

ARMIPOTENT Chapter 206

"Legendary cliché confrontation? What's that?" Fan Rui could not follow his new friend's train of thought, "Just watch, you will know soon!" Gu Yingjie did not want to give a spoiler to his friend.

"Move newbies, you are blocking your seniors!" The man with leather armor, quiver, and bow on the back came forward. While the two men in front were having a silver badge, the archer had a bronze badge on his neck.

Tang Shaoyang grinned instead of being pissed off, "Are you blind? Nah, you are an archer, who would be stupid enough to have a blind archer in their party, right?" He pointed at the open space next to him that was wide enough that for three people to walk by, "Don't you see this, there's no one blocking there, you can walk there, idiot!"

The two did not bother to lower their voice, everyone in the big hall could hear the conversation.

"Huhuhu... Look who's coming back to bully the newbie? Isn't that Tigre Party?"

"Tigre Party really can't stop entertaining us."

"Kuhuhu, but the newbies are not a pushover either, they are biting back!"

The chatter that stopped for a moment continued again. Most of the people would turn to look while some of them ignored the two parties' confrontation.

Sera noticed the party registered under her name was being bullied by the famous Tigre Party. They were famous for bullying the new party under her guide. She gritted her teeth, she was rushing to intervene but Cao Yuntai stopped her, "Don't meddle, let our leader handle this. Rather than that, is there a punishment from fighting between adventurers?"

"They have two Silver Rank Adventurers, your leader-" The old man smiled as he interrupted her, "It's okay, our Boss can handle them, just answer me."

Tang Shaoyang heard and noticed Sera who was coming for them. When Cao Yuntai held Sera's hand, he noticed the young man with long hair's eyes twitched. With just a simple deduction, he could tell why the opposite party was targeting them.

'But aren't they being too petty to make a move on us just because the girl is doing her job?'

There was a missing dot, but he did not care. He was not the type that would back down when someone challenged him, 'This is actually good, I need information on how strong the Silver Rank Adventurer,'

After hearing Tang Shaoyang's retort and under many other adventurer's gazes, the young archer flinched. From the third-person perspective, he was at the fault. The timid archer secretly glanced at the young man with long hair.

"Sera! Didn't I tell you? I will crush every party that is under your guide!" A sharp voice escaped from the young man with long hair's mouth. His sharp gaze was directed to the sweet lady behind him.

The young man was about to approach Sera, but Tang Shaoyang moved to the side. He was standing in front of the young man with a big grin.

"Move!" The man coldly commanded Tang Shaoyang, but the latter just stood there, grinning at the long-haired young man. At this moment, Cao Yuntai approached Tang Shaoyang from behind and whispered, "It's safe to fight as long as you don't kill anyone."

"Don't worry about this douchebag! You go for your quest, I will take care of this scum!" The sweet-smiling Sera told Tang Shaoyang to leave.

However, Tang Shaoyang did not leave. His hand circled the lady's thin waist and pulled her toward him, "Don't worry, Babe! I will not let this douchebag bully you!"

Sera's eyes widened in surprise and the long-haired man was also shocked. At this moment, the tall man with a scar on his face stepped forward.

"Release your hand from her, kneel, and apologize. I will spare your life, and as compensation, I will take this!" The big man's hand reached Tang Shaoyang's battle-ax. Just as he was about to pull the battle-ax, it would not budge.

"Did I allow you to touch my weapon?" Tang Shaoyang looked at the big guy with his cold eyes. The big guy was still trying to pull the battle-ax but it was futile.

Bam!

He kicked the big guy on the belly. The kick sent the big body to fly back. At the same time, he released Sera and pushed her, "Protect her!"

Swoosh!

[Flash Step]

His figure blurred and appeared again next to the laying down big guy. He was still in the state of disbelief that the Wood Rank Adventurer kicked him down. Then he saw Tang Shaoyang appear next to him. His disbelief turned into horror when he saw the man swung the battle-ax down to his neck.

Swoosh!

Clank!

A few centimeters before the ax could cut the big guy's neck, a spear blocked the battle-ax from reaching the big guy's neck. A silver-armored guard used his spear to block the strike, saving the big guy from his doom.

"Draw your weapon back Adventurer! Killing is prohibited inside the city!" The guard reminded Tang Shaoyang.

At this moment, a figure with a sword appeared behind Tang Shaoyang. The figure was Silver Rank Adventurer, the long-haired young man, he raised his hand, ready to stab Tang Shaoyang from the back.

However, the long-haired young man did not expect Tang Shaoyang to spin his body around. The sword missed the target but a kick landed on his neck.

"Arghh!" The long-haired young man let out a pained groan as his head crashed to the ground. Tang Shaoyang did not stop there as he ran toward the groaned young man and kicked him again. This time the kick sent the long-haired young man out of the guild.

With a wide grin, he turned toward the guard, "Killing is prohibited, but I don't kill him. Just a few kicks to warn them so they don't bother me anymore!"

"You are in trouble," the guard shook his head. But Tang Shaoyang maintained his grin, "I will be in more trouble if this sword pierces my body!" Tang Shaoyang kicked the sword.

The guard shook his head once again before he went back to his post below the stair. Just like Cao Yuntai said, the guard did not care about the fighting between adventurers as long as they did not kill each other.

'What a lawless society,' he thought to himself while walking back to his group. The remaining five people from the Tigre Party did not dare to block him anymore. They made a path for him.

Sera was shocked after witnessing such an event. She did not think Tang easily handled two Silver Rank by himself, "You... They..." the girl kept pointing at Tang Shaoyang and the groaned big guy on the ground.

"I am okay, Babe~," he pecked the girl's cheek before he rubbed her hair, "We are leaving," he turned around and walked to the exit. His subordinates followed him, leaving the girl in a daze.

After Tang Shaoyang and his party left the guild, the silence broke into commotion. They were discussing how a Wood Rank took down two Silver Rank alone. While the others were in a heated discussion, Sera felt her face was hot.

An embarrassed look soon turned into a giggle as she thought about Tang's face.
