qing Shui was already used to it. They were sitting shoulder to shoulder on the back of Little Rin. Shen Huang's fine black hair touched Qing Shui's face, causing him to feel a bit itchy, yet he didn't know how he should describe it.

Them encountering the Flower Demon this time was an accident. After all, the Flower Demon should only be found in the deeper parts of the Flower Ocean. It was also unfortunate of her to run into someone like Qing Shui. Otherwise, a lot of people would have died in the hands of the Flower Demon.

He had managed to gain a lot of benefits from this encounter. Shen Huang received the Divine Flower Inheritance which caused her strength to increase by multiple times. Qing Shui's 9th Lotus Manifestation Stage once again went through a mutated change under the influence of the flower storms. By now, his 9th Lotus Manifestation Stage also possessed decent strength. It was able to both attack and defend with a terrifying strangling force.

Qing Shui also summoned the Dragon Slaying Beast, since it was capable of one important thing: treasure-hunting. Thus, along the way, even though they were flying at a high speed, whenever there were formidable treasures, the Dragon Slaying Beast would be able to track them down.

One of the most important reasons why a treasure could be considered one was because of its rarity. It was not something which could be found everywhere. Thus, even though they only managed to find a small number of treasures along the way, Qing Shui wasn't really upset about it. He also didn't purposely try to search for them. This might have caused him to overlook the chances of finding treasures, but the main purpose of his visit this time was to hunt the Blaze Moth.

"Eldest Mistress, do you have any dreams or wishes?" By now, Qing Shui had also become familiar with Shen Huang, even though he wasn't really sure how he could describe the relationships between them.

"Little brat, I know what you are thinking. Are you trying to get me to tell you my secret?" Shen Huang put on a slight smile and looked at Qing Shui.

"What do you mean 'little brat'? You should know better than anyone else that it's not small and it can't be any bigger." Qing Shui was having a serious face while saying that.

If Shen Huang was unable to read Qing Shui's mind, she wouldn't have understood what he meant. But unfortunately, she was able to interpret his words even if she didn't want to. The worst thing was that this brat acted all serious as he was saying it. Besides, she grabbed it herself... He never forced her to do so.

"Are you mad? I am sorry, can you please forgive me once?" Qing Shui noticed that Shen Huang stopped talking.

Qing Shui was the only person who would have the guts to say such vulgar things in front of her. It was weird that she didn't seem to be angry at all. If he were to say that thing in the past, the consequences would have been unimaginable. Could it be that she had degraded herself?

...

"I was just trying to make you happy. What I just said may sound vulgar, but back in where I live, we have a saying: 'Women are attracted to bad boys'. It's always been emphasized that women tend to find jerks more appealing. I am actually an honest man; you don't know how much courage I have to summon up just to say that. What I said just now doesn't reflect how I actually am." Qing Shui apologized sincerely.

"What nonsense are you saying. Only people who like each other are allowed to..." When Shen Huang spoke up to this point, she noticed that her tongue might have slipped. She didn't know why she would say something like that.

Qing Shui chuckled, "That's true. When people who have affections for each other talk about this, it is happiness. But if these things were to come out of the mouth of someone whom you don't have feelings for, it will be no different from listening to immoral drivel."

"I am not mad. I just don't know how I should respond to what you say. If that's the case, will you feel that I am not a serious woman?" Shen Huang said and shook her head.

"How are you not serious? You are a virgin."

Seeing Shen Huang's murderous eyes, Qing Shui knew it was time to end this topic. He then looked up into the sky and added, "What a good night scene."

At the moment he finished speaking, he moved on to look at the beautiful sphere-like object in the sky, "The moon today looks a bit brighter!"

Pu-chi!

Shen Huang smiled, even though it was only for a moment. She then slowly entered his embrace and said, "I am feeling a bit tired, let me rest for a while."

Qing Shui moved his hands and let her lay down on the crook of his arms so that she would feel more comfortable. Deep down, he was very happy. Even though what he said just now might sound unreasonable, it still ended up having quite a huge impact. Otherwise, she wouldn't have leaned onto him no matter how tired she felt.

Qing Shui was immersed in her look when she smiled before. Even though her smile might not look as cheerful as the Flower Demon's, it was a lot more beautiful and bewitching than hers. That was a kind of amazement he felt deep from within his heart. He didn't know how to describe it. His heart was stirred up at the moment when he witnessed that, yet he failed to come up with any dirty thoughts of her. He only found her to be really gorgeous, beautiful enough to stun anyone present.

When Shen Huang saw Qing Shui's distracted look, she extended her hand and pinched his waist, "Stop looking!"

Qing Shui nodded like an old man who was calm and didn't have any worldly passions. He thought about a lot of things. And he wouldn't be persistent with chasing after her, nor would he avoid it. To the current Qing Shui, having a woman like her was only a kind of luxury. He should consider himself lucky to be able to experience things like this with her. If he were still single, he would have thrown away everything just to win her heart over.

Even though he might have more than one woman now, he no longer found it as unfair as he did before. Love itself was already unfair to begin with. Even though he might have come to accept this, he would still remind himself to not emphasize too much on these things.

Qing Shui shut his eyes while pondering over all of these. Shen Huang, on the other hand, had her eyes opened looking at the man who was within arms reach. As time passed, she felt that she had begun getting gradually closer to him. Not only physically, but also spiritually and mentally.

She knew that Qing Shui was already married and had his own children. He was married not only to one, but multiple wives and some of them were almost equal to her in terms of looks. She didn't know what she should do. Even though she didn't like this man, or rather, she wasn't sure if that was still the case at this point.

Seeing that she was able to lay in his arms so comfortably, if she didn't like him, would she have allowed herself to do that?

She only had a few days more to live. Back then, her life had been saved by this man, and until now, he was still the person keeping her alive. If, in the end, he really ended up using that kind of method to save her as a last resort, what should she do?

Chapter 2067 - Has She Finally Released Herself? Pamper

She only had a few more days to live. Back then, her life was saved by this man, and until now, he was the person keeping her alive. If, in the end, he really ended up using that kind of method to save her as a last resort, what should she do?

Whenever she started thinking about this, she would blush and her heart would start racing.

Qing Shui was confused when he saw the fluctuation in Shen Huang's emotions. He opened his eyes and questioned Shen Huang, "What's wrong? Are you feeling uncomfortable?"

As he was speaking, he quickly embraced her, but then he noticed that her body wasn't cold and thus, he moved on to feel her pulse instead.

Seeing Qing Shui's concerned look, Shen Huang felt a sense of warmth in her heart. It felt good to have a man who cared for her and was willing to protect her. She smiled gently to reply, "I am fine. Do you really like using that kind of method to save me?"

Qing Shui's hands shook. He looked at the beautiful and alluring woman, and immediately let his hand go and put it on her beautiful forehead, "No, you are perfectly fine!"

"Die!" Shen Huang instinctively pushed Qing Shui's chest away.

From this push, Qing Shui could already tell that she was fine. He was just joking and thus, he went with the flow and dropped down. Shen Huang also never expected him to do so and fell along with him. With that happening, Shen Huang was now on top of Qing Shui. Most importantly, her mouth happened to have landed right on Qing Shui's lips.

Quiet, the entire place became dead silent.

How could a man possibly endure this kind of stimulation? Qing Shui immediately embraced Shen Huang's slender waist, but he stopped moving after that. It was due to the myriad of thoughts that crossed his mind in that instant.

Initially, Shen Huang had wanted to stand up and leave, but, as if the demons and gods were at work, she suddenly remembered that she had not much longer to live and she didn't leave anything behind in her lifetime. She had never liked a man, given birth to any children; she hadn't even held a man's hand before, let alone kiss one...

Thus, she didn't move. Maybe he was the man whom gods had bestowed her before dying. At least this way, she would be able to experience the love a woman could have. Thinking about this, she blushed once again and slowly shut her eyes.

Qing Shui was dumbfounded. He knew what it meant for this woman to shut her eyes at a time like this.

He was gently sucking on the lips that looked like flower petals. The refreshing and mild sensation helped Qing Shui's mind to become clear like never before. While in his arms, the woman continuously twisted her body, her heart racing along with it. This was her first time having such close interactions with a man.

Qing Shui gently moved his hands on her back, letting her heart to rest down a little. The technique, which he was using to do that, was precisely the Soul Charming Soft-Tendon Hand Technique. What Qing Shui never expected was for this woman to be so sensitive. It had only been a moment since Qing Shui sucked on her pastel pink lips and immediately, he could already feel her unsettling breaths from her nose. Her body was also trembling faster and faster and eventually, her body twisted slightly and she moved on to hug Qing Shui tightly.

At the moment, Shen Huang was laying down in Qing Shui's arms like water. Even though the unsettling breath and beautiful moans from before sounded soft, they were made just right beside Qing Shui's ear. Qing Shui had a feeling that he was in a dream, whereas Shen Huang felt as if she were stuck in the mists of clouds.

Shen Huang didn't dare lift up her head. She stayed in Qing Shui's arms and refused to stand up. She had never felt this kind of things before. Could it be something which she would only feel by staying together with a man?

By now, Qing Shui didn't know how he should express himself. This woman was already satisfied merely with Qing Shui touching her well-rounded buttocks and unleashing his Soul Charming Hands twice. It seemed that she might be too sensitive.

"Eldest Mistress!" Qing Shui patted her back.

"Hm!" Shen Huang made a soft noise with her nose.

"It seems that you may be feeling shy. Here, let me take a look at how our Eldest Mistress is right now," said Qing Shui, having a gentle smile on his face.

"No!" Shen Huang grunted with a soft cold voice.

Qing Shui had a way. For the time being, the woman was on top of him. Thus, he immediately rotated around and became the one pressing on her instead. Shen Huang was shocked. Looking at the beautiful face which might potentially lead to a country's destruction, Qing Shui noticed that she had had her eyes closed. Despite that, Qing Shui still felt like he had difficulties in trying to control his desires.

Pure and clean, but yet alluring. Qing Shui was unable to resist her beautiful face and gracefulness. Even when she was laying down on the ground, her well-rounded breasts still looked firm and upright as usual. When Qing Shui was pressing on her body, he could feel the shockingly spongy sensations from them very clearly. He was unable to describe how stirred up his heart was at that moment.

Shen Huang slightly opened her eyes. She had never thought that there would come a day when someone would press on her like that, nor had she ever thought that a man would touch her body up to this extent. Nevertheless, it was a beautiful phenomenon. Her only problem now was that she was feeling uncomfortable in her clothes.

"Qing Shui, let me go and change into a new set of clothes." Shen Huang said in a shy tone.

Qing Shui grinned like a perverted old man as he thought about it, "Can you please tell me how you felt before? If not, I won't get up."

"Qing Shui, don't be like this, it's too soon..." Shen Huang's voice became even softer now.

Qing Shui came down from atop of her body and supported her up so she could sit up straight, "Go, leave this place under my supervision."

"Alright!"

By the time Shen Huang came back out again, she was already recovered, so much so that Qing Shui began suspecting if the woman with a sweet and delicate voice, the woman, who was continuously contorting her body in his arms, was her.

She was smiling sweetly at Qing Shui and said, "What's wrong?"

Qing Shui smiled. He knew that Shen Huang wasn't able to accept these sudden yet intimate actions. Before this, he even nodded his head. But with things taking such a turn, Qing Shui, too, didn't know how he should continue this relationship. His mindset remained the same, he wouldn't be persistent with it, nor would he avoid it. So long as a person lived in this world, they mustn't do things which they would regret about later on in life.

“Let’s go to the front and eat something before we continue through our journey.” Qing Shui extended his hand to Shen Huang.

Shen Huang calmly reached out to him. They held hands as they made their way forward. Walking in a world of flowers was also an enjoyable thing to do.

“Qing Shui, knowing about my stuff now won’t do you any good. When the time comes, I will tell you naturally. If in the worst case scenario, I am really unable to escape from this calamity, it will be better off if you never find out about it. By then, there would have been no point in you knowing about it either.” Shen Huang whispered to Qing Shui in her soft voice.

“Don’t worry about it. You can believe me when I say that you won’t die.” Qing Shui also responded in a soft voice.

He might be a miraculous physician, but it would still be impossible for him to cure everything. There was a point when he used to think that he could treat all diseases and neutralize all kinds of poisons. But as if something so bizarre could possibly happen in this world, the viruses in Shen Huang’s body were already a good example of a disease which he couldn’t heal even with his current strength and Divine Force. If he had been a bit stronger, it may have been possible that he wouldn’t have needed the Blaze Moth.

“I sure hope so!”

“What plans do you have? Would you like to discuss them with me?” Shen Huang asked in a curious tone, looking at Qing Shui gently.

Qing Shui was surprised to hear that. The Shen Huang whom he knew would never try to get information about someone like this. It seemed that now, he had earned himself quite a decent position in her heart.

“Actually, I don’t really have a specific goal. I never thought about conquering the entire World of the Nine Continents, nor have I desired to establish a huge sect strong enough to control billions of people. My only wish is to stay by my family’s side. However, some of my wives still have things which they need to settle; thus, I need to help them. Also, those things aren’t things which can be done so easily. Even if I am the Golden Battle God Inheritor, many things are beyond my control. In fact, I am even starting to feel that I am no longer in command of myself.” Qing Shui looked emotional while explaining about some of his dilemmas.

“Isn’t that how humans are supposed to be? Some people live on for the mission they are given, while some live just for the purpose of vengeance. It’s precisely because of this that people start losing sight when they have completed their tasks successfully, avenging the people whom they cared about. They would soon begin to lose direction, not knowing how to live the rest of their lives.” Shen Huang looked like she was deep in thoughts as she was saying it.

Between those two options, Qing Shui wasn’t sure what Shen Huang’s current purpose for living was. Could it be that she had completed her mission or her desire for vengeance had disappeared?

Chapter 2068 - Immortal Peach Tree, Rainbow Snake, She Was Bitten in the Rear

Yet another three days passed. Qing Shui and Shen Huang once again advanced further. By now, they were already deep within the Flower Ocean. Along the way, they had killed a few powerful beasts and had even encountered a small swarm of human-killing bees. Even though it was described as a small swarm, there were still about 200 of them.

Qing Shui had immediately gone past them with his Nine Continents Boots. He was reminded of the killer bees covering up the entire sky and their venom, raining down like storms. If he were to come in contact with it, the consequences would definitely be unimaginable.

The deeper they traveled into the flower ocean, the higher the temperature got. Meanwhile, the flowers also looked brighter and brighter as they progressed through the ocean. The flowers at this point were already as bright as fire. Under normal circumstances, Shen Huang should only have a week left to live. Qing Shui was really anxious. Even he wasn't sure if they would run into the Blaze Moth. The chances of encountering one were too small.

Qing Shui knitted his brows. Even at times when he was facing off against formidable opponents, at least the goal was made clear in front of him. But now, he was feeling a bit helpless. He was reluctant to see the woman disappearing in front of him. Even the last resort, his own Nine Yang Golden Body, might not necessarily be able to save her. He felt that it should be able to carry out the job, but he couldn't guarantee it. If by that time, he still failed to save her, he would only end up even more depressed than he already was.

Shen Huang's body was already in a very weak state. In fact, this had already been the case since the time when they had celebrated New Year. By now, she was no longer able to unleash even 40% of her strength. Seeing Qing Shui knitting his brows, she had finally released herself. It was as though she were accepting reality and treating now as enjoying the final stage of her life.

"What a beautiful tree!" Shen Huang pointed at a tree far away and said to Qing Shui.

Qing Shui was stunned upon seeing it. Wasn't that the legendary Wishing Tree?

The Wishing Tree was an unusual tree, fiery-red in color. However, it didn't look as lively as it should. The tree wasn't really that tall, yet it possessed a formidable vitality. It tended to grow out with a kind of heart-shaped fruit. The fruit, which grew from it, would come to be known as the Wishing Fruit. The reason why the Wishing Tree got its name was precisely thanks to the Wishing Fruit.

According to legend, the Wishing Tree contained a kind of mysterious energy. When a person ate the fruit and made a wish, it would come true immediately. However, from Qing Shui's perspective, this sounded a bit absurd. However, this was still his first time encountering a Wishing Tree. Furthermore, there were about 10 ripened Wishing Fruits grown on it.

They were red fruits shaped like a heart. They were giving out abundant fragrance which could cause people to drool just by looking at them. Qing Shui immediately probed it with his Heavenly Vision Technique.

Immortal Peach Tree!

Qing Shui was stunned. At that moment, he felt a strong urge to cuss. It was not a Wishing Tree! It's just a plain, peach tree. But moving on, Qing Shui once again revealed a surprised look. It was due to the word "Immortal" which was added to it.

Qing Shui quickly observed the fruits on the Immortal Peach Tree.

Immortal Peach!

The mysterious Immortal Peach Tree had existed for 30,000 years. It was stored with abundant Spiritual Qi and could help stabilize one's foundation and raise strength, innate talents as well as potential by 10%. Other than that, it also cleansed one's meridians and bones of their poisons. Each year, the fruit could only be eaten once, and a person could only take up to a maximum of five fruits throughout a lifetime. After consuming the fifth one, the fruit would only be left with the function of curing poisons or could only be treated as a delicacy.

Qing Shui had an Immortal Peach Tree back in the realm, but it was totally different from this one. The Immortal Peach Tree in the realm only had the function of increasing one's lifespan. Each person was only allowed to take in one which could increase a lifespan by 50 years. That was about it, but despite that, its value was still worth multiple cities.

By now, Qing Shui's attention was only on the function to cure poisons. He totally neglected the other ones as he looked at Shen Huang in joy, "We might have found an antidote for your poison."

"Are you talking about the Wishing Tree?" Shen Huang was aware that this was a Wishing Tree. This was how all the Wishing Trees looked across the continents. However, no one had yet to test anything from it.

"That's it. Here, let's make a wish under the tree. For all you know, it may really come true." Qing Shui was smiling widely at this point.

Shen Huang might be a woman, but she was totally unconvinced by this kind of things. Nevertheless, she still smiled and nodded. She then moved her sight onto the Wishing Tree and shut her eyes.

"Qing Shui, what wish did you make?" Shen Huang asked at the moment when the both of them finished making their wishes.

"This is a secret. It may lose its effect if I say it."

Actually, he had forgotten that Shen Huang could sense it. Even though what he was thinking wasn't dangerous to Shen Huang, it was still closely related to her, which was why she was able to sense it. Deep down, she felt very inconsolable, but at the same time, she was also very happy and had a feeling which words couldn't describe.

'In the vast sea of humanity, we must have been guided by destiny, for us to be able to meet. She is a beautiful and gifted woman, but maybe because God has started becoming envious of her beauty; it decided to take away her life at such a young age. I like her, no, I love her. I don't know why, maybe it's because she is beautiful... Actually, a beautiful look can be used as an excuse to explain why one likes a certain person. But this isn't me being cheap, I really hope that she can recover from her poison and stay happy for the rest of her life. I know that there are things which she still needs to do, and thus, I hope that I can share half of my life with her.'

Qing Shui was saying all of that in his heart. At this moment, he wasn't trying to act biased, but instead, he really meant what he said. Even after sharing half of his lifespan with her, he would still have many years left to live. Thus, if he could really do that, he would be more than willing to do so.

He was sincerely making his wish in his heart, but he forgot that Shen Huang was able to feel it.

Shen Huang was able to sense the sincerity which came from deep within the man's heart. She never expected that the man would be willing to share half of his life with her. The most precious thing to a warrior was his lifespan. No matter how close they had been, even in the case of husbands and wives, it would be impossible for them to be willing to share half of their lifespans with each other. After all, humans were selfish beings.

Shen Huang was feeling very emotional. At this moment, she had neglected everything around her and had her eyes only on Qing Shui. She forgot about the fact that he had wives, children, and all his other weak points.

If Qing Shui had known that Shen Huang would know what he was thinking, how would he have felt? Maybe he would have chosen to make a simpler wish instead, for example, hoping that she could become healthy again.

Furthermore, because Qing Shui had his clan members and wives, it would be normal if he made other wishes, for example, letting his clan prosper and become stronger.

"Let's go and eat the peaches. These things should taste really delicious. For all you know, you may recover from your poison right after you eat them." Qing Shui held Shen Huang's hand as they approached the Immortal Peach Tree.

Shen Huang followed him. The smile on her face looked very casual and relaxed. It was a smile which came from deep within her heart, an honest smile.

But at the moment when they were getting near the tree, Qing Shui's expression changed. He clenched his teeth and immediately leaped toward Shen Huang. Despite that, Shen Huang who was in his arms still trembled. As that happened, Qing Shui knew that things had just turned for the worse. At that instant, Qing Shui noticed a Rainbow Snake.

The rainbow color across its body looked very bright. This was a deadly snake. Even though it might have the thickness of only a little finger and was about four feet long, it possessed a fast speed. This kind of poisonous snake was fatal to one's life.

"Which part of you was bitten?" Qing Shui asked anxiously.

Qing Shui quickly poked on a few of her Acupoints to significantly slow down the speed at which her blood was circulating around her body. Suddenly, Qing Shui saw the Rainbow Snake still on top of Shen Huang. Furthermore, the part which it bit on just happened to be on her well-rounded buttocks. Qing Shui was stunned. He quickly extended his hand and secretly unleashed his Dragon-capturing Hands to capture and strangle its weakest spot.

Initially, he intended to strangle it to death. But as he thought more carefully about it, he immediately took out the Demon Refining Furnace and pinned it down.

By now, Shen Huang was already starting to lose her consciousness. What a poisonous snake! Even the current Qing Shui had yet to come across a poison like this. As he looked at Shen Huang's expression, he knew that he couldn't delay it any longer and quickly carried her up and put her on a couch which he just took out from the realm.

Chapter 2069 - Level Rise in the Heavenly Dao Realm, Divine Rainbow Dragon

Time was of the essence. Qing Shui grabbed the clothing near her waist and ripped it directly.

However, it would seem that Qing Shui had torn her clothes a little too far. Her snowy white skin was clearly exposed to Qing Shui's eyes. Qing Shui tried his best to calm himself down, but his lips trembled a little. Qing Shui could see the small bite mark on her buttocks. It was pink and had a strange scent, causing Qing Shui to quickly hold his breath.

Qing Shui did not have time to waste. He directly sucked on the wound and then quickly spat out the poison. He lowered his head. The blood that was spat out was pink in color. Qing Shui did not have time to think nor did he have time to feel anything through his lips. It was unclear when he went numb.

After a while, Shen Huang woke up. She raised her head slightly to look at Qing Shui.

All of a sudden, her face blushed red like fire. She managed to hold her voice, but her body was shaking uncontrollably. Having a man suck on her buttocks, her heart was in a complete mess. Though her body was chilled to the bone, her face was scorching like the sun.

Raising his head, Qing Shui met Shen Huang's line of sight. He lowered his head once again and continued sucking the poison out of her body. He was almost done and Shen Huang hurriedly avoided Qing Shui's eyes. She burrowed herself like a snail in Qing Shui's embrace.

"I'm sorry for ripping your clothes." Qing Shui said with embarrassment while wiping his lips.

Shen Huang's body was shaking as she said, "You have already saved me countless times."

"It's fine now. Go change. I will wait for you. Afterward, I will clear the poison from your body." Qing Shui said as he patted her small back.

"You don't have to make it sound like that..." Shen Huang raised her head and said stubbornly.

Qing Shui did not know what to feel in his mind. He nodded and said, "My medical knowledge and the fruit will take care of it."

Shen Huang saw Qing Shui's hesitation. A sudden rush of feeling surfaced and she blurted out, "Actually, I have always liked you, but..."

Qing Shui was surprised by Shen Huang's words. He took a long hard look at her. Once he considered his actions that were the same as initiating a kiss on her, it all became clear. Had she not liked him, why would she allow him to touch her? Had it been anyone else, they would not even be able to touch her hand.

Qing Shui felt that he was quite dense sometimes. It was such a simple problem, yet the real reason that Qing Shui was uncertain was due to Shen Huang being such a fine woman. Qing Shui thought that he was unfit for Shen Huang, especially given that he already had so many women. A woman of her quality should receive a complete and fulfilled love.

That was the reason why Qing Shui had been hesitant about pursuing her. Taking advantage of her was due to many uncertain reasons, but now he understood. He embraced her tightly without forcing her nor avoiding her. Life is too short for regrets and unpleasant experiences.

Qing Shui suddenly felt relief in his heart, his vision became clearer than before. An unclear power filled his body. It was as if he had regained the vigor of a growing child.

His realm increased. His Heavenly Dao Level increased.

This was Secular Practice?!

The Qi within Qing Shui's body flowed like a raging river. His bone structure also experienced a major change. His strength was raised drastically, similar to that of refinement. This happened as a result of an increase in his Heavenly Dao Realm. It was just like steam condensing into water, a change so fine it was hard to explain.

Qing Shui felt as though he had been bathing in the sun, with his body radiated with warmth and an unspeakable comfort. This type of enlightenment was more valuable than any type of epiphany; it was similar to the epiphany of enlightenment into a Buddha.

Shen Huang had finished changing her clothes. Though she was wearing the same style of phoenix dress, her face was still blushing. Her heart was thumping controllably. Every time she glanced toward Qing Shui, the imagery of Qing Shui sucking on her buttock would surface in her mind, causing her heart rate to accelerate. Her clothing had been torn and everything had been exposed.

Had Qing Shui known what Shen Huang was thinking, he would have proclaimed his innocence. He had not acted with these indecent thoughts within his mind. Shen Huang's legs were close together. There was not even a ray of light passing through. Qing Shui had really not seen anything, nor had he purposely been looking for anything.

Qing Shui suddenly thought of the Rainbow Snake.

"Mistress, we should look at the snake." Qing Shui told Shen Huang as he pulled her toward the direction of the Refining Furnace.

With the Refining Furnace holding it back, the snake naturally could not escape. Moreover, Qing Shui had already injured it when he was grabbing it before, though he did not kill it. The reason he kept it alive was that he knew the snake was a young snake.

When Qing Shui opened the Refining Furnace, the snake within did not resist. Qing Shui looked at Shen Huang whose face had a weird expression. Suddenly, she reached her hand in and retrieved a beautiful four-inch snake.

Qing Shui had wanted to stop her but decided to not say anything. He simply watched from the side as the small snake gently wrapped itself around Shen Huang's arm. It was absurdly gentle, appearing as though it was a rainbow pattern on her arm.

It recognized its owner!

Qing Shui finally understood. He was looking at the Rainbow Snake, using the Heavenly Vision Technique. The little fellow's name was Rainbow Divine Python, but its description had the word 'young' in it. He also found out that the beast would naturally recognize an owner. The way to recognize its owner was to bite them once. The person bitten would not die. However, they would experience hallucination or dizziness. Most would wake within two hours...

Qing Shui did not know what to say. He had unknowingly gained the benefit of kissing her buttocks, thinking it was necessary.

"Not bad. With this little fellow, your strength would increase tremendously later. Even though this little fellow is small, it is still quite powerful. In the future, it will be formidable." Qing Shui said with joy.

"It's unfortunate that it is so small. I don't know how long it would take for it to mature, but I could raise it as a pet for now." Shen Huang said with a smile.

"I have some medicine that could help the snake grow." Qing Shui passed some medicine and medicinal fruits to Shen Huang.

"This won't kill it, right?" Shen Huang asked.

"I must kill the darn thing. It was lewder than me, kissing you in that place." Qing Shui said angrily.

"You scum." Shen Huang exclaimed in embarrassment while the image of Qing Shui sucking on her resurfaced.

"Anyway, let the snake eat. Not only will it heal the snake but it should also help the snake mature faster. Moreover, It might increase the snake's strength by quite a bit." Qing Shui said while going toward the Peach of Immortality tree.

He picked the ripe fruits and then transplanted the entire Peach of Immortality tree into the Realm of Violet Jade Immortal.

He obtained 50 Peaches of Immortality and returned.

The Rainbow Snake ate quite a bit of medication, including the Ancient Demonic Fruit and the Fortune Golden Pellet. It had grown to the thickness of a human wrist and a length of a dozen meters. What had surprised Qing Shui the most was that it grew horns on its head. The head was that of a beautiful dragon.

Divine Rainbow Dragon?

Qing Shui was shocked. Was it really the Divine Rainbow Dragon? It clearly had been a Rainbow Snake. Was this a mutation?

It was small in size, but still bigger than what it had been. It was emitting a suppressive aura similar to that of the Dragon Slaying Beast. It was not from the strength in its body, but a horrifying aura. It was flying around Shen Huang's body without rest.

Shen Huang was extremely happy seeing the radiance from the Divine Rainbow Dragon. After all, having such a beautiful and formidable beast was something to celebrate. Seeing the small fellow would bring joys to others too.

“Qing Shui, this little fellow is the Divine Rainbow Dragon.”

Shen Huang’s words had cleared away Qing Shui’s doubt. Qing Shui used the Heavenly Vision Technique again and saw that it had transformed to a Divine Rainbow Dragon. The description said that it was still not mature.

Chapter 2070 - Poison Cured, Members of the Fire Manor are Coming

Divine Rainbow Dragon!

It was an existence that was above the dragon race. This woman was blessed by the Heavens. Qing Shui threw five Peaches of Immortality toward the Divine Rainbow Dragon. The small dragon easily ate the peaches mid-air and flew off into the distance.

The dragon needed time to digest. The peaches were the best items to consume to increase the dragon’s talent and foundation. Legend had it that the Divine Rainbow Dragon was nurtured by Heaven and Earth. Unlike the inheritance from the dragon race, which had developed from one generation to the next, a real Divine Rainbow Dragon was nurtured by Heaven and Earth. Any area that nurtured a Divine Rainbow Dragon was bound to contain treasures.

The Peach of Immortality tree must be the treasure of the area that was nurturing the Divine Rainbow Dragon. This Peach of Immortality tree seemed to be something special.

With the Peaches of Immortality and his previous action of saving Shen Huang, Qing Shui was already certain he would succeed. He had not thought that his realm and Heavenly Dao would suddenly have a breakthrough. Even without the Peach of Immortality, he felt that it was worth a try. The chance of success was high.

Qing Shui observed his surroundings and cleared the ground of its greenery. He set up a Maze Formation and released Dragon Spiderlings, the Dragon Slaying Beast, and the Kirin. Even without the Maze Formation, they were fairly safe with his beasts protecting them. However, he did not want any potential problems to arise.

“Come, we should all eat five each. First, let’s eat these medicine pellets.” Qing Shui retrieved the Quintuple Portion Medicine, as it would take five years to eat the five fruits otherwise. Consuming the Quintuple Portion Medicine should reduce the five-years time constraint. Whether they can eat another one after one year was unknown.

Shen Huang did not hesitate. She swallowed the Quintuple Portion Medicine and began eating the Peach of Immortality.

Cultivators could gain the ability to forgo eating for a very long time. At the same time, they could also eat a lot all at once. Eating five peaches was an easy task for cultivators like them.

The fruit melted in their mouths, the warm sensation flowing through their body. Shen Huang could feel the warmth concentrating near the Ice Poison and suddenly mixed itself with the Ice Poison. Her face became pale as the Ice Poison began devouring the energy from the fruit.

At this rate, the Ice Poison would only get stronger.

Upon noticing this, Qing Shui reached out his hand and used his finger to point at where the poison had gathered. An unusual energy rushed into Shen Huang's body, dispersing the Ice Poison. The Peach of Immortality's purifying energy gathered once again; this time at larger volumes and mingled with the Ice Poison.

The Ice Poison had condensed yet again. Thus, Qing Shui took out the Gold Needle and placed three acupuncture needles down. It was as though he drew a border which prevented the Ice Poison from condensing. Naturally, the poison was weakened and the purifying energy grew stronger. The purifying energy mingled with a small piece of the Ice Poison.

Qing Shui regularly reached his hand out to pass his energy toward the poisonous area. Receiving both Nature Energy and Force of Rebirth together had left the Ice Poison in a critical state. The purifying detox energy became stronger while continually neutralizing the Ice Poison.

Time passed slowly as the Ice Poison was neutralized by the purifying detox energy with Qing Shui using acupuncture to speed up the process. With the Immortal Peach as the foundation for strengthening the body and flushing the meridians, the energy from the Ice Poison would soon be completely neutralized.

It took three days before the Ice Poison within Shen Huang's body was completely removed. Qing Shui breathed a sigh of relief as he slowly retrieved the Golden Needles. Heaven was looking out for him and her. There was no longer a need to search for the Blaze Moth.

There were also good outcomes as a result of their unfortunate situation. Both their strengths had increased and Shen Huang had managed to tame a Divine Rainbow Dragon.

What Shen Huang thought about Qing Shui was unknown to him. He was uncertain whether she would become his woman or remain his confidante.

Although Qing Shui had spent three days neutralizing the poison, he was still energetic. Shen Huang was feeling the same with her strength fully recovered and even increased. She had finally walked away from death's door with Qing Shui's help.

"We no longer need to find the Blaze Moth." Qing Shui said with relief.

"You've saved me once again. How should I repay you?" Shen Huang said with a faint smile as she stood in front of Qing Shui. She carried the glow of an otherworldly beauty. Her mesmerizing aura was stronger than ever before.

As though entranced in the beauty of a starry night, with an air about her that made men avert their eyes, Shen Huang was quietly looking at Qing Shui. It made Qing Shui feel as though he was unworthy of standing before her. Even with the increase of his state of mind, he could not shake off this feeling entirely.

"Repay me with the rest of your life. In this life, our fates will forever be intertwined. Never leave my side."

"Even if you didn't want anything to do with me, I would have agreed to it. You saved me, but you also took some important things from me." Shen Huang said with a light laugh.

Qing Shui raised his hand and broke the formation. He then reached his hand and embraced Shen Huang
“This area is pretty nice. Why don’t we take a look around before heading back?”

Before Shen Huang could provide Qing Shui with an answer, several large flying beasts could be seen from the distance. Shen Huang then looked at Qing Shui and slightly laughed, “Looks like trouble is coming. I guess this is not the time.”

“Members of the Fire Manor.” Though the unexpected guests were still quite far away, Qing Shui could identify them from the emblem on their clothing. He didn’t think that they would chase them to this point. It would seem that the Fire Manor was determined. Qing Shui was in a good mood. He did not mind welcoming his guests with his fists. Given Shen Huang’s situation, he did not want to spend too much time with them.

“While the members of the Fire Manor are savage, they are irrefutably strong. They are regarded as the top five powers within the Blazing Fire Land, just not the strongest.” Shen Huang explained as she watched the people of Fire Manor approach.

“Then, does that mean you know which power is the strongest existence in Blazing Fire Land?” Qing Shui asked with curiosity.

“The strongest in the Blazing Fire Land is the Blazing Fire Clan, the Blazing Fire Immortal Palace.”

As Shen Huang was speaking, the members of the Fire Manor closed in. A familiar voice could be heard stating, “It’s the brat! I want him to die a horrible death.”

Huo Lei’s voice was filled with anger. To be dishonored and threatened in front of someone’s house, this was indignity that could not be swallowed. Indignation to him was the equivalent of indignation to the entire Fire Manor. There was no one in this area that was willing to step on the tiger’s tail.

Qing Shui could see close to ten people. He could only recognize one of them being Huo Lei. The rest were probably important members of the Fire Manor. Several of them were middle-aged men while two of them were younger in comparison.

“I say, Seventh Brother. You turn a deaf ear every time I tell you to cultivate properly. However, I do have to admit. This woman is certainly beautiful and alluring,” The one that spoke was a handsome man who looked mature and young at the same time.

“Third Brother, you have to help me. I will not allow this indignity. You can play with that woman all you want first. Once you’re tired of her, you can let me have her. How about it?” Huo Lei said with respect.

“Haha, we are brothers. Don’t be so shy.” The man laughed as he spoke.

“Then this is settled, Third Brother. Their strength is nothing to scoff at. Although Third Brother is the genius of our Fire Manor, please be careful.” Huo Lei reminded.

“I will let you witness your Third Brother’s strength. It will show you our differences.” The man spoke with confidence.